THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel and forward ABrian Wright had to say ahead of Saturday's match vs. Chicago. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net or visit www.revolutionsoccer.net/media.

New England Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel

On the upcoming match against Chicago:

Coach Friedel: "They have very good players. They got that early goal against Orlando [last weekend], which seemed to deflate Orlando. It was also in a difficult run of games. They just took advantage of it. We're going to have to be at the top of our game, we're going to have to play high tempo, we're going to have to get in their faces when we don't have the ball. And when we have the ball, we're going to need to attack like we've been doing most of the season and creating these chances. We have a very good thing in our team when we do have our counters and quick attacks. We're very difficult to stop from getting the chances. And then, I think we'll have opportunities against Chicago to keep the ball when we need to manage the game as well. All things that we need to continue to grow on as time goes by. I've said this many times to my staff, it's in its infancy with the club. There's lot of things that we work on every day. When you get lots of time, more time, with the players, you get better and better at what it is you're trying to accomplish."

New England Revolution Forward Brian Wright

On making a second consecutive start against LAFC last weekend:

Wright: "The first game – first start you get – a bit nervous, but after you get your second start, it's kind of out of the way and you're more confident in yourself, so you believe you can do this and that on the field. To be honest, to get a second start in a row, it felt pretty good, but it felt good to get a result. Obviously, we wish we could've gotten a win, but coming up this weekend, [we're] hoping to pick up three points at home."

- The club boasting at least two 10-goal scorers for the second straight year, and the fifth time in club history. Teal Bunbury has 11 goals while Cristian Penilla (9) and Diego Fagundez (7) are approaching the double-digit mark. The Revs have never had three 10-goal scorers in the same campaign.

Individual:

- M Kelyn Rowe making his 201st career appearance and tying Steve Ralston for the sixth-most games played in Revolution history.
- D Andrew Farrell (28 starts) continuing to be the only Revolution player to start every match this season.
- F Teal Bunbury becoming the second Revs player in the last four MLS seasons to score at least 12 goals (Kei Kamara - 12 in 2017).
- F Cristian Penilla scoring once to reach 10 goals for the season.
- M Diego Fagundez or M Kelyn Rowe recording one assist to claim sole possession of third place on the club's all-time assist list, where they both sit tied with Chris Tierney at 40 helpers.
- Fagundez (48 goals) tallying twice to become the youngest MLS player to record 50 career regular season goals, per the Elias Sports Bureau.
- Fagundez (163) recording one shot on goal to surpass Lee Nguyen (163) for the second most in club history, behind only Taylor Twellman (318).
- GK Brad Knighton (59 starts) potentially making his 60th career MLS start in the regular season. Knighton has started back-to-back matches in net for the Revs, including a shutout win on Sept. 5 at New York City FC.

REVS - CHICAGO CONNECTIONS

- Revolution defender Jalil Anibaba was drafted by the Chicago Fire with the ninth-overall pick in the 2011 MLS SuperDraft. He made 98 total appearances, including 94 starts, for the Fire between 2011-13, also recording four goals and five assists from.
- Revolution assistant coach Mike Lapper coached Fire assistant coach Eric Gehrig from 2011-13 when the latter was a defender for Columbus Crew SC.

ALL WRIGHT, ALL WRIGHT, ALL WRIGHT

Revolution forward Brian Wright made the most of his first career MLS start on Sept. 5 at New York City, opening his professional account with the game's lone goal in the 70th minute. Wright cleaned up a rebound with his left foot to put New England ahead, 1-0, and ultimately take all three points from the pivotal intraconference clash. With Teal Bunbury sidelined, Wright stepped up and submitted a solid 70-minute shift, which also included a shot that hit both posts in the 25th minute.

Wright again slotted into New England's starting XI against LAFC and played 57 minutes in the 1-1 draw. He put a shot on net that forced a difficult save from LAFC goalkeeper Tyler Miller in the 55th minute.

A six-foot-one, 200-pound forward, Wright was selected by the Revolution with the 20th-overall pick in the 2017 MLS SuperDraft after scoring 39 goals at the University of Vermont – good for second most in school history. In his MLS career to date, he has registered 245 minutes played across 10 appearances, eight of them coming as a substitute.

A MEMORABLE MONTH FOR MIDFIELDER ISAAC ANGKING

Revolution midfielder Isaac Angking, who became the club's fourth ever Homegrown Player signing in January 2018 after more than four years with the club's Academy, made a second consecutive appearance in last Saturday's 1-1 draw with LAFC. The Providence, R.I., native played nine minutes after replacing fellow Homegrown Player Diego Fagundez, and chested a ball down to Teal Bunbury that led to Brandon Bye's equalizing goal.

Angking made his professional debut as a second-half substitute in the Revolution's crucial 1-0 away win on Sept. 5 at New York City. He contributed a calm, composed performance that helped New England protect its 1-0 lead and snap a nine-game winless run. In 19 minutes of play, he recorded one shot – which hit the post – one chance created, 12 touches, and nine passes. The 18-year-old signed a Homegrown Player contract with the Revs on Jan. 2, 2018, but missed several months with a non-soccer related illness.

