THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Head Coach Jay Heaps, forward Juan Agudelo, and forward Kei Kamara had to say ahead of Wednesday's match vs. the San Jose Earthquakes. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net.

New England Revolution Head Coach Jay Heaps

On the San Jose Earthquakes:

Coach Heaps: "They are a good team. When you look at San Jose and you look at the pieces they've added and the pieces that are getting better – when I say getting better, I mean maturing – they have some young players that have grown into the game. They are, for me, a team that is well coached. Obviously, everyone knows [San Jose Head Coach] Dominic [Kinnear] and [Assistant Coach] Steve Ralston I know extremely well, so I know they'll be ready."

-----

New England Revolution Forward Juan Agudelo

On the team looking to tie a club record with a seventh straight home win on Wednesday:

Agudelo: "We've definitely tried to make this place our fort. We don't want any team to come in here and feel comfortable. We need to make them understand that if they come in here, it's going to be a battle and you're not going to come out with any points here. That's very important for us here and [we are] very excited for home games."

-----

New England Revolution Forward Kei Kamara

On facing Earthquakes forward Chris Wondolowski on Wednesday night:

Kamara: "Wondo [Chris Wondolowski] is definitely a guy that I respect a lot. I've been around him in Houston and him being in San Jose, he's really a finisher. He's a goal scorer, he's somebody that leads his team really well, and he's shown it over the years. When you have somebody like that, you really have to pay focus on him. It doesn't matter how he scores goals. He just wants to put balls in the back of the net. For us, we've been doing well. Respect the guy as he comes in, but at the same time, make him know that he's playing against a tough team."

TEAM NOTES

REVS, SUPPORTERS MAKE GILLETTE STADIUM A FORTRESS

Maximizing points at home is key to success in MLS, and the Revolution have been doing just that in recent years. After defeating the Houston Dynamo on April 8, the Revolution improved to 2-0-0 at home in 2017, extending their home winning streak to a MLS-leading six games. During the winning streak, which began last season on Sept. 3, 2016, the Revolution have averaged 3.0 goals per home game and posted at least three goals in four of the last five contests. This week, the Revs will look to take all six points from two home games: Wednesday, April 19 vs. San Jose and Saturday, April 22 vs. D.C. United.

Throughout nearly all of Jay Heaps' coaching tenure, Gillette Stadium has provided one of the League's best home-field advantages. Since 2013, New England has totaled 39 wins at home, fifth most in MLS. The Revs have won 55.7 percent of home games in that span, also the fifth best in the League since 2013. Here is a look at the winningest teams at home since 2013:

Most Home Wins in MLS: 2013-Present
Rank	Club	Venue	Wins
1.	New York Red Bulls	Red Bull Arena	48
2.	FC Dallas	Toyota Stadium	47
T-3.	LA Galaxy	StubHub Center	44
T-3.	Seattle Sounders FC	CenturyLink Field	44
5.	New England Revolution	Gillette Stadium	39
6.	Portland Timbers FC	Providence Park	38

KOUASSI SEES EXTENDED ACTION

After making his MLS and Revolution debut against FC Dallas on March 18, midfielder and Designated Player Xavier Kouassi has become a mainstay in the club's defensive midfield. Kouassi has made four starts on the season and played all 90 minutes in each of the team's last three contests.

When Kouassi made his debut on March 18, he became the third player from Côte d'Ivoire to appear for the Revolution, joining Arsene Oka and current teammate Benjamin Angoua. Since then, he submitted his first 90-minute shift in MLS in the 1-1 draw at Portland on April 2, completing 90 percent of his passes in the contest. Kouassi also saw 90 minutes of action in a clean sheet performance against Houston on April 8, a 2-0 win.

Kouassi joined the Revolution in July 2016 after signing a pre-contract with the club in February 2016. He missed the entire 2016 campaign after suffering a torn ACL with FC Sion shortly after he was signed. The Ivorian international joined the club in July 2016 after eight professional seasons in Switzerland, where he most recently captained FC Sion in the Swiss Super League from 2013-16. Kouassi also played four seasons with Servette FC (2009-13) in Switzerland and began his career in the top-flight Ivorian League 1.

