THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Head Coach Jay Heaps, midfielder Lee Nguyen, and defender Chris Tierney had to say ahead of Sunday's match against Columbus Crew SC. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net.

New England Revolution Head Coach Jay Heaps

On if a defense-first mindset has led to three clean sheets in five home games:
Coach Heaps: "Obviously, yes, but you also have to bring so much more. For me, I think it's critical that we make it a very difficult place for teams to come in and play, but at the same time, we also have to open ourselves up to attack. You're looking for the right times to blend those two."

New England Revolution Midfielder Lee Nguyen

On the importance of building an early lead:
Nguyen: "We've been on both ends of those. It's deflating to the other team when you come out strong like that and you're able to hit early. It puts a team on their back feet and they're going to have to open up their game, because you know they're going to have to come back and try to get one. That plays into our hands, especially at home. We want to open teams up and when that happens, when you have two teams trying to play open soccer, I like our odds."

New England Revolution Defender Chris Tierney

On preparing for a Columbus side that can attack in different ways with an assortment of weapons:
Tierney: "We have to do our homework. What will work in our favor is we just saw these guys, so we have an idea of the way they've been playing this year, which is really well. It's going to be a really tough task for us, but we have to do our homework, look at the tendencies of the players that they have. They play a very specific system that's very difficult to defend against. If we get it right, it'll be tough for them. But if we don't, they have the ability to punish us."

WHEN THE REVS SCORE, AMERICA SCORES

The Revolution and America SCORES Boston have teamed up through the "Revs Score, America SCORES" initiative to assist under-resourced youth in the greater Boston area. For every goal the Revolution score at Gillette Stadium this season, the New England Revolution Charitable Foundation will contribute $100, which equates to the cost of one week of programming for a child. All donations by the Revolution will be matched by one of America SCORES Boston's corporate partners. Through five home games in 2017, the Revs have raised $1,300 for America SCORES Boston.

The collaboration, which began in October 2016, expands player involvement with youth in America SCORES Boston's after-school program through Academy-run soccer clinics and participation in SCORES' Service Learning Projects.

TEAM NOTES

THE CHOSEN JUAN: AGUDELO ON PACE FOR CAREER YEAR

Forward Juan Agudelo is making a convincing case for a spot on the U.S. Men's National Team's roster for this summer's CONCACAF Gold Cup. Agudelo submitted his second brace of the young MLS season on April 29 at Seattle, bringing his goals scored total on the year to six. That leaves him just one goal shy of matching his previous Revolution high of seven, a mark he reached in 2013, 2015, and 2016. He is now tied for sixth in MLS in goals, four back of Chicago's Nemanja Nikolic (10 goals) for the top spot in the League's Golden Boot race.

Dating back to 2016, the 24-year-old has 12 goals in his last 18 appearances across all competitions. He closed last season with four goals and three assists over New England's final seven matches of 2016. Agudelo is particularly dangerous at home with eight goals and one assist in his last eight appearances at Gillette Stadium.

Now in his fourth campaign with the Revolution, Agudelo is beginning to etch himself into the club's record books. In his Revs career, he has scored 0.49 goals per 90 minutes and boasts a scoring percentage of 18.5 percent, both second best in club history. He is currently tied with Kelyn Rowe for eighth place on New England's all-time goal scoring chart with 27 goals.

REVS, SUPPORTERS MAKE GILLETTE STADIUM A FORTRESS

Maximizing points at home is key to success in MLS, and seven of 11 games at home between May 13 and July 29, the Revolution know the club's upcoming home stretch is critical. New England is currently on a nine-game unbeaten run at Gillette Stadium and has not lost at home since Aug. 20, 2016 vs. Columbus Crew SC.

Throughout nearly all of Head Coach Jay Heaps' tenure, Gillette Stadium has provided one of the League's best home-field advantages. Since 2013, New England has totaled 40 wins at home, tied for fifth most in MLS.

