He was the only coach of the top four to hit 50 wins in that span, aside from Bob Bradley who had two full seasons (64 games) in the pre-draw MLS era.

NO. 19

Paxton Pomykal will be the first FC Dallas player to wear Bobby Rhine's No. 19, since the FC Dallas legend's untimely death in 2011. No FC Dallas player has worn No. 19 in a match since Aug. 6, 2011, when defender Zach Loyd last donned the shirt. After Rhine died unexpectedly of a heart attack on Sept. 5, 2011, Loyd honored Rhine by changing his uniform number to No. 17. Pomykal signed his contract on Sept. 8, 2016, just three days after the anniversary of Rhine's death.

"I realized 19 was open and I knew why," said Pomykal. "It was obviously not retired, but it was in Bobby's name. I love his legacy. He's a legend here. Growing up, I watched him a lot because I was always at the games as a kid. FCD fans waited 19 years, 1997-2016, to see the club hoist its second trophy.

THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Head Coach Jay Heaps, midfielder Kelyn Rowe, and defender Andrew Farrell had to say ahead of Saturday's match at FC Dallas. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net.

New England Revolution Head Coach Jay Heaps

On the differences in facing Colorado on the road versus Dallas on the road:
Coach Heaps: "[We] have to learn from the Colorado trip, but in the end, different animals altogether in the sense that first game of the year, you're feeling each other out. I think Dallas is going to be six games in now in terms of having CONCACAF [Champions League], in terms of playing a midweek game [on] Wednesday. They're already basically seven, eight games in. We have to be ready for a midseason game."

-----

New England Revolution Midfielder Kelyn Rowe

On if he relishes the chance to play the defending Supporters' Shield champions:
Rowe: "Absolutely. That's what we're here for, right? We're professional soccer players, we want to play at the best level and these guys have shown the past couple of years that they are a very good team. You want to play the best teams and you want to get good results against them. So this is an exciting time for us, especially the second game of the year, coming off already a hard road trip and not going our way, we can bounce back and find a good road point or three."

-----

New England Revolution Defender Andrew Farrell

On if last year's U.S. Open Cup Final is in the back of players' minds:
Farrell: "I think last year, making the finals was exciting and obviously disappointing not taking that home. Not for me necessarily, I just want to win every game. Obviously, it's going to be a tough environment, but obviously, we're hoping to get the three points."

TEAM NOTES

WHERE TO WATCH/LISTEN

Saturday's 8:00 p.m. ET start will be televised locally on CSN New England, where Brad Feldman and Paul Mariner will be on the call. Fans can also listen to the match locally at 98.5 The Sports Hub, and on WMVX 1570 "Nossa Radio USA," the primary carrier for Revs radio in Portuguese.

Following the match, stay tuned to CSN New England for postgame highlights, analysis, and interviews on Revolution Postgame Live with Feldman and Mariner, or catch the postgame show on 98.5 The Sports Hub with Rob "Hardy" Poole and Shalrie Joseph.

WHEN THE REVS SCORE, AMERICA SCORES

The Revolution and America SCORES Boston have teamed up through the "Revs Score, America SCORES" initiative to assist under-resourced youth in the greater Boston area. For every goal the Revolution score at Gillette Stadium this season, the New England Revolution Charitable Foundation will contribute $100, which equates to the cost of one week of programming for a child. All donations by the Revolution will be matched by one of America SCORES Boston's corporate partners.

The collaboration, which began in October 2016, expands player involvement with youth in America SCORES Boston's after-school program through Academy-run soccer clinics and participation in SCORES' Service Learning Projects.

REVS FACE FC DALLAS IN FRISCO

Following the postponement of last Saturday's match vs. Orlando City SC, the Revolution will set out on the road once again to take on 2016 Supporters' Shield winners FC Dallas in their home opener at Toyota Stadium. This marks the first time New England has played Western Conference opponents on the road in back-to-back weeks since 2014, when the club played at the LA Galaxy on July 16 and at FC Dallas on July 19.

In the regular season, New England is looking for its first away win against a Western Conference side since topping Vancouver Whitecaps FC, 2-1, on June 18, 2016. The Revolution last defeated FC Dallas on Sept. 10, 2011, a 2-0 win at home. The club's last victory in Frisco came on April 24, 2008, a 1-0 triumph.