One day after making his MLS debut, Angking flew to Bradenton, Fla., where he joined the United States Under-19 Men's National Team for the 2018 U.S. Soccer U-20 Men's Invitational. The camp marked his first international appearance at the U-19 level. The four-team tournament also featured the U.S. U-20 MNT, the Jamaica U-20 National Team, and Venezuela. Angking appeared in each of the U-19's three matches, starting two, and helped the side finish atop the tournament table with seven points. He also converted a penalty kick in the U-19's final match against the Jamaica U-20s, a 4-1 win for the Americans.

TEAM NOTES

GO, DIEGO, GO: FAGUNDEZ APPROACHING MORE MILESTONES

Midfielder Diego Fagundez has been thriving in a central attacking midfield role this season. In addition to his team-best eight assists, equal to his previous career high from 2013, he has tallied seven goals through 27 appearances this season. With two more goals, Fagundez could become the first MLS player to hit the 50-goal mark before his 24th birthday, per the Elias Sports Bureau. Only two players have done so at 25-or-younger: Landon Donovan (24 years, 175 days) and Carlos Ruiz (24 years, 341 days).

In addition to closing in on the 50-goal mark, Fagundez is only three goals shy of matching Lee Nguyen (51) for the second-most goals scored in Revolution history.

He is now tied with teammates Kelyn Rowe and Chris Tierney for the third-most helpers in club history. Fagundez also paces MLS in chances created away from home this season with 45 – nine more than any other players – and ranks third overall with 78 chances created.

Fagundez added another milestone to his résumé on June 30 vs. D.C. United, becoming the youngest player in MLS history to appear in 200 regular season MLS matches at 23 years and 136 days old. On the same night, he also became the second-youngest player, behind only Eddie Gaven (22 years, 245 days), to reach 150 career starts in MLS history, per the Elias Sports Bureau.

The Homegrown midfielder currently ranks fifth in club history in all-time appearances (211) and ninth in club history in all-time starts (160). For his career, Fagundez has already set a number of age-related club records as the youngest player to:

PENILLA'S PACE PACKS EXPLOSIVE PUNCH

Forward Cristian Penilla has infused an electric element to the Revs' attack in his debut MLS campaign. In 27 starts, Penilla has contributed nine goals and six assists. With his next goal, he would give New England a pair of players with at least 10 goals (along with Teal Bunbury) for only the fifth time in club history.

Penilla has posted two braces on the season, with the most recent one coming in the Revs' 3-2 win vs. D.C. United on June 30, a performance that earned him a bench spot on MLSsoccer.com's Team of the Week. Penilla has made the league's Team of the Week six times this season, the most selections among Revolution players.

The Esmeralda, Ecuador native is tied for seventh among all MLS newcomers this season in goals scored.

MANCIENNE BRINGS TOP-FLIGHT EXPERIENCE TO NEW ENGLAND

The Revolution announced another addition to the squad on Aug. 3, signing defender Michael Mancienne on a free transfer from EFL Championship side Nottingham Forest F.C. Since his arrival, the veteran center back has integrated seamlessly into the Revs' backline.

Mancienne made his debut in a Revolution shirt on Aug. 19 at D.C. United, just days after joining the team. Despite a short acclimation period, he slotted into the starting XI in central defense and provided a calm, composed presence for the Revs' backline. In a 90-minute shift, Mancienne recorded 55 touches, four tackles, and completed 88.1 percent of his passes. He has played all 90 minutes in three of the Revolution's last four games as well, and helped anchored the team to a clean sheet on Sept. 5 at New York City. Mancienne missed the club's match at LAFC on Sept. 15 for the birth of his first child, Noah, on Sept. 13.

A former England youth international and graduate of Chelsea's youth system with 99 combined career appearaces in the English Premier League and German Bundesliga, Mancienne officially began training with the club on Aug. 16. The six-foot-one defender brings a bevy of experience, including more than 320 senior appearances and 25,000 minutes played across Europe with Chelsea (2006-11), Queens Park Rangers (2006-08), Wolverhampton (2008-11), Hamburger SV (2011-14), and Forest (2014-18).

TEAM NOTES

NOT BLUE, NOT GREEN: TEAL ENJOYING CAREER YEAR

Forward Teal Bunbury is in the midst of the best scoring campaign of his nine-year MLS career. Bunbury's 11 goals mark a career high, two more than his previous season best of nine set in 2011 with Sporting Kansas City. He began the 2018 season on a torrid pace, tallying in 10 of 14 games from March 31 through June 30. He now owns 47 career goals in the regular season, plus four more in the playoffs across 242 combined appearances.

Bunbury's goal total is currently tied for 12th most in MLS. He is also tied for second among MLS players in game-winning goals with five trailing only Atlanta's Josef Martinez's 10. The club record for game-winning goals in a season is nine, set by Lee Nguyen in 2014.