CALDWELL & FAGUNDEZ LEADERS IN HOMEGROWN MINUTES

Midfielder Diego Fagundez made history in the 15th minute of the April 8 contest against the Houston Dynamo. The seventh-year pro became the first MLS Homegrown field player to reach 10,000 career minutes. On May 6 at Columbus, midfielder Scott Caldwell – the second Homegrown Player signing in Revs history – also eclipsed the milestone. The only other Homegrown player to do so is goalkeeper Bill Hamid (D.C. United).

After signing his first professional contract at just 15 years old, Fagundez is now a leader on the team at only 22. He is the second-longest tenured member of the Revolution behind Chris Tierney. Caldwell has shone as a beacon of consistency in the Revolution midfield, where he has played at least 2,000 minutes in three of his four complete professional seasons. His performance two seasons ago led to Revolution fans and teammates voting him their MVP and Players' Player of the Year for the 2015 MLS season.

TEAM NOTES

DELAMEA THRIVING IN DEBUT MLS SEASON

The Revolution opened the 2017 MLS season with a fresh look in central defense, led by newcomer Antonio Delamea. The Slovenian has wasted no time adjusting to his new surroundings, playing all 990 minutes of the season for New England. Delamea currently ranks fifth in MLS in clearances (55), ninth in headed clearances (23), and has contributed to three clean sheet performances.

The 25-year-old's contributions have been quickly noted by the rest of the League, as Delamea earned back-to-back selections on MLSsoccer.com's Team of the Week. His first recognition came after stifling the dangerous Portland Timbers' attack in a 1-1 draw on April 2. He followed up that performance by playing 90 minutes in the Revs' clean sheet win vs. Houston on April 8.

The defender made his first appearance on the scoresheet with an assist on April 22 vs. D.C. United, heading a corner back across the face of goal to set up Juan Agudelo's equalizer.

KOUASSI A MAINSTAY IN REVS' STARTING XI

After making his MLS and Revolution debut against FC Dallas on March 18, midfielder and Designated Player Xavier Kouassi has become a mainstay in the club's midfield. Kouassi has made nine appearances with eight starts on the season and played all 90 minutes in seven of eight contests from April 2 to May 13.

The 27-year-old midfielder has shown his ability to be an effective two-way player by cutting down the opposing attack and quickly transitioning to the Revolution going forward with numbers. Kouassi's 22 interceptions are currently tied for 10th most among all MLS players.

Kouassi also currently ranks second on the team in passing accuracy (84.87) among all players with at least 100 pass attempts, trailing only Scott Caldwell (86.72). Those passes have been especially dangerous in the final third, as he registered his first MLS assist in a 90-minute outing on April 29 at Seattle.

When Kouassi made his debut on March 18, he became the third player from Côte d'Ivoire to appear for the Revolution, joining Arsene Oka and current teammate Benjamin Angoua. Since then, a few of his highlights include his first 90-minute shift in MLS in the 1-1 draw at Portland on April 2, completing 90 percent of his passes in the contest. Kouassi also saw 90 minutes of action in clean sheet performances against Houston on April 8, a 2-0 win, and against Real Salt Lake on May 13, a 4-0 victory.

FARRELL, NGUYEN, & CALDWELL AMONG MLS IRON MEN

Three Revolution players – defender Andrew Farrell and midfielders Lee Nguyen and Scott Caldwell – rank in the top 10 among all MLS outfield players in minutes played dating back to the beginning of the 2015 season. Farrell, who became the 10th player in Revolution history to eclipse 12,000 minutes played on April 22 vs. D.C. United, ranks second among all MLS field players in minutes played dating back to the start of the 2014 season (9,528).

Forward Kei Kamara entered the 2017 season with an eye on the MLS record books, particularly on the all-time goal scoring list. He finally broke through into the top 10 in League history in goals scored on May 13 vs. Real Salt Lake. By tallying his 89th career goal, Kamara moved into a tie with Carlos Ruiz for 10th place on the all-time goals scored list.

