THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Revolution Sporting Director & Head Coach Bruce Arena, midfielder Carles Gil, and defender Andrew Farrell had to say ahead of Saturday's match vs. LAFC. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolution-soccer.net or visit www.revolutionsoccer.net/media.

New England Revolution Sporting Director & Head Coach Bruce Arena On LAFC's strengths:

Arena: "They're a very good passing team. They're very attack-oriented. When they lose the ball, they get after it. Bob's [Bradley] a big fan of Barcelona, so they try to – however they can, to a certain degree – look at the qualities of the Barcelona team and try to employ that, in relative terms, for LAFC. They're an attack-oriented team. When they lose the ball, they try to win it back in their attacking half of the field."

On his son, Kenny Arena, who is an assistant coach for LAFC:

Arena: "It's fun. I'm not sure I've ever coached against my son, actually, so this will be interesting. If a fight breaks out, I'm going to take him."

New England Revolution Midfielder Carles Gil (via translator)

On not being selected to the 2019 MLS All-Star Team:

Gil: "It's not that important to me. I think in the end, the most important thing to me is the team here and continuing the rhythm we've had over the last three months. Obviously, we want to put in a fight over the next three months and try to qualify for the playoffs."

New England Revolution Defender Andrew Farrell

On how the 11-game unbeaten streak has changed the team's mentality:

Farrell: "I think it's easier to be in a good mental state when you're doing really well and winning, but I think the togetherness of the team has showed throughout even the tough times. Even before we were on this run, I think we kept it super tight and super together. We knew if anybody could get us out of it, it was the guys who were here in the locker room. Obviously, we've got Gustavo [Bou] who's helped us out the last three games, but it's the same guys that were here before. It's important that we keep staying together and keep having that chip on our shoulder. We know how it feels to be on the other end of a run like what we've been doing, so it's important to keep things in check and keep going."

The Revolution enter Saturday evening's showdown with Supporters' Shield-leading LAFC riding the longest active unbeaten streak in MLS at 11 games (7-0-4), which is also tied for the longest unbeaten streak in club history. With a result against LAFC, the Revs will set a new club record for longest unbeaten run, eclipsing the mark set in 2005:

New England's current away form is also the league's best. The club extended its unbeaten run in away matches to five games (3-0-2) with its 2-0 win on July 21 at Cincinnati. The Revolution can tie the club's all-time longest away unbeaten run with a result in Seattle on Aug. 10, and potentially surpass it at New York on Aug. 17.

BOH KNOWS GOALS: 'LA PANTERA' SCORES SECOND IN MLS

Forward Gustavo Bou has wasted little time showcasing his goal-scoring prowess in MLS. La Pantera has posted two goals and one assist in his first three MLS starts, beginning with a stunning volley in his MLS and Revolution debut on July 17 vs. Vancouver, combining with fellow newcomer Carles Gil for that game winner over the 'Caps. He followed up his memorable debut with the game-winning assist on July 21 at Cincinnati, before scoring his second MLS goal -- and the Revolution's quickest of the season just three minutes after kickoff -- on July 27 vs. Orlando.

New England acquired Bou (pronounced BOH; like bow and arrow) via transfer from Liga MX side Club Tijuana on July 10. The 29-year-old Argentine brings 12 years of experience across Argentina, Mexico, and Ecuador, where he recorded 120 combined goals and assists with top-flight clubs including River Plate and Racing Club. He is the first player added to the roster under Sporting Director Bruce Arena and Technical Director Curt Onalfo.

The Concordia, Argentina native spent the last two years with Liga MX side Tijuana, where he recorded 21 goals and 14 assists in 55 appearances after transferring from Racing Club in July 2017. He began his professional career with South American powerhouse Club Atlético River Plate in 2008, signing his first senior contract at the age of 18 after several seasons with the club's reserve team.

In Liga MX's 2019 Torneo Clausura, Bou paced Xolos with 10 goals -- tied for fifth most in the league -- while his five assists also ranked in the top five league-wide.