ROOKIE SMITH EMERGES AS RELIABLE CENTER BACK

A fourth-round selection (75th overall) in the 2017 MLS SuperDraft, Revolution defender Josh Smith has had to fight for every opportunity to see the field in his rookie campaign. His hard work has paid off, as the 25-year-old has already made three starts and played 269 minutes this season.

Smith made his professional debut on April 2 at Portland and helped lock down a Timbers attack that leads MLS in goals scored. The 25-year-old rookie went toe-to-toe with Timbers forward Fanendo Adi and held him off the score sheet in the 1-1 draw. On April 8, Smith earned his second start and helped the Revs produce a clean sheet against a potent Houston Dynamo offense that ranks third in the League in goals scored. He logged a third consecutive start on April 15 at Chicago despite undergoing thumb surgery earlier in the week.

By starting against Portland, Smith, the 6-foot-4 native of Kaiserslautern, Germany, became the first fourth-round SuperDraft selection to start a game as a rookie since Colorado Rapids forward Dominique Badji did so in 2015. He finished the match with one tackle, one foul won, 32 touches, and one shot in 89 minutes.

FAGUNDEZ HITS HOMEGROWN MINUTES MILESTONE

Midfielder Diego Fagundez made history in the 15th minute of the April 8 contest against the Houston Dynamo. The seventh-year pro became the first MLS Homegrown field player to reach 10,000 career minutes. The only other Homegrown player to do so is goalkeeper Bill Hamid (D.C. United).

After signing his first professional contract at just 15 years old, Fagundez is now a leader on the team at only 22. He is now the second-longest tenured member of the Revolution behind only Chris Tierney. After more than 155 League games with the club, Fagundez stands near the top of several of the club's all-time charts. He currently ranks seventh in goals (34), tied for third in game-winning goals (13), tied for 10th in assists (26), and tied for fifth in game-winning assists (8).

Midfielder Scott Caldwell, the second Homegrown Player in Revs history, is set to become the second Homegrown field player to reach 10,000 minutes. Caldwell needs only 318 more minutes of action to join Fagundez on the list. Here is a look at the top five Homegrown Players in terms of minutes played:

HELPING HANDS: SEVERAL ACTIVE REVS TOP ASSIST CHARTS

Multiple Revolution players are climbing up the club's all-time assists chart this season, as four players are currently among the top 10 in team history. Revolution defender Chris Tierney moved into second place on the list with his 36th assist in the home opener on March 25 vs. Minnesota. Midfielder Lee Nguyen is only one helper behind him with 35 career assists, tied for third with Joe-Max Moore in the New England record books. Midfielder Diego Fagundez is already the first Homegrown Player to crack the top 10 and will pass Jay Heaps with his next assist.

TEAM NOTES

DELAMEA THRIVING IN FIRST MLS SEASON

The Revolution opened the 2017 MLS season with a fresh look in central defense, led by international signing defender Antonio Delamea. The Slovenian has wasted no time adjusting to his new surroundings, playing all 540 minutes of the season in central defense for New England. Delamea currently ranks third in MLS in clearances (39) and has won over 76 per cent of his aerial duels (13-for-17).

The 25-year-old's contributions have been quickly noted by the rest of the League, as Delamea earned back-to-back selections on MLSsoccer.com's Team of the Week. His first recognition came after stifling the dangerous Portland Timbers' attack in a 1-1 draw on April 2. He followed up that performance by contributing to the Revs' clean sheet win vs. Houston on April 8, earning him a second consecutive Team of the Week nod.

Delamea joined the Revolution via transfer from Slovenian first-division side Olimpija Ljubljana. He made a combined 134 appearances across all competitions in his senior career in Slovenia since going pro in 2008. Delamea's previous experience includes five campaigns with NK Olimpija Ljubljana (2011-17) in Slovenia's top-flight PrvaLiga, and three seasons with NK Interblock Ljubljana (2008-11) in both the PrvaLiga (2008-10) and the Slovenian Second League (2010-11). The Celje, Slovenia native earned his first international cap for the Slovenia National Team on Nov. 14, 2016, appearing as a halftime substitute in a friendly against Poland.