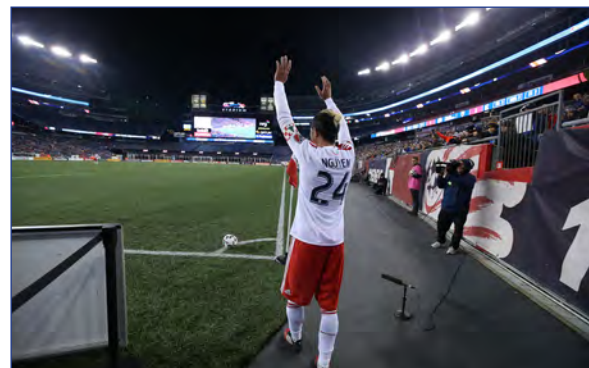

He currently ranks second among active MLS players in goals scored, trailing only San Jose's Chris Wondolowski, who has registered 126 career goals in MLS regular season play.

The Revolution attack has been able to find the back of the net consistently in home matches this season. Through five matches at Gillette Stadium, the Revs have recorded 13 goals, which equates to 2.60 goals per home game. That mark ranks first among all Eastern Conference teams and second in MLS, trailing only the Houston Dynamo (2.71).

JAY HEAPS HEAD COACH

Jay Heaps is in his sixth season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after becoming the sixth head coach in club history on Nov. 14, 2011. The Nashua, N.H. native and Longmeadow, Mass. product has led the Revs to three MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including a trip to MLS Cup in 2014, and to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

With his appointment in 2011, Heaps brought his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days to the bench: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, and passion. He is the first former Revs player and the only New England native to coach the club.

In 2016, Heaps led the Revolution to the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final – the 10th major tournament final in club history. In regular season play, Heaps oversaw the implementation of Designated Player Kei Kamara, who was acquired in a midseason trade, and helped players such as Juan Agudelo, Kelyn Rowe, and Brad Knighton flourish. After Heaps instituted a 4-4-2 formation late in the season, the team won five out of seven MLS games to close the season.

Heaps was named head coach after an 11-year MLS playing career that included nine seasons with the Revolution. He anchored the club's defense from 2001-09, making 243 appearances and 238 starts, both the third most in club history. After his retirement, Heaps remained close to the club as an ambassador and color analyst on both its television and radio broadcasts, while also working in the investment banking industry.

After earning MLS Rookie of the Year honors with the Miami Fusion in 1999, Heaps returned to his hometown club in June 2001 through a trade. During the next nine seasons in New England, he cemented his legacy as not only a fan favorite, but also a driving leader on the field and in the locker room during the team's run of four MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005-07). He is one of three Revolution players to start in each of the club's first four MLS Cup appearances and was also a member of the Revolution squads that won the 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and the 2008 North American Super-Liga titles. Heaps has participated in all but one of New England's 10 final appearances as a player or coach, including all three of its Open Cup Finals.

At the time of his retirement in 2009, Heaps held the distinction of being the longest-tenured Revolution player in the team's history. When he left the team, Heaps was the club's all-time leader in games played (243), starts (238), and minutes played (21,619). He also ranked fifth on the Revs' career assist chart (26) and had totaled nine career goals. In MLS record books, Heaps was ranked eighth all-time in MLS in games played (314), fourth in starts (299), and third in minutes played (27,363) at the time of his retirement. He concluded his playing career with 17 goals and 34 assists overall.

Heaps made at least 27 regular season appearances in each of his 11 professional seasons. Despite his physical playing style and fearless nature, Heaps missed just three games due to injury during more than eight seasons with the Revolution, making him one of the most durable and reliable players in MLS history.

Honored as the Revolution's Defender of the Year for in 2009, Heaps was rewarded for his stellar play with a call-up to the U.S. Men's National Team for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup. He went on to earn all four caps on his USMNT résumé during the tournament, including his international debut on July 11, 2009 against Haiti in front of his hometown crowd at Gillette Stadium. Heaps is also a former member of the U.S. Under-17 and Under-20 National Teams.

