THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Revolution forward Teal Bunbury, defender Jalil Anibaba, and defender Andrew Farrell had to say ahead of Saturday's match at Orlando. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net or visit www.revolutionsoccer.net/media.

New England Revolution Forward Teal Bunbury
On recovering from his hamstring injury:
Bunbury: "I'm feeling really good. Each day it's getting better. I think the athletic training staff and everyone are doing a great job trying to get me back to full fitness, so I'm just trying to obviously push myself, but know that it's important. We only have one chance to get this right, and I don't want something acting up again, but I'm definitely moving in the right direction and feeling good."

New England Revolution Defender Jalil Anibaba
On Matt Turner's form and the confidence he gives the back line:
Anibaba: "It's huge. You guys can tell by the way we're playing in front of him – we're willing and ready to throw our bodies in front of the ball, because we know if we maybe get slid in behind or whatever have you, Matt [Turner] can come up with the save. That allows us to play a little bit more aggressive. Obviously, we know if it's up to him to keep us in the game or win the game for us, he will."

New England Revolution Defender Andrew Farrell
On Saturday's match at Orlando:
Farrell: "We've got a couple of suspensions, guys who are coming back from fitness, so we need to make sure we're sharp and healthy for this game. Again, it's the biggest one of our season. It's a big, big, big, big six-pointer to keep being in the playoffs and keep being in contention for being in a higher spot in the playoffs. We're excited for the opportunity. We have five more games, so excited for that, but Orlando's a big game."

GIL TURN: CARLES MAKES NEWCOMER OF THE YEAR CASE

Carles Gil (pronounced CAR-LESS HEEL) has established himself as one of Major League Soccer's most prolific playmakers in his debut campaign with New England. The Spaniard has collected nine goals and 12 assists, both team highs. His combined total of 21 goals and assists is tied for most among all MLS newcomers in 2019, while his 12 assists and 75 chances created both lead the league's newcomers.

Gil is in the midst of a blistering run of form, having registered a goal or assist in 10 of the team's last 14 league games, including both a goal and an assist in four of his last eight outings. He is fresh off a three-game stretch between July 17 and July 27 where he registered a goal and an assist in three consecutive games, making him one of only nine players in MLS history to do so.

With one more goal, Gil can join Carles Vela and Alejandro Pozuelo as the only players in MLS with 10 goals and 10 assists in 2019. He would also be the second Revolution player ever to post a 10-and-10 season, joining Lee Nguyen (11G/15A in 2017). His 19 combined goals and primary assists are fifth most in MLS, and lead all of Major League Soccer's 2019 newcomers:

2019 MLS LEADERS: COMBINED GOALS & PRIMARY ASSISTS

Rank	Player	Club	Goals + Assists
1.	Carlos Vela	LAFC	37
2.	Zlatan Ibrahimovic	LA Galaxy	27
3.	Josef Martinez	Atlanta	25
4.	Diego Rossi	LAFC	20
5.	Carles Gil	New England	19

Gil's service has regularly resulted in scoring opportunities for his teammates, including eight key passes on June 29 vs. Houston -- the fifth most by an MLS player in a single game this season. He owns 82 chances created on the season -- tied for fourth most in MLS -- including 53 from open play, which is fifth most in the league:

2019 MLS LEADERS: CHANCES CREATED

Rank	Player	Club	Chances Created
1.	Diego Valeri	Portland	108
2.	Magnus Eriksson	San Jose	97
3.	Maximiliano Moralez	NYCFC	86
T-4.	Carles Gil	New England	82
T-4.	Carlos Vela	LAFC	82

Gil also ranks among Major League Soccer's league leaders in several additional categories, proving his value far beyond the scoresheet:

2019 MLS LEADERS: HOW CARLES GIL STACKS UP

Category	Gil's MLS Ranking	Total
Primary Assists	T-3rd	10
Game-Winning Assists	T-6th	4
Successful Passes ending in Final 1/3	1st	615
Passes Played into the box	1st	311

Touches	5th	2.259
Fouls Won Final 1/3	5th	22
Fouls Won	6th	72
Dribbles Completed	7th	64

Wit 12 assists -- already the fifth most by a Revolutin player in a single regular season -- Gil is on track to post one of the most productive campaigns in club history. By reaching the 15-assist mark, Gil would surpass Steve Ralston's 2007 campaign (14 assists), and match Lee Nguyen (2017) and Joe-Max Moore (1998) for the second-most assists in a season by a Revs player. Ralston holds the club mark with 19 assists in 2002.