2016 MVP ROWE CONTINUES TO SHOWCASE VERSATILITY

New England Revolution midfielder Kelyn Rowe made his fourth career start on the back line and his second career start at left back in the Revs' 2-0 shutout victory against Houston on April 8. When Rowe starts in defense, the Revolution are 3-0-1 with four clean sheets.

All of Rowe's previous three starts on the back line came last season, when he played every position except for center back and goalkeeper. Rowe made two starts at right back on May 14, 2016 vs. Chicago and Aug. 24, 2016 vs. San Jose, and one at left back on Oct. 23, 2016 vs. Montreal.

Following the April 8 match vs. Houston, Revolution head coach Jay Heaps had high praise for Rowe's performance:

"I thought Kelyn [Rowe] was going to get a lot of the ball and he did in the second half," Heaps said, "I thought he added a lot physically, so he's going to win these individual battles. We knew there was going to be a lot of 1 v 1 defending and Kelyn is one of the best. He doesn't get enough credit for it, but he's a good one-on-one defender, especially when there's physicality involved."

LIGHTS, KAMARA, ACTION!

Forward Kei Kamara entered the 2017 season with an eye on the MLS record books. Kamara currently sits tied for 11th place on the League's all-time goal-scoring chart after bringing his total to 88 with his tally on April 8 vs. Houston. He is now just one goal shy of entering the top 10.

Kamara currently ranks second among active MLS players in goals scored, trailing only San Jose's Chris Wondolowski, who has registered 123 career goals in MLS regular season play.

ALL-TIME MLS LEADERS: GOALS SCORED

Rank	Player	GP	GS	Goals
8.	Taylor Twellman	174	163	101
9.	Edson Buddle	304	220	100
10.	Carlos Ruiz	183	155	89
T-11.	Kei Kamara	261	214	88
T-11.	Roy Lassiter	179	154	88

JUAN NATION, JUAN TEAM: AGUDELO JOINS USMNT CAMP

Forward Juan Agudelo entered preseason having received a call up to the United States Men's National Team for its annual January Camp. He now owns 23 caps in his senior international career.

Under the guidance of recently hired head coach Bruce Arena, Agudelo appeared in both of the USMNT's friendlies against Serbia and Jamaica. After appearing as a late-game substitute against Serbia on Jan. 29, Agudelo started and played a full, 90-minute shift against Jamaica on Feb. 3, helping lead the United States to a 1-0 win.

The call up was Agudelo's second since October, when he was named to the USMNT's squad for a friendly against New Zealand on Oct. 11. New England's reigning Golden Boot winner will be seeking a spot on Bruce Arena's roster for an upcoming pair of 2018 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers in late March.

FEMI RETURNS

New England re-acquired forward Femi Hollinger-Janzen from Minnesota United FC on Feb. 15, 2017 in exchange for goalkeeper Bobby Shuttleworth. Femi was originally selected by the Revs in the third round (51st overall) of the 2016 MLS SuperDraft, but was taken by Minnesota in the 2017 MLS Expansion Draft. In 2016, the Indiana University product made 19 appearances, including one start, scoring two goals and adding one assist in 273 minutes played. His 18 substitute appearances ranked second on the team. Last season, Femi was one of three players selected in the third round of the 2016 MLS SuperDraft or later to record minutes.

Femi made his 2017 debut on March 18 at FC Dallas, playing 11 minutes as a second-half substitution. He has totaled three appearances and 32 minutes of action so far this season.

TEAM NOTES

SOME REAL KEEPERS

New England enters the 2017 MLS season with quality depth at the goal-keeper position. Cody Cropper joined the New England Revolution on Aug. 18 and has since started six games for the Revolution. Last year, he made his MLS debut in the club's season finale on Oct. 23 vs. Montreal. Cropper registered a pair of saves and posted a shutout in the Revs' 3-0 victory. He has started all six games thus far in 2017 and owns one shutout on the season, April 8 vs. Houston.

Midway through the 2016 MLS regular season, Brad Knighton began a string of starts on Aug. 20 at Columbus where he started in net for nine of New England's final 10 matches. In those nine matches, Knighton posted a 4-3-1 record, recorded 20 saves, registered two shutouts, and held a goals against average of 1.02. In all, Knighton finished the 2016 regular season with a 6-5-1 record and was named the Players' Player of the Year by his teammates.