Saturday's contest is also a rematch of the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final between New England and Dallas. The Revs took an early lead in the contest with the second fastest goal in Open Cup Final history from Juan Agudelo in the sixth minute. Two goals from Agudelo were not enough to top FC Dallas, who won the game 4-2.

TEAM NOTES

REVS UNVEIL NEW PAIRING IN CENTRAL DEFENSE

The Revolution opened the 2017 MLS season with a fresh look in central defense. New England added a pair of center backs through the international market in January to reinforce its back line, bringing in Slovenian Antonio Delamea and Ivorian Benjamin Angoua to the roster using TAM (targeted allocation money). Both players made their Revolution debuts on March 4 at Colorado, playing the full 90 minutes.

Delamea, 25, joined the Revolution via transfer from Slovenian first-division side Olimpija Ljubljana. He made a combined 134 appearances across all competitions in his senior career in Slovenia, registering five goals with three assists since going pro in 2008. Delamea's previous experience includes five campaigns with NK Olimpija Ljubljana (2011-17) in Slovenia's top-flight PrvaLiga, and three seasons with NK Interblock Ljubljana (2008-11) in both the PrvaLiga (2008-10) and the Slovenian Second League (2010-11). The Celje, Slovenia native earned his first international cap for the Slovenian National Team on Nov. 14, 2016, appearing as a halftime substitute in a friendly against Poland.

Angoua has experience on the continental level as well, competing in the UEFA Europa League with both Guingamp and Budapest Honved.

KOUASSI NEARS FULL HEALTH, MLS DEBUT

Revolution midfielder and Designated Player Xavier Kouassi has been steadily working towards a complete recovery from the ACL injury he suffered in February 2016. After several solid performances in the club's preseason in Tucson, Ariz., Kouassi is closing in on full fitness.

The Ivorian international joined New England in July 2016 after eight professional seasons in Switzerland, where he most recently captained FC Sion in the Swiss Super League from 2013-16. Kouassi also played four seasons with Servette FC (2009-13) in Switzerland and began his career in the top-flight Ivorian League 1. When he makes his MLS debut, Kouassi will join Arsene Oka and current teammate Benjamin Angoua as the only players from Côte d'Ivoire to play for the Revolution.

REVS HEAD WEST EARLY AND OFTEN

This season, the Revolution will travel to face five Western Conference opponents, including four of them in the Revs' first five away trips. New England opened the season at the Colorado Rapids on March 4 with a loss, 1-0, and will travel to FC Dallas in Week 3 (March 18). The Revolution then head to the Pacific Northwest twice in April for meetings with the Portland Timbers (April 2 on ESPN2) and defending MLS Cup champions Seattle Sounders FC (April 29). The Revs' final trip to play a Western Conference foe will be on Sept. 16 against Sporting Kansas City. In 2016, the Revolution posted a 1-1-3 away record against Western Conference opposition.

LIGHTS, KAMARA, ACTION!

Forward Kei Kamara enters the 2017 season with an eye on the MLS record books. Kamara currently sits in 12th place on the League's all-time goal-scoring chart after bringing his total to 86 last year, leaving him just two goals outside of the top 10.

He currently ranks second among active players in goals scored, trailing only San Jose's Chris Wondolowski, who has registered 122 goals in MLS regular season play for his career.

Since arriving in New England in May 2016, the six-foot-three forward has recorded seven goals in 22 MLS appearances.

JUAN NATION, JUAN TEAM: AGUDELO JOINS USMNT FOR JANUARY CAMP

Forward Juan Agudelo entered preseason having received a call up to the United States Men's National Team for its annual January Camp. He now owns 23 caps in his senior international career.

Under the guidance of recently hired head coach Bruce Arena, Agudelo appeared in both of the USMNT's friendlies against Serbia and Jamaica. After appearing as a late-game substitute against Serbia on Jan. 29, Agudelo started and played a full, 90-minute shift against Jamaica on Feb. 3, helping lead the United States to a 1-0 win.

The call up was Agudelo's second since October, when he was named to the USMNT's squad for a friendly against New Zealand on Oct. 11. New England's reigning Golden Boot winner will be seeking a spot on Bruce Arena's roster for an upcoming pair of 2018 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers in late March.

In the Feb. 3 match against Jamaica, Agudelo suffered a small facial bone fracture. The forward underwent a successful minor procedure to reduce the fracture and has worn a protective mask since rejoining the Revolution in February.