New England's undefeated run on the road reached seven games with that result, eclipsing the club's previous record from 2008. The club's historic run on the road was snapped with the 2-1 loss on Sept. 7 at New York City FC:

11-GAME UNBEATEN RUN SPARKS HISTORIC TURNAROUND

After a 2-8-2 start to the season, the Revolution reversed course with an 11-game unbeaten run from May 11 through July 27. Since that streak began, New England has earned points in 15 of the last 17 games, with its only two losses coming against the current leaders of their respective conferences: Aug. 3 vs. LAFC, and Sept. 7 at NYCFC. After opening the season with a minus-19 goal differential, the Revs rebounded with a 7-0-4 record and +14 goal differential during the unbeaten run to firmly supplant the club in the Eastern Conference playoff picture with six games remaining.

The Revolution's 11-match unbeaten run spanned 84 days and matched the best single-season stretch in club history (2005). In 2019, only New York City FC has registered a longer undefeated run than New England, having gone unbeaten across 12 games between April 6 and July 3.

BOU KNOWS GOALS: 'LA PANTERA' ON THE PROWL IN MLS

Forward Gustavo Bou has wasted no time showcasing his goal-scoring prowess in MLS. La Pantera has six goals and one assist through his first nine games with New England, appearing on the scoresheet in all but two matches.

Bou opened his account with a stunning volley in his MLS debut on July 17 vs. Vancouver, when he combined with fellow newcomer Carles Gil for the game winner. He followed up his memorable debut with the game-winning assist on July 21 at Cincinnati, before scoring his second MLS goal -- and the Revolution's quickest of the season just three minutes after kickoff -- on July 27 vs. Orlando. In the Revolution's last three games, Bou has exhibited a knack for coming through in the clutch, having netted the game-tying goal on Aug. 17 at New York, the game-winning goal on Aug. 24 vs. Chicago, and the game-tying goal on Aug. 31 vs. Toronto.

Since debuting on July 17, Bou has quickly asserted himself as one of the league's most efficient goal scorers. His six goals from the run of play are fourth most league-wide, while his goals scored per 90 minutes clip is also among the MLS leaders across the entire season. Since his debut, he also ranks among MLS's top five in total shots and shots on target.

FARRELL REACHES 200 STARTS, CLIMBS RECORD BOOKS

Defender Andrew Farrell has been one of Major League Soccer's most reliable and durable players since he joined the Revolution as the first-overall pick in the 2013 MLS SuperDraft. The 2016 MLS All-Star recently eclipsed 200 appearances and starts with the Revs. The 27-year old already ranks fifth in club history in games started and minutes played.

Those totals have the Louisville, Ky. native ranking first among all MLS field players in games started and minutes since 2013, trailing only New York Red Bulls goalkeeper Luis Robles.

After missing the first few games of the year with an eye injury, Farrell made 21 consecutive starts in 2019 at either right back or center back, and played 90 minutes in each of those appearances, before serving a one-game suspension for yellow card accumulation on Aug. 17.

Revolution Academy product and nine-year MLS veteran Diego Fagundez vaulted past Lee Nguyen for second-most goals scored in Revolution history on July 27 vs. Orlando, scoring the 52nd goal of his MLS regular season career. He now trails only Taylor Twellman (101) for the all-time club scoring mark.

Four minutes after scoring on July 17 vs. Vancouver, the 24-year old registered his 44th career assist -- before picking up his 45th on Aug. 31 vs. Toronto -- edging him closer to becoming the first player in club history to reach both 50 goals and 50 assists. FIVE REVS ON LOAN IN THE USL CHAMPIONSHIP

Five Revolution players are currently on loan in the USL Championship, including Homegrown Players Justin Rennicks (North Carolina FC), Isaac Angking (Charlotte Independence), and Zachary Herivaux (Birmingham Legion FC), as well as Cody Cropper (Hartford Athletic) and Brian Wright (Birmingham Legion).

Cropper is the most recent addition to the Revolution's list of loaned players. The goalkeeper debuted with USL Championship expansion side Hartford Athletic during a friendly against the Puerto Rico National Team on Aug. 17. Through three league starts, he has posted a 2-1-0 record with 18 saves. Cropper will join Hartford for matches, but will continue to train with the Revolution during the week.