Matt Turner has had a number of opportunities with the Richmond Kickers during the 2016 and 2017 USL seasons. The second-year goalkeeper has posted a 0.56 goals against average and registered four shutouts in nine starts.

REVS DEBUT NEW SECONDARY KIT IN COLORADO

New England debuted its new secondary kit in the 2017 season opener in Colorado. The new red-and-white uniform, which evolved from the club's "Flag of New England" kits, brings an authentic, classic soccer design to Major League Soccer. The shirt's design is symbolic of the 13 stripes on the American flag representing the original colonies, including the six that comprise New England. These secondary kits are a reminder to fans of the Revolution's pride in representing all of New England.

On Sunday, July 30th, Gillette Stadium will host AS Roma and Juventus F.C. for an International Champions Cup contest. The match is set to kick off at 4 p.m. ET and will be broadcast nationally on ESPN. Juventus F.C. played a friendly against Spanish side FC Barcelona at Gillette Stadium on July 27, 2013. AS Roma has not previously played a match at Gillette Stadium.

AS Roma and Juventus F.C. currently sit atop the Italian Serie A league. Juventus is also currently competing in the UEFA Champions League and defeated FC Barcelona, 3-0, in the first leg of the quarterfinals. The two clubs have developed a strong rivalry budding from past success. Juventus F.C. is in position to secure its sixth consecutive Serie A title while AS Roma is looking for its first since 2001.

Gillette Stadium has hosted 36 international soccer matches since 2002 at both the club and national team level. Most recently, it hosted three matches during Copa America Centenario in 2016, which featured South American national teams including Argentina, Brazil, and Chile.

WATSON, DELAMEA TAKE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

In addition to Juan Agudelo (USA), defenders Je-Vaughn Watson and Antonio Delamea have each played international matches since the conclusion of the 2016 MLS regular season.

Watson received the call up to the Jamaica National Team prior to a pair of February friendlies against the United States (Feb. 3) and Honduras (Feb. 17). Watson started both matches, played a full 90 minutes, and captained the Reggae Boyz in both contests.

Prior to joining the Revs, Antonio Delamea made his international debut with the Slovenia National Team. The defender earned his first cap as a halftime sub in a friendly at Poland (Nov. 11).

GILLETTE STADIUM RECEIVES SAFETY ACT CERTIFICATION

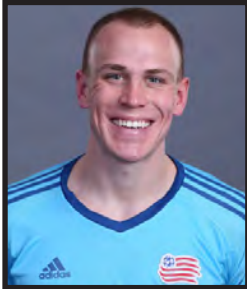

On March 30, 2017, Gillette Stadium became the first venue in New England to achieve Safety Act designation and certification, the highest level of protection awarded by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. The Safety Act, enacted in 2002, encourages the creation and use of anti-terrorism technologies and practices.

Gillette Stadium is not only the first sports and entertainment venue in New England to achieve the designation, but it is also the first MLS venue and only the fourth NFL venue to be certified under the Safety Act.

The Revolution's home in Foxborough has previously been recognized for a variety of security achievements. Last season, Gillette Stadium ranked No. 1 among NFL venues in safety and security according to an annual survey of fans.

JAY HEAPS
HEAD COACH

Jay Heaps is in his sixth season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after becoming the sixth head coach in club history on Nov. 14, 2011. The Nashua, N.H. native and Longmeadow, Mass. product has led the Revs to three MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including a trip to MLS Cup in 2014, and to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

With his appointment in 2011, Heaps brought his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days to the bench: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, and passion. He is the first former Revs player and the only New England native to coach the club.

In 2016, Heaps led the Revolution to the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final – the 10th major tournament final in club history. In regular season play, Heaps oversaw the implementation of Designated Player Kei Kamara, who was acquired in a midseason trade, and helped players such as Juan Agudelo, Kelyn Rowe, and Brad Knighton flourish. After Heaps instituted a 4-4-2 formation late in the season, the team won five out of seven MLS games to close the season.