Heaps played collegiately at Duke, where he won the 1998 Missouri Athletic Club Award as the national player of the year. He was a three-time finalist for the Hermann Trophy, a four-time first-team All-ACC selection, and a four-time all-region choice. He left Duke's program ranked third in career goals (45), fourth in career assists (37), and tied for second in career points (127). In addition to earning Soccer America's National Freshman of the Year honors in 1995, Heaps also played three-and-a-half years of basketball under legendary Duke and USA Basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski before leaving midway through his senior year to pursue a professional soccer career. He was named one of Duke's "Top-10 Devils of the Decade" by the Duke Chronicle.

In addition to earning his USSF "A" Coaching License in March 2014, Heaps accrued three years of collegiate coaching experience during his MLS playing days with the Revolution. In 2004, he was a volunteer assistant coach at Boston College under Ed Kelly as the Eagles went 13-5-2 and advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament. He followed that with a two-year stint (2005-06) at Northeastern under Brian Ainscough in the same capacity.

TOM SOEHN
ASSISTANT COACH

Tom Soehn is in his fourth season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Jay Heaps' staff in January 2014.

Soehn has 13 years of MLS coaching experience as both a head coach and assistant, including three seasons with the Chicago Fire and six seasons with D.C. United. The Chicago, Ill. native began his coaching career as an assistant coach with his hometown club, the Chicago Fire, where he was Bob Bradley's first assistant in 2001 and 2002. Soehn moved to D.C. United in 2004, where he served as Peter Nowak's top assistant, helping the Black and Red win MLS Cup in 2004 and the 2006 Supporters Shield. He was promoted to head coach ahead of the 2007 season and led D.C. to a second straight Supporters Shield. In 2008, he guided D.C. to a U.S. Open Cup championship and into the group stage of the 2008-09 and 2009-10 CONCACAF Champions League tournaments.

In January 2010, Soehn was appointed as Vancouver Whitecaps FC's first Director of Soccer Operations, where he developed and managed the club's inaugural roster, player scouting, and identification and recruitment system as the club prepared to enter MLS in 2011. Soehn returned to the bench in late May 2011 and coached the team for the remainder of its debut season after head coach Teitur Thordarson was released. In 2012, he returned to the front office to direct soccer operations, helping craft the Whitecaps FC team that qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs – the first ever Canadian team to do so.

Before pursuing coaching, Soehn enjoyed a 13-year professional playing career as a defender and midfielder from 1998-2000. He played in both indoor and outdoor professional leagues during his career, including four seasons in MLS with the Dallas Burn (now FC Dallas) and the Chicago Fire. After being selected in the second round (13th overall) of the MLS Inaugural Player Draft in February 1996, Soehn saw his first action with Dallas in 1997 and helped the club win the U.S. Open Cup title.

REMI ROY
ASSISTANT COACH

Remi Roy is in his eighth season with the New England Revolution as an assistant coach, having joined the coaching staff in 2010. In addition to working primarily with the first-team keepers, Roy also manages the club's collegiate scouting efforts and provides additional training for the Revolution Academy's goalkeepers.

During his time with the Revolution, Roy has mentored several different goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in MLS. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins. He also tutored rookie Matt Turner through seven starts in USL action in 2016, a stretch in which he conceded only three goals. He also worked with MLS newcomer Cody Cropper after he was acquired during the 2016 campaign, leading to a shutout victory in his MLS debut in the season finale.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07). Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).

CARLOS LLAMOSA
ASSISTANT COACH

Carlos Llamosa is in his first season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining the club's staff in December 2016. Llamosa, 47, has been a mainstay in North American soccer over the past two decades, having enjoyed a 15-year career in MLS as a player and a coach, as well as an additional four years coaching in the North American Soccer League.

He arrives in New England following four seasons as an assistant coach for the New York Cosmos (2013-16), a span in which he helped guide the club to three NASL Soccer Bowl Championships. Before joining New York, Llamosa spent four seasons as an assistant coach with Chivas USA in MLS from 2009-12.

Llamosa's appointment marks a homecoming for the former MLS player, who enjoyed an 11-year career as one of the league's premier defenders. He spent nearly four years with New England from 2002 to 2005, appearing in 38 games, starting 36, for the club from 2002-03 before missing the 2004 season with a knee injury. In the postseason, he made eight additional appearances for the Revolution. Llamosa was a major contributor in the club's run to the 2002 MLS Cup, as he started five matches during the postseason including the final.