Rennicks joined NCFC on Aug. 1, two days after he played 45 minutes in the 2019 MLS Homegrown Game presented by Energizer®. Rennicks was one of 22 players comprising the side, which featured Major League Soccer's most outstanding Academy products including a number of U.S. and Canada Youth National Team standouts. He has played 267 minutes across seven appearances with one assist. Rennicks is playing under former USMNT interim head coach and Bruce Arena assistant Dave Sarachan with NCFC.

Angking joined Charlotte Independence on Aug. 2, and has played 221 minutes across four appearances, including three starts, with one assist. The Providence, R.I. native owns three career MLS appearances since signing with the first team ahead of the 2018 campaign.

With Birmingham, Wright has excelled across his 19 appearances and 16 starts, totaling four goals and four assists. The third-year pro has earned two USL Team of the Week selections this season. Meanwhile, Herivaux has made 14 appearnces to date, logging over 1,100 minutes played primarily in the midfield, but also along the backline.

CHRIS TIERNEY JOINS GROWING SCOUTING OPERATION

The Revolution have further expanded the club's technical staff and scouting operation by adding Chris Tierney in the new role of Player Recruitment Manager. A native of Wellesley, Mass., Tierney, who played his entire career with the Revolution from 2008-18 and ranks among the club's all-time leaders in several statistical categories, will serve in a scouting role under the direction of Sporting Director Bruce Arena and Technical Director Curt Onalfo.

"It is always a great moment for our club anytime there is an opportunity to bring one of our former players back in a new role," said Revolution President Brian Bilello. "Chris was a great player, teammate and ambassador for the Revolution on and off the field during his time as a player and we're thrilled to have him join the front office."

Tierney, 33, announced his retirement in Nov. 2018 after 11 professional seasons, all with the Revolution. Long regarded as one of Major League Soccer's best left backs, he finished his career ranked among the club's all-time leaders in games played (3rd; 246), games started (4th; 220), and assists (T-4th; 40). He helped New England to a 2008 North American SuperLiga title as well as appearances in the 2014 MLS Cup and 2016 U.S. Open Cup finals. TEAM NOTES

BRUCE ARENA NAMED SPORTING DIRECTOR & HEAD COACH

The New England Revolution appointed Bruce Arena as the club's sporting director and head coach on May 14. Arena, the winningest coach in United States Men's National Team history and a five-time MLS Cup champion, brings more than four decades of coaching experience at the international and domestic levels to the Revolution. After immediatley assuming his duties as sporting director, Arena made his debut on the Revolution sidelines on June 2 against his former club, the LA Galaxy, a 2-1 win.

"Bruce is one of the most successful coaches in American soccer history, and we feel his commitment to excellence, track record of winning championships in Major League Soccer, as well as his success at the international level, makes him the best person to bring the Revolution back to MLS Cup contention," Revolution Investor/Operator Robert Kraft said. "We have known Bruce dating back to the advent of MLS, and we have full confidence that he will raise the level of our club to the standard we all expect and demand."

The New York native joined the Revolution following one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history. Arena's resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, three MLS Supporters' Shields, seven MLS conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. In his previous 14 seasons as an MLS coach, Arena earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, first in 1997 with D.C. United before being honored in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy. At the collegiate level with the University of Virginia (1978-95), he also tallied five NCAA College Cup wins with six ACC Men's Soccer championships.

Arena, who served as head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, holds the record for most wins by a USMNT head coach with 81. He led the United States to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup – the country's best showing since 1930 – as well an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also coached the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, having captured the continental trophy in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

"It was evident when talking with Bruce that we share a vision for the future of the Revolution and we look forward to having him oversee our soccer organization," Revolution President Brian Bilello said. "We believe that now is the time for a change in leadership and there is no one better suited to usher in a new era of success in New England."

Arena, 67, became the winningest active coach in MLS history upon his return to the sideline. Prior to New England, he accrued a 202-121-89 record across 14 seasons with D.C. United (1996-98), New York Red Bulls (2006-07), and LA Galaxy (2008-16). His five MLS Cup wins with D.C. United (1996, 1997) and LA Galaxy (2011, 2012, 2014) are the most by a head coach in league history, while his three Supporters Shields are tied with Sigi Schmid for the most all-time.