Heaps was named head coach after an 11-year MLS playing career that included nine seasons with the Revolution. He anchored the club's defense from 2001-09, making 243 appearances and 238 starts, both the third most in club history. After his retirement, Heaps remained close to the club as an ambassador and color analyst on both its television and radio broadcasts, while also working in the investment banking industry.

After earning MLS Rookie of the Year honors with the Miami Fusion in 1999, Heaps returned to his hometown club in June 2001 through a trade. During the next nine seasons in New England, he cemented his legacy as not only a fan favorite, but also a driving leader on the field and in the locker room during the team's run of four MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005-07). He is one of three Revolution players to start in each of the club's first four MLS Cup appearances and was also a member of the Revolution squads that won the 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and the 2008 North American Super-Liga titles. Heaps has participated in all but one of New England's 10 final appearances as a player or coach, including all three of its Open Cup Finals.

At the time of his retirement in 2009, Heaps held the distinction of being the longest-tenured Revolution player in the team's history. When he left the team, Heaps was the club's all-time leader in games played (243), starts (238), and minutes played (21,619). He also ranked fifth on the Revs' career assist chart (26) and had totaled nine career goals. In MLS record books, Heaps was ranked eighth all-time in MLS in games played (314), fourth in starts (299), and third in minutes played (27,363) at the time of his retirement. He concluded his playing career with 17 goals and 34 assists overall.

Heaps made at least 27 regular season appearances in each of his 11 professional seasons. Despite his physical playing style and fearless nature, Heaps missed just three games due to injury during more than eight seasons with the Revolution, making him one of the most durable and reliable players in MLS history.

Honored as the Revolution's Defender of the Year for in 2009, Heaps was rewarded for his stellar play with a call-up to the U.S. Men's National Team for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup. He went on to earn all four caps on his USMNT résumé during the tournament, including his international debut on July 11, 2009 against Haiti in front of his hometown crowd at Gillette Stadium. Heaps is also a former member of the U.S. Under-17 and Under-20 National Teams.

Heaps played collegiately at Duke, where he won the 1998 Missouri Athletic Club Award as the national player of the year. He was a three-time finalist for the Hermann Trophy, a four-time first-team All-ACC selection, and a four-time all-region choice. He left Duke's program ranked third in career goals (45), fourth in career assists (37), and tied for second in career points (127). In addition to earning Soccer America's National Freshman of the Year honors in 1995, Heaps also played three-and-a-half years of basketball under legendary Duke and USA Basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski before leaving midway through his senior year to pursue a professional soccer career. He was named one of Duke's "Top-10 Devils of the Decade" by the Duke Chronicle.

In addition to earning his USSF "A" Coaching License in March 2014, Heaps accrued three years of collegiate coaching experience during his MLS playing days with the Revolution. In 2004, he was a volunteer assistant coach at Boston College under Ed Kelly as the Eagles went 13-5-2 and advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament. He followed that with a two-year stint (2005-06) at Northeastern under Brian Ainscough in the same capacity.

TECHNICAL STAFF BIOS

TOM SOEHN
ASSISTANT COACH

Tom Soehn is in his fourth season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Jay Heaps' staff in January 2014.

Soehn has 13 years of MLS coaching experience as both a head coach and assistant, including three seasons with the Chicago Fire and six seasons with D.C. United. The Chicago, Ill. native began his coaching career as an assistant coach with his hometown club, the Chicago Fire, where he was Bob Bradley's first assistant in 2001 and 2002. Soehn moved to D.C. United in 2004, where he served as Peter Nowak's top assistant, helping the Black and Red win MLS Cup in 2004 and the 2006 Supporters Shield. He was promoted to head coach ahead of the 2007 season and led D.C. to a second straight Supporters Shield. In 2008, he guided D.C. to a U.S. Open Cup championship and into the group stage of the 2008-09 and 2009-10 CONCACAF Champions League tournaments.

In January 2010, Soehn was appointed as Vancouver Whitecaps FC's first Director of Soccer Operations, where he developed and managed the club's inaugural roster, player scouting, and identification and recruitment system as the club prepared to enter MLS in 2011. Soehn returned to the bench in late May 2011 and coached the team for the remainder of its debut season after head coach Teitur Thordarson was released. In 2012, he returned to the front office to direct soccer operations, helping craft the Whitecaps FC team that qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs – the first ever Canadian team to do so.