Bou at a Glance:

- Scored 21 goals in 55 games with Club Tijuana, including 10 in each Liga MX campaign in 2017-18 and 2018-19.
- Totaled 48 goals in more than 100 appearances across all competitions with Racing Club from 2014-17.
- Led all scorers in the 2015 Copa Libertadores with eight goals, and also led Racing in scoring with 10 tallies in 2014.
- Began career at River Plate at age of 18 in 2008 after developing with the club's reserve team.
- Across all competitions, Bou has recorded more than 270 games played, 85 goals scored, and 35 assists in 12-year career spanning Argentina, Mexico, and Ecuador.

Bou enjoyed a productive four-year stretch with Argentine side Racing Club from 2014-18, part of which was spent on loan from Tijuana. In his Racing career, he played in over 120 matches, made 90-plus starts, and scored 48 goals. In his debut season with La Academia, he led the team in scoring with 10 goals in 15 league games -- only one goal shy of the league lead -- en route to the club's 17th first-division title.

With River Plate, Bou recorded three goals in 32 appearances from 2008-12, and helped the team lift the 2008 Primera Division championship, as well as a 2011-12 Primera B Nacional title. He was then loaned to Argentine side Club Olimpo for the 2012-13 campaign, scoring eight goals in 33 league matches. Bou completed another loan stint with top-flight Ecuadorian outfit L.D.U. Quito from July 2013 through January 2014, recording four goals and two assists in 20 Serie A games.

With his fourth-minute goal on July 12 at D.C. United, Bunbury notched the team's then-quickest goal of the season and extended his goal-scoring streak to three games. He enters Saturday's match vs. Orlando having scored in five of the team's last eight league games, most recently finding the back of the net on July 17 vs. Vancouver.

HEAD TURNER: MATT ANCHORS DEFENSIVE TURNAROUND

Goalkeeper Matt Turner has played a pivotal role in New England's unbeaten run. He has started nine of the team's 11 matches during the run, missing only two games for a suspension issued following the May 25 draw vs. D.C. United. Brad Knighton stepped in to help New England register a win on June 2 at LA and a draw on June 26 vs. Philadelphia.

During the 11-game unbeaten run, Turner has submitted a 6-0-2 record with 30 saves -- including a single-game career high of seven stops on July 21 at FC Cincinnati and July 27 vs. Orlando -- and three shutouts.

On the season, Turner ranks fourth among all MLS goalkeepers in save percentage, while his goals against average on the season ranks fifth among goalkeepers with at least 600 minutes played:

PENILLA PICKS UP PACE ENTERING HOME STRETCH

Forward Cristian Penilla is heating up entering the final third of the regular season. The Revolution's reigning Team MVP and Golden Boot winner submitted only one goal through the campaign's first 12 games, but he has rebounded with three goals and six assists during New England's 11-game unbeaten run. Three of his four goals this season were the game-winning strikes, giving him the team lead in that category.

In the last three games alone, Penilla has registered one goal -- the game winner on July 27 vs. Orlando -- and three assists. He has started and played 90 minutes in left midfield in each of the Revolution's last two games, though three of his assists this year have come as a substitute.

In 2018, the Ecuadorian international scored 12 goals and added seven assists. His 12 goals were tied for third most among all MLS newcomers, and set a club record for most by an international signing in his first season with the Revs.

FREITAS NAMED 2019 UHC ACADEMY PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Revolution Academy defender Tyler Freitas (North Attleborough, Mass.—2000) was named the club's 2019 Academy Player of the Year following the 2018-19 season. Freitas becomes the fifth recipient of the prestigious honor, joining Revolution Academy alumni Zachary Herivaux (2014), Justin Rennicks (2015, 2016), Joe Brito (2017), and Kevin Vang (2018).

Freitas, 19, has been an influential presence on the backline since joining the Revolution Academy ahead of the 2014-15 U.S. Soccer Development Academy season. During his fifth Academy campaign in 2018-19, he totaled 19 games played, all starts, and tallied two goals in his second season with the Under-19s.

An integral part of the U-19 team that earned its second Northeast Division title in the last three years, Freitas wore the captain's armband throughout the 2018-19 campaign. In total, he has seen action in 109 games, making 93 starts, while tallying seven goals in his Revolution Academy career, which spans all levels of the program from the then-Under-14 team to the Under-19 squad.

