THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel and midfielder Diego Fagundez had to say ahead of Saturday's match against New York Red Bulls. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net or visit www.revolutionsoccer.net/media.

New England Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel

On players being prepared in a two-game week:

Coach Friedel: "Today we're seeing how the players are feeling. There's a couple with fatigue, a couple banged up, so we'll assess them throughout the rest of today and then tomorrow morning. The message is the same as from day one – keep yourself ready, keep yourself fit, and you never know when your chance can come. And you have to be ready. I think a couple of the players along the way have been a little bit surprised when they've gotten the call. You shouldn't be surprised. We think every player on the squad is capable of doing a good job on the field, and we're going to put the 11 bodies out there that we hope will get the three points for us, but every player has to be ready."

New England Revolution Midfielder Diego Fagundez

On facing New York Red Bulls:

Fagundez: "It's definitely a rivalry. I think for the past years, Open Cup and MLS games, you can tell that we don't like each other so we just have to go out there and make sure we get the good side of it. But at the end of the day, it's going to be a tough game, so we all have to be ready. Whoever's out there has to fight and when we have our chance to punish them, we need to punish them."

REVS SIGN 2018 SPECIAL OLYMPICS MA UNIFIED TEAM

The New England Revolution and Special Olympics Massachusetts are teaming up once again to leverage the power of sports to promote an environment of inclusion and friendly competition. As part of the 50th anniversary celebration of the Special Olympics Movement, the organizations are joining forces to field the Revolution's third ever Special Olympics Unified Team, featuring 13 Massachusetts athletes with and without intellectual disabilities.

This season's partnership kicked off in April with the first-of-its-kind Unified Clinic at Gillette Stadium. Earlier this week on May 16, Special Olympics athletes returned to Foxborough to officially sign their contracts to join the Unified Team. At the signing, the players met with Revolution President Brian Bilello, Head Coach Brad Friedel, General Manager Michael Burns, and defender Andrew Farrell as they were formally introduced to the media as the club's newest members.

The Special Olympics Unified Team will hold numerous training sessions throughout the summer in preparation for the Unified match against the Philadelphia Union, which will follow the MLS match on Saturday, August 11. The summer's activities also feature the Revolution's annual fundraising event benefitting Special Olympics Massachusetts, Bowl for a Goal Presented by Arbella Insurance, on August 1.

WHEN THE "REVS SCORE, BOSTON SCORES"

The Revolution and Boston SCORES are continuing to team up through the "Revs Score, Boston SCORES" initiative to assist under-resourced youth in the greater Boston area. For every goal the Revolution score at Gillette Stadium this season, the New England Revolution Charitable Foundation will contribute $100, which equates to the cost of one week of programming for a child. Through eight home games in 2018, the Revs have raised $1,300 for Boston SCORES, or 13 full weeks of programming.

The collaboration, which began in October 2016, expands player involvement with youth in Boston SCORES' after-school program through Academy-run soccer clinics and participation in SCORES' Service Learning Projects.

In addition, the 14th annual SCORES Cup will take place at Gillette Stadium on Saturday, June 16. Last year's event raised over $320,000 for Boston SCORES. In partnership with the Revolution, the 2017 edition of the corporate charity soccer tournament brought over 600 players and more than 50 sponsors together for the record-breaking fundraising event.