Before pursuing coaching, Soehn enjoyed a 13-year professional playing career as a defender and midfielder from 1998-2000. He played in both indoor and outdoor professional leagues during his career, including four seasons in MLS with the Dallas Burn (now FC Dallas) and the Chicago Fire. After being selected in the second round (13th overall) of the MLS Inaugural Player Draft in February 1996, Soehn saw his first action with Dallas in 1997 and helped the club win the U.S. Open Cup title.

CARLOS LLAMOSA
ASSISTANT COACH

Carlos Llamosa is in his first season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining the club's staff in December 2016. Llamosa, 47, has been a mainstay in North American soccer over the past two decades, having enjoyed a 15-year career in MLS as a player and a coach, as well as an additional four years coaching in the North American Soccer League.

He arrives in New England following four seasons as an assistant coach for the New York Cosmos (2013-16), a span in which he helped guide the club to three NASL Soccer Bowl Championships. Before joining New York, Llamosa spent four seasons as an assistant coach with Chivas USA in MLS from 2009-12.

Llamosa's appointment marks a homecoming for the former MLS player, who enjoyed an 11-year career as one of the league's premier defenders. He spent nearly four years with New England from 2002 to 2005, appearing in 38 games, starting 36, for the club from 2002-03 before missing the 2004 season with a knee injury. In the postseason, he made eight additional appearances for the Revolution. Llamosa was a major contributor in the club's run to the 2002 MLS Cup, as he started five matches during the postseason including the final.

He totaled 154 career MLS appearances, 142 starts, three goals, and four assists in stints with D.C. United (1997-2000), Miami Fusion (2001), New England, and Chivas USA (2006-07). With D.C., he helped the club to three straight MLS Cup appearances from 1997-99, including championships in 1997 and 1999. Prior to MLS, Llamosa played professionally in Colombia with Colmena (1986-88) and Atlético Huila (1989-90) before immigrating to the United States in 1991. He began his U.S. career with the New York Centaurs of the A-League in 1995 before being selected by D.C. United in the 1997 MLS Supplemental Draft.

A native of Palmira, Colombia, Llamosa became a United States citizen in 1991 and was capped 29 times with the U.S. Men's National team. He played in the 1999 Confederations Cup and 2002 World Cup, appearing in wins against Portugal and Mexico in the latter.

REMI ROY
ASSISTANT COACH

Remi Roy is in his eighth season with the New England Revolution as an assistant coach, having joined the coaching staff in 2010. In addition to working primarily with the first-team keepers, Roy also manages the club's collegiate scouting efforts and provides additional training for the Revolution Academy's goalkeepers.

During his time with the Revolution, Roy has mentored several different goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in MLS. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins. He also tutored rookie Matt Turner through seven starts in USL action in 2016, a stretch in which he conceded only three goals. He also worked with MLS newcomer Cody Cropper after he was acquired during the 2016 campaign, leading to a shutout victory in his MLS debut in the season finale.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07). Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).

QUOTABLE

EARTHQUAKES HEAD COACH DOMINIC KINNEAR

Thoughts on second late comeback game:

"I'm glad we are scoring goals to tie but there are other things to address: good first half, poor second half. I thought Dallas was creeping into the game slowly and were getting chances. You can put that down to pressure. I put it as bad decisions on our part and it is something we can definitely avoid."

Overall thoughts on the game:

"I thought we played some good stuff first 30-35 minutes. We looked pretty sharp and were moving the ball well. Second half we came out and I thought we were a little bit lackadaisical and they were getting chances because of that. Dallas is a good team. They're very solid, not too many weaknesses so when you give the ball away they're going to punish you and put you under pressure. That's what was happening in the second half."

Overall thoughts on the performance:

"I thought we did okay. The first half, we were kind of humming along pretty good. We started giving the ball away and putting ourselves under pressure; when you have the ball and you open yourselves up you lose it, there are gaps to attack. We need to be a little bit smarter."