ARENA NEARS 700-POINT MILESTONE AND WINS RECORD

Bruce Arena can become only the second head coach in Major League Soccer history to reach 700 career regular season points with a win at New York City FC on Saturday afternoon. Arena holds 697 career points (209-123-94), which is second only to Sigi Schmid's 843 regular season points. In addition, Arena's 209 career regular season wins are second only to Schmid's 240.

4.	Bob Bradley	CHI, NY, CHV, LAFC	159

The only other active MLS coaches with MLS Cup wins are Bob Bradley (1998), Caleb Porter (2015), Brian Schmetzer (2016), and Greg Vanney (2017).

- Coached the New York Red Bulls from 2006-07, before serving as the LA Galaxy head coach from 2008-16, where he won three MLS Cups in 2011, 2012, and 2014.

Bruce Arena is currently in his first season as Sporting Director and Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on May 14, 2019. The five-time MLS Cup winner is the eighth head coach in club history and joins the Revolution following a Hall of Fame coaching career that has spanned more than 40 seasons at the collegiate, professional, and international levels.

The Long Island, N.Y. native joins the Revolution following one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history. Arena's MLS resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, three Supporters' Shields, seven conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. In his previous 14 seasons as an MLS coach, Arena earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, first in 1997 with D.C. United before being honored in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy. He returned to the sidelines as the winningest active head coach in MLS history with a record of 202-121-89, and is one of two coaches to have surpassed 200 career regular season wins, along with Sigi Schmid.

On the international stage, Arena, 67, coached the U.S. Men's National Team over two separate stints from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, amassing the most wins in the program's history with a record of 81-35-32. He led the Stars and Stripes to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup – the country's best showing since 1930 – as well an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also guided the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, capturing the continental trophy three times in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

Before his time in the professional ranks, Arena began his head coaching career with one season at the University of Puget Sound (1976), before being named the head coach at the University of Virginia in 1978. During his decorated 18-year tenure at Virginia, he led the Cavaliers to five NCAA Division-1 National Championships, including four in a row from 1991-94, as well as six ACC Men's Soccer titles (1988, 1991-95). While at Virginia, Arena coached a number of American soccer legends, including Claudio Reyna, John Harkes, and current D.C. United Head Coach Ben Olsen.

In 1996, Arena received an offer to lead the United States Under-23 Men's National Team in the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta. Shortly after the Olympics, he assumed the head role with D.C. United, where he led the Black-and-Red to a 61-35 record, including the first two MLS Cup titles in 1996 and 1997, and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title in 1996.

Following the 1998 FIFA Men's World Cup in France, the United States Soccer Federation turned to Arena, who helped the team qualify for the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup. In the tournament, Arena's team recorded an impressive win over powerhouse Portugal and topped Mexico, 2-0, in the Round of 16 en route to the nation's first appearance in the Quarterfinals in a 72-year span. That same year, Arena led the USMNT to the Concacaf Gold Cup title, one of his three triumphs in the competition.

In 2005, Arena won his second Concacaf Gold Cup ahead of the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup in Germany. In the 2006 tournament, the United States earned a 1-1 draw against Italy, but a 2-1 defeat to Ghana sent the USMNT home early.

The next season, Arena took charge of the New York Red Bulls, where he spent the end of the 2006 season and all of the 2007 campaign. In 2008, Arena joined the LA Galaxy for what would be an incredible nine-year tenure that included three MLS Cups in a four-year span and two Supporters' Shields in 2010 and 2011.

Following his decorated career with the Galaxy, Arena rejoined the U.S. Men's National Team in November 2016. In his second run as head coach, he lost only two out of 18 games at the helm, though the United States fell short of qualification for the 2018 FIFA Men's World Cup.

A 2010 National Soccer Hall of Fame inductee, Arena was named the 2015 Werner Fricker Builder Award recipient, earning U.S. Soccer's highest honor for his more than 40 years of service to the game.

A talented lacrosse player, Arena grew up on Long Island and would go on to attend Nassau Community College, where he played both lacrosse and soccer. Arena then transferred to Cornell University in 1971, where as a goalkeeper, he led his team to the 1972 NCAA College Cup Final Four and earned the tournament's Most Valuable Defensive Player award. During the 1973 season, Arena contributed as an assistant coach with Cornell, before then accepting a head coaching position at the University of Puget Sound.