He totaled 154 career MLS appearances, 142 starts, three goals, and four assists in stints with D.C. United (1997-2000), Miami Fusion (2001), New England, and Chivas USA (2006-07). With D.C., he helped the club to three straight MLS Cup appearances from 1997-99, including championships in 1997 and 1999. Prior to MLS, Llamosa played professionally in Colombia with Colmena (1986-88) and Atlético Huila (1989-90) before immigrating to the United States in 1991. He began his U.S. career with the New York Centaurs of the A-League in 1995 before being selected by D.C. United in the 1997 MLS Supplemental Draft.

A native of Palmira, Colombia, Llamosa became a United States citizen in 1991 and was capped 29 times with the U.S. Men's National team. He played in the 1999 Confederations Cup and 2002 World Cup, appearing in wins against Portugal and Mexico in the latter.

MLS MATCH 13: COLUMBUS CREW SC AT NEW ENGLAND REVOLUTION

JUSTIN MERAM NAMED THE ALCATEL MLS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

This week, Justin Meram was voted Alcatel Major League Soccer Player of the Week by the North American Soccer Reporters for Week 11 of the 2017 MLS season. Meram earned the award following a three-goal performance on Saturday, May 13 against the Montreal Impact at Stade Saputo. This is the 52nd time in MLS history that a Crew SC player has been named MLS Player of the Week. Meram joins current teammates Federico Higuain (three times), Ethan Finlay and Ola Kamara in having earned the weekly honor while playing for the Black & Gold. When asked earlier this week if his performance against Montreal had been his best performance for Crew SC, Meram said: "I think that's for you guys to decide. I don't really look at it that way. I just kind of know my role, know my duty as a player for this club and try to bring three points home and help us get to the playoffs."

JUSTIN MERAM RECORDS FIRST-EVER HAT TRICK...

Midfielder Justin Meram recorded his first career hat trick to lead the Black & Gold to a 3-2 win on the road against the Montreal Impact. Meram scored the opening goal in the 14th minute before doubling Crew SC's lead in the 28th minute. With the game tied 2-2 in the 90th minute, Meram scored the game-winning goal in second-half stoppage time to give the Black & Gold the three points. With the goals against Montreal, Meram now has seven goals and four assists through 12 matches this season. He currently leads the team in goals and assists in 2017 and has already surpassed his 2016 goal total (five). His third goal against Montreal was his third game-winning goal of the season. On Meram's hat trick, Sporting Director and Head Coach Gregg Berhalter gave the following quote at practice this week: "I think any time a player scores a hat trick in a game it's memorable and for Justin it came [in a match] where he had all three goals in the team's 3-2 victory, so I think that was extra special."

... AND J9 JOINS THE 30/30 CLUB

With his three goals in Saturday's match against Montreal, Justin Meram brought his all-time regular-season total to 31 goals and 30 assists in 166 appearances (114 starts), making him one of only six players to record at least 30 goals and 30 assists or more for the Black & Gold in regular season-action. Other players on this list include Jeff Cunningham (64 goals, 44 assists), Brian McBride (62 goals, 45 assists), Guillermo Barros Schelotto (33 goals, 41 assists) as well as current teammates Federico Higuain (43 goals, 39 assists) and Ethan Finlay (30 goals, 30 assists). Earlier this week, Sporting Director and Head Coach Gregg Berhalter said the following about Meram's 30 goals and 30 assists: "He has been a bright spot. When we decided to resign him at this stage we saw what he could do and we saw the potential in him and we said that was someone that we wanted around the club for a while to come."

MERAM IS CURRENTLY THIRD IN MLS' AUDI GOLDEN BOOT RACE

Justin Meram is currently tied for third place in the League's Audi Golden Boot standings. Each season, the Golden Boot Award is given to the player with the most goals at the end of the regular season, with ties being broken by number of assists. Meram's current haul of seven goals and four assists has him just three goals behind Chicago Fire forward Nemanja Nikolic, who is in first place.