EARTHQUAKES MIDFIELDER JAHMIR HYKA

On his first career MLS goal:

"I just followed the ball. The defender missed the ball a little bit, I think, and I just went at full speed. I just took it with me and shot it. I didn't think so much. Thank God it went in."

On the team getting another late equalizer:

"I think that shows character. We showed the team spirit and that we fight until the last second. That's important because it's not the same if you lose or draw the game. I hope that we'll do better in the next game against New England and get the three points."

Last Game vs. New England Revolution

Earthquakes 0 – 0 New England Revolution; August 24, 2016; Avaya Stadium, San Jose, CA

The San Jose Earthquakes held the New England Revolution to a scoreless draw in front of a sold-out crowd at Avaya Stadium. The Quakes' first look on goal came in the 20th minute when Simon Dawkins crossed the ball to forward Chris Wondolowski who used his head to fire the ball just wide of Brad Knighton's goal. In the 35th minute, Wondolowski created another chance with his head, sending the ball across the goalmouth only for Knighton to clear it with his fingers. With the game scoreless at halftime, the two teams looked to capitalize in the second half. In the 60th minute, the post came to the Quakes' rescue to deny Kei Kamara's shot. After Lee Nguyen sent a through ball to Kamara, the forward found himself in a one-on-one situation with Bingham. Kamara had a shot, but the ball ricocheted off the right post and the score remained level. In the 77th minute, moments after entering the match, Henok Goitom received a pass from Darwin Ceren that put him past New England's defense and through on goal. Goitom shot, but Knighton made the save. With the final whistle, the game ended scoreless and the Quakes earned their sixth shutout of the 2016 season

KEYS TO SUCCESS

Halftime Success

Since the beginning of the 2000 season, the Quakes are 115-4-25 when leading at the half, including a 1-0-0 mark in 2017. They were 3-0-2 in 2016, 7-1-2 in 2015, 6-0-2 in 2014, 6-0-3 in 2013 and an impressive 12-0-1 in 2012, with the only draw coming against Portland on Oct. 27 at JELD-WEN Field. In 2011, the club was 4-2-2, 7-0-2 in 2010, 4-0-3 in 2009, 6-1-0 in 2008, 7-0-3 in 2005, 7-0-1 in 2004 and 8-0-1 in 2003. Despite holding a 1-0 halftime lead on May 10, 2008, vs. Columbus, the Quakes were edged by the final score of 3-2. That game marked the team's first loss since 1999 when holding a halftime advantage.

Making the First One Count

The Earthquakes are 121-16-36 since 2001 when scoring the first goal, including a 1-1-0 record in 2017. The club was 7-0-3 in 2016, 11-3-3 in 2015, after going 5-1-4 in 2014. They were 11-1-3 when scoring first in 2013. In 2012, San Jose was 14-2-2, their two losses coming at Vancouver (2-1) on May 5 and at Montreal (3-1) on Aug. 18. The club was 7-4-5 in 2011, 12-0-2 in 2010, 6-1-5 in 2009 and 8-1-3 in 2008. Prior to 2010, San Jose also went undefeated in 2001 (13-0-2), 2003 (11-0-1) and 2005 (14-0-5) when scoring first. The Earthquakes were 12-2-0 in 2002 when scoring first, only giving up leads two times in losing 2-1 at the LA Galaxy on July 4, and falling at Kansas City by the same score on July 27. In 2004, the Quakes went 8-1-1 when scoring first, the best mark in MLS. The Quakes surrendered a 1-0 advantage and dropped a 2-1 decision at the LA Galaxy on July 4, 2004, losing for just the first time since July 27, 2002, when striking first. The Quakes are also impressive in the playoffs when scoring first, posting an 8-0-1 record all-time.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Earthquakes Raise $40,000 for Flood Victims

The San Jose Earthquakes have raised $40,000 that will be given to the Silicon Valley Community Fund to aid victims of the recent flooding in San Jose. A fundraiser organized by the Quakes Foundation received contributions of $14,830 from the general public, which was matched by the Earthquakes in full. An additional $10,000 donated by the Oakland Athletics saw the total rise to $39,660. The Quakes then contributed the final $340 to bring the grand total to $40,000. Several players also spent time at the shelters, helping unload care packages and passing out jackets and blankets to the families in need.