FARRELL AMONG MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER IRONMEN

Since joining the Revolution as the first-overall selection in the 2013 MLS SuperDraft, defender Andrew Farrell has been virtually irreplacable as one of the club's defensive anchors. He is the only Revolution player to start every MLS match this season. The Louisville, Ky. native ranks first among all MLS field players, and second overall, in regular season games started and minutes played since the start of 2013. He also ranks third in games played. Teammate and Revolution Homegrown Player Diego Fagundez also ranks among the top three in MLS appearances by an outfield player since 2013.

BYE THE WAY: BRANDON AMONG MOST ACTIVE ROOKIES

Defender Brandon Bye has emerged as Brad Friedel's go-to selection at left back over the Revolution's last seven games. Bye, selected by New England with the eighth-overall pick in the 2018 MLS SuperDraft, has appeared in each of the club's last 10 matches, making seven consecutive starts at left back. Friedel's trust in Bye paid dividends in the club's 1-1 draw at LAFC on Sept. 15, when Bye opened his professional account with the equalizing goal in the 82nd minute.

On the season, Bye owns 18 appearances, 11 starts, and has registered a pair of assists in addition to his game-tying goal against LAFC. The Western Michigan University product's recent run of action has him ranked fourth among the most-played rookies from the 2018 MLS SuperDraft class:

REVOLUTION ADD ARGENTINE GUILLERMO HAUCHÉ

On Sept. 13, the Revolution signed Argentine forward/midfielder Guillermo Hauche. Hauché, a 25-year-old native of La Plata, Argentina, has experience in both Argentina and Chile's top-flight divisions after six professional seasons in the Argentine Superleague, Argentine Primera B Nacional, and Chilean Primera División. The forward has amassed more than 2,000 minutes and played in 33 appearances across all competitions.

A product of Club Atlético Lanús' youth system, Hauché began his professional career with Argentine powerhouse Racing Club in 2013. He made three appearances, including two starts, for La Academia in the 2013-14 campaign, before joining second-division side Almargo on loan for the 2015 season. In 2017, Hauché completed another loan stint with Unión Española of Chile's Primera División, where he logged 891 minutes in 14 appearances. Most recently, the forward played for another Chilean Primera División side, Deportes Temuco, on loan from Racing Club and made eight appearances.

Prior to signing his contract with New England, Hauché spent the week of Sept. 9 training with the club in Foxborough.

FRIEDEL NAMED TO NATIONAL SOCCER HALL OF FAME 2018 CLASS

Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel has been named to the National Soccer Hall of Fame 2018 class in his first year of eligibility, U.S. Soccer announced on May 31. Friedel was delivered the news by his former U.S. Men's National Team teammate and current U.S. Youth National Team technical director Tab Ramos in a surprise announcement on May 31. The Class of 2018 will be enshrined during an induction ceremony on October 20 at the brand-new National Soccer Hall of Fame at Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Texas.

Friedel's recognition came after a decorated club career that spanned more than 20 professional seasons, including 17 in the English Premier League and 13 years with the USMNT. Between 1997 and 2015, Friedel made 450 league appearances, including a record 310 consecutive starts, in England's top flight. As a U.S. international, he collected 82 caps and was a member of three World Cup squads (1994, 1998, and 2002). The Lakewood, Ohio native also represented the U.S. at two Olympics Games in 1992 and 200, and earned the 1992 Hermann Trophy as the NCAA's top collegiate player while at UCLA.

The 2018 class includes four members in addition to Friedel: former U.S. Women's National Team stars Cindy Parlow Cone (veteran) and Tiffeny Milbrett (player), MLS Commissioner Don Garber (builder), and former U.S. Soccer president Dr. Bob Contiguglia (builder).

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING & PRO PERSONNEL

Remi Roy is currently in his ninth season with the New England Revolution and his first as the club's Director of Scouting & Player Personnel, having been named to the position in January 2018. Roy has been with the club since 2010, previously serving as an assistant coach with New England for eight seasons.

In his new role, Roy is focused on scouting and talent identification in players at the collegiate, national, and international levels. He works closely with the Revolution technical staff in player evaluation and has a role in all soccer-related aspects of the organization, including communication with agents and facilitating MLS communication and compliance.

Roy was heavily engaged in the Revolution's scouting operations throughout his tenure as an assistant coach, contributing to the club's domestic and international scouting efforts. As an assistant coach, first under Steve Nicol and then for six seasons on Jay Heaps' staff, he worked primarily with the Revs' first-team goalkeepers and also provided additional training for the Revolution Academy goalkeepers.

During his time on the Revs' coaching staff, Roy mentored several talented goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in the professional ranks. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

Roy holds a USSF "A" License and Level I and II NSCAA Goalkeeping Licenses. A native of Petit-Rocher, New Brunswick, Canada, Roy lives south of Boston with his wife and three kids.