TEAM NOTES

REVS DEBUT 2017 IN DIAMOND

The Revolution will seek to build off the success of last season's switch to a 4-4-2 diamond formation. New England made the transition to the new alignment on Aug. 24, 2016 at San Jose and concluded the season with a 5-3-1 mark in its final nine matches.

The offense saw an uptick in production with the switch to the formation, as New England averaged 1.66 goals per game and recorded three goals in four of its final nine 2016 matches. The Revs also recorded at least 13 shots in seven of the team's final nine matches of 2017. The striker duo of Juan Agudelo and Kei Kamara combined for five goals and four assists in the final five matches of 2016.

The Revolution defense also saw success with the switch to the new formation, with the Revs conceding only eight goals over the final nine contests and recording three shutout performances.

SOME REAL KEEPERS

New England enters the 2017 MLS season with quality depth at the goalkeeper position.

Midway through the 2016 MLS regular season, Brad Knighton began a string of starts on Aug. 20 at Columbus where he started in net for nine of New England's final 10 matches. In those nine matches, Knighton posted a 4-3-1 record, recorded 20 saves, registered two shutouts, and held a goals against average of 1.02. In all, Knighton finished the 2016 regular season with a 6-5-1 record and was named the Players' Player of the Year by his teammates.

Cody Cropper joined the New England Revolution on Aug. 18 and made his Revolution debut in the club's season finale on Oct. 23 vs. Montreal. Cropper registered a pair of saves and posted a shutout in the Revs' 3-0 victory. He returned to the net to open the 2017 regular season against Colorado on March 4.

Matt Turner had a number of opportunities with the Richmond Kickers during the 2016 USL season. The second-year goalkeeper posted a 0.43 goals against average and registered four shutouts in seven starts.

FEMI RETURNS

New England re-acquired forward Femi Hollinger-Janzen from Minnesota United FC on Feb. 15, 2017 in exchange for goalkeeper Bobby Shuttleworth. Femi was originally selected by the Revs in the third round (51st overall) of the 2016 MLS SuperDraft, but was taken by Minnesota in the 2017 MLS Expansion Draft. In 2016, the Indiana University product made 19 appearances, including one start, scoring two goals and adding one assist in 273 minutes played. Last season, Femi was one of three players selected in the third round of the 2016 MLS SuperDraft or later to record minutes.

WATSON, DELAMEA TAKE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

In addition to Juan Agudelo (USA), defenders Je-Vaughn Watson and Antonio Delamea have each played international matches since the conclusion of the 2016 MLS regular season.

Watson received the call up to the Jamaica national team prior to a pair of February friendlies against the United States (Feb. 4) and Honduras (Feb. 17). Watson started both matches, played a full 90 minutes, and captained the Reggae Boyz in both contests.

Prior to joining the Revs, Antonio Delamea made his international debut with the Slovenia national team. The defender earned his first cap as a halftime sub in a friendly at Poland (Nov. 11).

REVS ADD PAIR OF SUPERDRAFT SELECTIONS

The New England Revolution made a pair of additions to the 2017 roster through the MLS SuperDraft. The Revs selected University of Vermont forward Brian Wright with their first-round selection (20th overall) and University of San Francisco defender Josh Smith with their fourth-round pick (75th overall). Wright signed a MLS contract prior to the SuperDraft and the Revs officially signed Smith on March 1.

Wright, 21, was a four-year starter at Vermont and made 80 total appearances with 66 starts. He finished his career ranked second all-time in Vermont history in scoring with 103 points, tallying 39 goals and 25 assists. The UVM standout was a 2016 MAC Hermann Trophy Semifinalist and also earned NSCAA All-America Second Team, All-East Region First Team, and America East All-Conference Team as a senior.

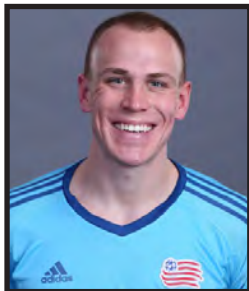

Smith, 24, was a four-year starter at the University of San Francisco. The defender was one of two Dons to start all 16 games in 2016, while his three goals and two assists helped earn him second-team All-WCC honors. He made his debut in the Revs' 18-player match day squad on March 4 at Colorado.

REVS DEBUT NEW SECONDARY KIT IN COLORADO

New England debuted its new secondary kit in the 2017 season opener in Colorado. The new red-and-white uniform, which evolved from the club's "Flag of New England" kits, brings an authentic, classic soccer design to Major League Soccer. The shirt's design is symbolic of the 13 stripes on the American flag representing the original colonies, including the six that comprise New England. These secondary kits are a reminder to fans of the Revolution's pride in representing all of New England.