Earthquakes Donate 250 Soccer Balls

The Quakes surprised students at Hellyer Elementary School in San Jose on Monday, April 3, by unloading a dump truck full of soccer balls onto the black top. Every student from third grade to sixth grade received a ball to take home to promote healthy living and an active lifestyle.

#PANAMANIANAC

One of the most impactful players in Major League Soccer, Anibal Godoy controls the tempo for the Earthquakes on both sides of the ball. Possessing an aggressive defensive demeanor, a calm presence on the ball, and a wicked left-footed shot, Godoy has become the heartbeat of the Quakes and a player other teams need to prepare for.

ANIBAL GODOY

Leadership
 Godoy has led San Jose to a 15-9-14 record in his starts since joining the team in August of 2015.

DAVE'S SAVES

Quakes goalkeeper David Bingham has had a meteoric rise to stardom over the past three years. After making just four starts in his first four professional seasons, Bingham has not only burst onto the scene as one of the best young keepers in the league, but also garnered attention and playing time from the U.S. National Team.

Among the League's Best
 Bingham's name is sprinkled all over the MLS record books already in just his third season as the Quakes starter. Among all keepers in league history, he currently ranks sixth in goals against average (1.17).

Immediate Impact
 Since taking over as the starter in 2015, Bingham has allowed just 85 goals in 74 starts (1.17 GAA) while keeping 21 clean sheets.

Formidable Fortress
 In 35 starts at Avaya Stadium, Bingham has allowed only eight more total goals (24) than he has shutouts (16).

International Stage
 Bingham made his first-ever appearance for the U.S. National Team on Feb. 5, 2016, earning a 1-0 shutout victory against Canada.

THE HOMEGROWN

Earthquakes defender Nick Lima, 22, became the Quakes second-ever Homegrown Player upon signing with the club in January. Lima has cemented himself not only as a legitimate Rookie of the Year contender, but frontrunner. He earned MLS Team of the Week (Week 1) honors in his first-ever appearance, holding Impact winger Ignacio Piatti without a single chance created or shot on target in the Quakes' 1-0 win. He then scored his first-career goal in the team's Week 2 victory over Vancouver, earning him a spot on the MLS Team of the Week bench.

WEEK 1

WEEK 2

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

There's a good feeling that Nick Lima will dominate this space during the season. The San Jose Earthquakes full back turned in his second straight standout performance on Saturday, and he added a goal to his defensive exploits against Vancouver.

Lima's effort saw the Quakes rookie beat out Julian Gressel for SBI MLS Rookie of the Week recognition.

Not only did the San Jose Earthquakes shutout the Impact on Saturday night, they held the Eastern Conference side to zero shots on goal. Full back Nick Lima had a big part in quieting the Ignacio Piatti-led attack.

The 22-year-old homegrown player earned plenty of praise from his teammates for his 90-minute showing that helped the Quakes start a critical year on the right foot by beating out Julian Gressel for SBI MLS Rookie of the Week honors.

LIMA MUTES PIATTI: A good day at the office for Earthquakes homegrown player Nick Lima who did a standout job limiting the effectiveness of Montreal's Ignacio Piatti. Usually a key contributor, Piatti was held to 1 shot and created no chances, with a 30% passing accuracy in the attacking third. The 2016 MLS Best XI selection doesn't produce much quieter outings.

QUAKES CAUSING QUAKES

In March of 2015, in conjunction with Avaya Stadium's opening, the San Jose Earthquakes and the U.S Geological Survey announced that a seismograph had been installed on-site to provide better characterization of how ground motion varies from one location to another during earthquakes. The seismograph, which is used to detect small natural quakes, is sensitive enough to record ground movement from raucous crowd activity at Earthquakes home games.

After collaboration with USGS, the data from NetQuakes has finally been revealed. Below is the top-10 most seismic moments in Avaya Stadium history, measured by approximating the kinetic energy in the ground for a given 15-second period. To put it in laymen's terms, when the Quakes score and fans go ballistic, these are the 10 moments in the stadium's short-but-sweet existence that caused the most ground movement.