FARRELL REACHES 200 STARTS, CLIMBS RECORD BOOKS

Defender Andrew Farrell has been one of Major League Soccer's most reliable and durable players since he joined the Revolution as the first-overall pick in the 2013 MLS SuperDraft. The 2016 MLS All-Star recently eclipsed 200 appearances and starts with the Revs, and the 27-year old already ranks fifth in Revolution history in games started and minutes played.

For his regular season career, Farrell owns 209 games played, 207 starts, two goals, and seven assists across 18,438 minutes played. Those totals have the Louisville, Ky. native ranking first among all MLS field players in games started and minutes since 2013, trailing only New York Red Bulls goalkeeper Luis Robles.

HOMEGROWN PLAYER NOTES

FAGUNDEZ NEARS EXCLUSIVE 50 GOAL-50 ASSIST CLUB

Midfielder Diego Fagundez vaulted past Lee Nguyen for second most goals scored in Revolution history on July 27 vs. Orlando. The 24-year-old Homegrown Player has scored as a second-half substitute in back-to-back home games. One game after Fagundez eclipsed his mark, Nguyen will make his return to Gillette Stadium as a visitor with LAFC.

Four minutes after scoring on July 17 vs. Vancouver, Fagundez registered his 44th career assist, edging him closer to the brink of becoming the first player in club history to eclipse both 50 goals and 50 assists. His 44 assists are the third most in the Revs record books, trailing only Lee Nguyen's 49 and Steve Ralston's 73.

By eclipsing the 50-assist mark, Fagundez would become the 21st player in MLS history and only the fourth active player to reach the milestone:

RENNICKS FEATURES IN MLS HOMEGROWN GAME BEFORE USL LOAN

Forward Justin Rennicks played 45 minutes in the 2019 MLS Homegrown Game presented by Energizer®. Rennicks was one of 22 players comprising the side, which featured Major League Soccer's most outstanding Academy products including a number of U.S. and Canada Youth National Team standouts. The MLS Homegrown Team topped Chivas de Guadalajara's Under-20 side on penalty kicks in Orlando on Tuesday evening.

This Thursday, the club announced that Rennicks had joined USL Championship side North Carolina FC on loan for the remainder of the season, with the Revolution retaining the ability to recall him at any time. At NCF, Rennicks will play for former USMNT interim head coach and Bruce Arena assistant Dave Sarachan.

The South Hamilton, Mass. native is currently in his first MLS season after signing a Homegrown Player contract with the Revolution on Jan. 18, 2019. He became the sixth Revolution Academy product to join the first team, and made his professional debut in the team's home opener on March 9 as a halftime substitute against Columbus Crew SC. He registered his first career start in New England's 2-1 win vs. Houston on June 29, shortly after coming on as a substitute and scoring his professional goal in the club's U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 match against Orlando City SC on June 19.

Prior to joining the first team, Rennicks developed for more than four years in the Revolution Academy, scoring 38 goals and tallying 25 assists in 100-plus appearances across all levels. He is also the only two-time recipient of the UnitedHealthcare Revolution Academy Player of the Year Award in 2014 and 2015. Following his time in the Revolution Academy, Rennicks played two years at the University of Indiana before signing his Homegrown Player contract.

FIRMINO NAMED TO USSDA'S EAST CONFERENCE BEST XI

Revolution forward and Homegrown Player Nicolas Firmino has been named to the U.S. Soccer Development Academy's East Conference Best XI for the 2018-19 season. Firmino, who became the club's fifth ever Academy product to sign with the first team in November 2018, earns his second consecutive all-conference selection.

Firmino, 18, has been one of the Revolution Academy's most productive attackers over his five seasons with the club. Since joining the Revolution ahead of the 2014-15 USSDA season, the Somerville, Mass. product has tallied more than 40 goals in 100-plus appearances across all levels. Firmino, who has also gone by the nickname "Elio", reached double-digit tallies for a second straight year, knocking in 10 goals in 18 appearances during the 2018-19 campaign.

Firmino signed his first professional contract with the Revs first team on Nov. 27, 2018, but has yet to make his pro debut. He has been named to the 18-man matchday roster on three occasions, making the bench for the first time on April 13 vs. Atlanta United FC.