JAY HEAPS
HEAD COACH

Jay Heaps is in his sixth season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after becoming the sixth head coach in club history on Nov. 14, 2011. The Nashua, N.H. native and Longmeadow, Mass. product has led the Revs to three MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including a trip to MLS Cup in 2014, and to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

With his appointment in 2011, Heaps brought his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days to the bench: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, and passion. He is the first former Revs player and the only New England native to coach the club.

In 2016, Heaps led the Revolution to the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final – the 10th major tournament final in club history. In regular season play, Heaps oversaw the implementation of Designated Player Kei Kamara, who was acquired in a midseason trade, and helped players such as Juan Agudelo, Kelyn Rowe, and Brad Knighton flourish. After Heaps instituted a 4-4-2 formation late in the season, the team won five out of seven MLS games to close the season.

Heaps was named head coach after an 11-year MLS playing career that included nine seasons with the Revolution. He anchored the club's defense from 2001-09, making 243 appearances and 238 starts, both the third most in club history. After his retirement, Heaps remained close to the club as an ambassador and color analyst on both its television and radio broadcasts, while also working in the investment banking industry.

After earning MLS Rookie of the Year honors with the Miami Fusion in 1999, Heaps returned to his hometown club in June 2001 through a trade. During the next nine seasons in New England, he cemented his legacy as not only a fan favorite, but also a driving leader on the field and in the locker room during the team's run of four MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005-07). He is one of three Revolution players to start in each of the club's first four MLS Cup appearances and was also a member of the Revolution squads that won the 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and the 2008 North American Super-Liga titles. Heaps has participated in all but one of New England's 10 final appearances as a player or coach, including all three of its Open Cup Finals.

At the time of his retirement in 2009, Heaps held the distinction of being the longest-tenured Revolution player in the team's history. When he left the team, Heaps was the club's all-time leader in games played (243), starts (238), and minutes played (21,619). He also ranked fifth on the Revs' career assist chart (26) and had totaled nine career goals. In MLS record books, Heaps was ranked eighth all-time in MLS in games played (314), fourth in starts (299), and third in minutes played (27,363) at the time of his retirement. He concluded his playing career with 17 goals and 34 assists overall.

Heaps made at least 27 regular season appearances in each of his 11 professional seasons. Despite his physical playing style and fearless nature, Heaps missed just three games due to injury during more than eight seasons with the Revolution, making him one of the most durable and reliable players in MLS history.

Honored as the Revolution's Defender of the Year for in 2009, Heaps was rewarded for his stellar play with a call-up to the U.S. Men's National Team for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup. He went on to earn all four caps on his USMNT résumé during the tournament, including his international debut on July 11, 2009 against Haiti in front of his hometown crowd at Gillette Stadium. Heaps is also a former member of the U.S. Under-17 and Under-20 National Teams.

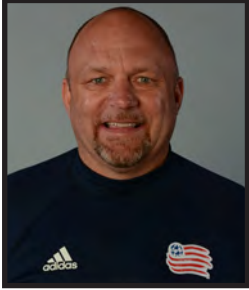

Heaps played collegiately at Duke, where he won the 1998 Missouri Athletic Club Award as the national player of the year. He was a three-time finalist for the Hermann Trophy, a four-time first-team All-ACC selection, and a four-time all-region choice. He left Duke's program ranked third in career goals (45), fourth in career assists (37), and tied for second in career points (127). In addition to earning Soccer America's National Freshman of the Year honors in 1995, Heaps also played three-and-a-half years of basketball under legendary Duke and USA Basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski before leaving midway through his senior year to pursue a professional soccer career. He was named one of Duke's "Top-10 Devils of the Decade" by the Duke Chronicle.

In addition to earning his USSF "A" Coaching License in March 2014, Heaps accrued three years of collegiate coaching experience during his MLS playing days with the Revolution. In 2004, he was a volunteer assistant coach at Boston College under Ed Kelly as the Eagles went 13-5-2 and advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament. He followed that with a two-year stint (2005-06) at Northeastern under Brian Ainscough in the same capacity.

TECHNICAL STAFF BIOS

TOM SOEHN
ASSISTANT COACH

Tom Soehn is in his fourth season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Jay Heaps' staff in January 2014.