Off the field, Arena has authored a number of books and is a member of the NJCAA Lacrosse Hall of Fame, after receiving induction in 2008. Arena's son, Kenny, was an assistant coach under his father with the LA Galaxy from 2014-16, before joining the staff of Los Angeles FC in 2018, where he currently serves as an assistant coach.

Onalfo owns 12 total years of MLS coaching experience, highlighted by stints as head coach of D.C. United (2010), the then-Kansas City Wizards (2007-09), and the LA Galaxy (2017). While continuing as an assistant with the Galaxy, he also served as the inaugural head coach of USL Championship side LA Galaxy II from 2014-16, where he led the club to a Western Conference title in 2015. When he departed "Los Dos" to take over head coaching duties with the Galaxy first team, his overall record with the developmental side finished at 46-29-20.

On the international level, Onalfo spent six years as an assistant coach for the United States Men's National Team under Bruce Arena. He served as an assistant for the USMNT from 2002-07 – including at the 2002 and 2006 FIFA Men's World CupTM – and also worked as an assistant with the U.S. Under-23 MNT in 2002. Prior to joining the Revolution, he most recently assisted the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team from 2018 through May 2019, including in Poland at the FIFA U-20 Men's World CupTM, and briefly served as acting head coach of the U-19 side for a training camp in January 2019.

Onalfo, 49, entered the coaching ranks an assistant with D.C. United in 2000 following his retirement. He remained with the Black and Red until September 2002, briefly serving as interim head coach in 2001. After his time in the U.S. Men's National Team setup, Onalfo was appointed head coach of the Kansas City Wizards shortly after the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. He led Kansas City for two-and-a-half seasons, compiling a 27-29-22 record, and helped the club reach the postseason twice, including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2007. In December 2009, Onalfo was named head coach of D.C. United, where he would remain for eight months before departing the club.

After starring for Ridgefield High School, Onalfo played collegiately for Bruce Arena at the University of Virginia from 1987-1990. In four seasons with the Cavaliers, he earned a pair of All-ACC First Team selections and helped the team win the 1988 ACC Championship. He began his professional career with French side La Ciotat in 1991, before featuring for the Connecticut Wolves of the USISL from 1994-95, and Mexican second division side Tampico Madero in 1995.

Onalfo was selected by the LA Galaxy in the inaugural MLS Draft and would make 13 appearances for the club in 1996, helping it reach the first ever MLS Cup. The defender went on to register 23 appearances across four seasons in MLS, spending additional time with San Jose (1997) and D.C. United (1998-99). He recorded one international cap with the U.S. Men's National Team and featured extensively at the youth level, including the 1989 FIFA World Youth Championship, the 1991 Pan American Games, and the 1992 Summer Olympics.

Onalfo's journey took a detour soon after the 1992 Olympics, when a diagnosis of stage three Hodgkin's disease at the age of 24 disrupted his career and nearly ended his life. After surviving his arduous battle with cancer, Onalfo resumed his playing career with Connecticut and then Mexican side Tampico FC, before joining the Galaxy for the inaugural MLS season.

REMI ROY

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING & PRO PERSONNEL

Remi Roy is currently in his 10th season with the New England Revolution and his second as the club's Director of Scouting & Player Personnel, having been named to the position in January 2018. Roy has been with the club since 2010, previously serving as an assistant coach with New England for eight seasons.

In his new role, Roy is focused on scouting and talent identification in players at the collegiate, national, and international levels. He works closely with the Revolution technical staff in player evaluation and has a role in all soccer-related aspects of the organization, including communication with agents and facilitating MLS communication and compliance.

Roy was heavily engaged in the Revolution's scouting operations throughout his tenure as an assistant coach, contributing to the club's domestic and international scouting efforts. As an assistant coach, first under Steve Nicol and then for six seasons on Jay Heaps' staff, he worked primarily with the Revs' first-team goalkeepers and also provided additional training for the Revolution Academy goalkeepers.

During his time on the Revs' coaching staff, Roy mentored several talented goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in the professional ranks. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07).

Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).

Roy holds a USSF "A" License and Level I and II NSCAA Goalkeeping Licenses. A native of Petit-Rocher, New Brunswick, Canada, Roy lives south of Boston with his wife and three kids.