HERIVAUX HELPS HAITI TO HISTORIC RUN IN '19 GOLD CUP

Revolution Homegrown Player Zachary Herivaux played a key role in the Haiti National Team's historic run at the 2019 Concacaf Gold Cup. Herivaux helped Les Grenadiers win their Gold Cup group for the first time ever en route to a Semifinal appearance -- the nation's best all-time finish at the continental tournament in eight entries. Herivaux now owns 12 career caps with Haiti's senior squad.

The 23-year-old Brookline native started and played 90 minutes in each of Haiti's first two matches of the group stage, both victories, and came on as a substitute to help Les Grenadiers seal a come-from-behind Quarter-final victory vs. Canada. Herivaux also logged 21 minutes as a substitute in the Semifinal vs. Mexico, which saw Haiti nearly knock off the Concacaf powerhouse in extra time.

This season, he has seen 1,034 minutes of action across 12 appearances in the USL Championship while on loan with Birmingham Legion FC. All of his 11 appearances have been starts and include time in central defense.

TEAM NOTES

BRUCE ARENA NAMED SPORTING DIRECTOR & HEAD COACH

The New England Revolution appointed Bruce Arena as the club's sporting director and head coach on May 14. Arena, the winningest coach in United States Men's National Team history and a five-time MLS Cup champion, brings more than four decades of coaching experience at the international and domestic levels to the Revolution. After immediately assuming his duties as sporting director, Arena made his debut on the Revolution sidelines on June 2 against his former club, the LA Galaxy, a 2-1 win.

"Bruce is one of the most successful coaches in American soccer history, and we feel his commitment to excellence, track record of winning championships in Major League Soccer, as well as his success at the international level, makes him the best person to bring the Revolution back to MLS Cup contention," Revolution Investor/Operator Robert Kraft said. "We have known Bruce dating back to the advent of MLS, and we have full confidence that he will raise the level of our club to the standard we all expect and demand."

The New York native joins the Revolution following one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history. Arena's resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, three MLS Supporters' Shields, seven MLS conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. In his previous 14 seasons as an MLS coach, Arena earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, first in 1997 with D.C. United before being honored in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy. At the collegiate level with the University of Virginia (1978-95), he also tallied five NCAA College Cup wins with six ACC Men's Soccer championships.

Arena, who served as head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, holds the record for most wins by a USMNT head coach with 81. He led the United States to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup – the country's best showing since 1930 – as well as an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also coached the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, having captured the continental trophy in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

"It was evident when talking with Bruce that we share a vision for the future of the Revolution and we look forward to having him oversee our soccer organization," Revolution President Brian Bilello said. "We believe that now is the time for a change in leadership and there is no one better suited to usher in a new era of success in New England."

Arena, 67, becomes the winningest active coach in MLS history upon his return to the sideline. He accrued a 202-121-89 record across 14 seasons with D.C. United (1996-98), New York Red Bulls (2006-07), and LA Galaxy (2008-16). His five MLS Cup wins with D.C. United (1996, 1997) and LA Galaxy (2011, 2012, 2014) are the most by a head coach in league history, while his three Supporters Shields are tied with Sigi Schmid for the most all-time.

ARENA JOINS REVS ON BRINK OF MLS HISTORY

Bruce Arena has taken his place on the Revolution bench on the cusp of a major MLS record: most coaching wins. Arena's 208 career regular season wins are second only to Sigi Schmid's 240, as the duo are the only two coaches in MLS history to eclipse the double-century mark. Arena also ranks second all-time in total points earned with 691, behind Schmid's 843.

ALL-TIME MLS COACHING LEADERS: WINS

Rank	Player	Clubs Coached	Wins
1.	Sigi Schmid	LA, CLB, SEA	240
2.	Bruce Arena	DC, LA, NY, NE	208
3.	Dominic Kinnear	SJ, HOU, LA	169
4.	Bob Bradley	CHI, NY, CHV, LAFC	154
5.	Peter Vermes	SKC	139

While Arena has work ahead of him in order to catch Sigi Schmid on the all-time wins list, his five MLS Cup victories are unlikely to be rivaled any time soon, as no other active coach has more than one trophy under their belt. The only other active MLS coaches with MLS Cup wins are Bob Bradley (1998), Caleb Porter (2015), Brian Schmetzer (2016), and Greg Vanney (2017).