Soehn has 13 years of MLS coaching experience as both a head coach and assistant, including three seasons with the Chicago Fire and six seasons with D.C. United. The Chicago, Ill. native began his coaching career as an assistant coach with his hometown club, the Chicago Fire, where he was Bob Bradley's first assistant in 2001 and 2002. Soehn moved to D.C. United in 2004, where he served as Peter Nowak's top assistant, helping the Black and Red win MLS Cup in 2004 and the 2006 Supporters Shield. He was promoted to head coach ahead of the 2007 season and led D.C. to a second straight Supporters Shield. In 2008, he guided D.C. to a U.S. Open Cup championship and into the group stage of the 2008-09 and 2009-10 CONCACAF Champions League tournaments.

In January 2010, Soehn was appointed as Vancouver Whitecaps FC's first Director of Soccer Operations, where he developed and managed the club's inaugural roster, player scouting, and identification and recruitment system as the club prepared to enter MLS in 2011. Soehn returned to the bench in late May 2011 and coached the team for the remainder of its debut season after head coach Teitur Thordarson was released. In 2012, he returned to the front office to direct soccer operations, helping craft the Whitecaps FC team that qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs – the first ever Canadian team to do so.

Before pursuing coaching, Soehn enjoyed a 13-year professional playing career as a defender and midfielder from 1998-2000. He played in both indoor and outdoor professional leagues during his career, including four seasons in MLS with the Dallas Burn (now FC Dallas) and the Chicago Fire. After being selected in the second round (13th overall) of the MLS Inaugural Player Draft in February 1996, Soehn saw his first action with Dallas in 1997 and helped the club win the U.S. Open Cup title.

CARLOS LLAMOSA
ASSISTANT COACH

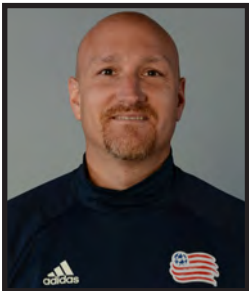

Carlos Llamosa enters his first season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining the club's staff in December 2016. Llamosa, 47, has been a mainstay in North American soccer over the past two decades, having enjoyed a 15-year career in MLS as a player and a coach, as well as an additional four years coaching in the North American Soccer League.

He arrives in New England following four seasons as an assistant coach for the New York Cosmos (2013-16), a span in which he helped guide the club to three NASL Soccer Bowl Championships. Before joining New York, Llamosa spent four seasons as an assistant coach with Chivas USA in MLS from 2009-12.

Llamosa's appointment marks a homecoming for the former MLS player, who enjoyed an 11-year career as one of the league's premier defenders. He spent nearly four years with New England from 2002 to 2005, appearing in 38 games, starting 36, for the club from 2002-03 before missing the 2004 season with a knee injury. In the postseason, he made eight additional appearances for the Revolution. Llamosa was a major contributor in the club's run to the 2002 MLS Cup, as he started five matches during the postseason including the final.

He totaled 154 career MLS appearances, 142 starts, three goals, and four assists in stints with D.C. United (1997-2000), Miami Fusion (2001), New England, and Chivas USA (2006-07). With D.C., he helped the club to three straight MLS Cup appearances from 1997-99, including championships in 1997 and 1999. Prior to MLS, Llamosa played professionally in Colombia with Colmena (1986-88) and Atlético Huila (1989-90) before immigrating to the United States in 1991. He began his U.S. career with the New York Centaurs of the A-League in 1995 before being selected by D.C. United in the 1997 MLS Supplemental Draft.

A native of Palmira, Colombia, Llamosa became a United States citizen in 1991 and was capped 29 times with the U.S. Men's National team. He played in the 1999 Confederations Cup and 2002 World Cup, appearing in wins against Portugal and Mexico in the latter.

REMI ROY
ASSISTANT COACH

Remi Roy enters his eighth season with the New England Revolution as an assistant coach, having joined the coaching staff in 2010. In addition to working primarily with the first-team keepers, Roy also manages the club's collegiate scouting efforts and provides additional training for the Revolution Academy's goalkeepers.

During his time with the Revolution, Roy has mentored several different goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in MLS. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins. He also tutored rookie Matt Turner through seven starts in USL action in 2016, a stretch in which he conceded only three goals. He also worked with MLS newcomer Cody Cropper after he was acquired during the 2016 campaign, leading to a shutout victory in his MLS debut in the season finale.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07). Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).