ALL-TIME MLS COACHING LEADERS: MLS CUP WINS

- Coached the New York Red Bulls from 2006-07, before serving as the LA Galaxy head coach from 2008-16, where he won three MLS Cups in 2011, 2012, and 2014.

Bruce Arena is currently in his first season as Sporting Director and Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on May 14, 2019. The five-time MLS Cup winner is the eighth head coach in club history and joins the Revolution following a Hall of Fame coaching career that has spanned more than 40 seasons at the collegiate, professional, and international levels.

The Long Island, N.Y. native joins the Revolution following one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history. Arena's MLS resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, three Supporters' Shields, seven conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. In his previous 14 seasons as an MLS coach, Arena earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, first in 1997 with D.C. United before being honored in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy. He returned to the sidelines as the winningest active head coach in MLS history with a record of 203-121-89, and is one of two coaches to have surpassed 200 career regular season wins, along with Sigi Schmid.

On the international stage, Arena, 67, coached the U.S. Men's National Team over two separate stints from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, amassing the most wins in the program's history with a record of 81-35-32. He led the Stars and Stripes to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup – the country's best showing since 1930 – as well an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also guided the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, capturing the continental trophy three times in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

Before his time in the professional ranks, Arena began his head coaching career with one season at the University of Puget Sound (1976), before being named the head coach at the University of Virginia in 1978. During his decorated 18-year tenure at Virginia, he led the Cavaliers to five NCAA Division-1 National Championships, including four in a row from 1991-94, as well as six ACC Men's Soccer titles (1988, 1991-95). While at Virginia, Arena coached a number of American soccer legends, including Claudio Reyna, John Harkes, and current D.C. United Head Coach Ben Olsen.

In 1996, Arena received an offer to lead the United States Under-23 Men's National Team in the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta. Shortly after the Olympics, he assumed the head role with D.C. United, where he led the Black-and-Red to a 61-35 record, including the first two MLS Cup titles in 1996 and 1997, and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title in 1996.

Following the 1998 FIFA Men's World Cup in France, the United States Soccer Federation turned to Arena, who helped the team qualify for the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup. In the tournament, Arena's team recorded an impressive win over powerhouse Portugal and topped Mexico, 2-0, in the Round of 16 en route to the nation's first appearance in the Quarterfinals in a 72-year span. That same year, Arena led the USMNT to the Concacaf Gold Cup title, one of his three triumphs in the competition.

In 2005, Arena won his second Concacaf Gold Cup ahead of the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup in Germany. In the 2006 tournament, the United States earned a 1-1 draw against Italy, but a 2-1 defeat to Ghana sent the USMNT home early.

The next season, Arena took charge of the New York Red Bulls, where he spent the end of the 2006 season and all of the 2007 campaign. In 2008, Arena joined the LA Galaxy for what would be an incredible nine-year tenure that included three MLS Cups in a four-year span and two Supporters' Shields in 2010 and 2011.

Following his decorated career with the Galaxy, Arena rejoined the U.S. Men's National Team in November 2016. In his second run as head coach, he lost only two out of 18 games at the helm, though the United States fell short of qualification for the 2018 FIFA Men's World Cup.

A 2010 National Soccer Hall of Fame inductee, Arena was named the 2015 Werner Fricker Builder Award recipient, earning U.S. Soccer's highest honor for his more than 40 years of service to the game.

A talented lacrosse player, Arena grew up on Long Island and would go on to attend Nassau Community College, where he played both lacrosse and soccer. Arena then transferred to Cornell University in 1971, where as a goalkeeper, he led his team to the 1972 NCAA College Cup Final Four and earned the tournament's Most Valuable Defensive Player award. During the 1973 season, Arena contributed as an assistant coach with Cornell, before then accepting a head coaching position at the University of Puget Sound.

Off the field, Arena has authored a number of books and is a member of the NJCAA Lacrosse Hall of Fame, after receiving induction in 2008. Arena's son, Kenny, was an assistant coach under his father with the LA Galaxy from 2014-16, before joining the staff of Los Angeles FC in 2018, where he currently serves as an assistant coach.

On the international level, Onalfo spent six years as an assistant coach for the United States Men's National Team under Bruce Arena.
