THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Head Coach Jay Heaps, midfielder Scott Caldwell, and defender Andrew Farrell had to say ahead of Saturday's match against Real Salt Lake. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net.

New England Revolution Head Coach Jay Heaps

On matching up with current RSL and former Red Bulls head coach Mike Petke:
Coach Heaps: "Knowing the group, they're a senior group. They're a good group of players. I think Mike [Petke] is getting his feel into the group and definitely changing the team in his identity. They come in, they play hard, they play physical, they work hard, so we're going to be ready for a group that is hungry to come here and play."

New England Revolution Midfielder Scott Caldwell

On becoming the second MLS Homegrown field player to eclipse 10,000 regular season minutes last week at Columbus:
Caldwell: "Going into this year, I had no idea that this was a milestone that people were looking at, but then when I saw Diego [Fagundez] had hit it – it was great to see that, see the [Revolution] Academy and how well it's done so far here. It's something that the Academy kids can look forward to or look at and see, 'Hey, look, this is a real opportunity we have here,' and try to take advantage of that. For me, it's a proud moment. I'm very happy to do that for the Revolution in front of the fans that [watched me as] I was growing up. It means a lot. It's unfortunate to do it away at a loss, but looking forward to this weekend being back in front of the fans."

New England Revolution Defender Andrew Farrell

On playing four of the next five games at home:
Farrell: "Obviously, I think we've had good games at home, we've had games we know we want back to get all three points. But we haven't lost here yet and I think that's a point for us. For teams coming in, they know when they come down here, we battle with everything we have. It's an important place to get the points. Obviously, having these tough couple of road games this past month and tough games, it feels good to get back home and have a lot of games coming up that are going to be here. We've got to make sure we take care step by step and game by game and get all the points we can."

WHEN THE REVS SCORE, AMERICA SCORES

The Revolution and America SCORES Boston have teamed up through the "Revs Score, America SCORES" initiative to assist under-resourced youth in the greater Boston area. For every goal the Revolution score at Gillette Stadium this season, the New England Revolution Charitable Foundation will contribute $100, which equates to the cost of one week of programming for a child. All donations by the Revolution will be matched by one of America SCORES Boston's corporate partners. Through four home games in 2017, the Revs have raised $900 for America SCORES Boston.

The collaboration, which began in October 2016, expands player involvement with youth in America SCORES Boston's after-school program through Academy-run soccer clinics and participation in SCORES' Service Learning Projects.

For every Revolution goal scored at Gillette Stadium this season, the New England Revolution Charitable Foundation will contribute $100 per goal to America SCORES Boston.

TEAM NOTES

THE CHOSEN JUAN: AGUDELO ON PACE FOR CAREER YEAR

Forward Juan Agudelo is making a convincing case for a spot on the U.S. Men's National Team's roster for this summer's CONCACAF Gold Cup. Agudelo submitted his second brace of the young MLS season on April 29 at Seattle, bringing his goals scored total on the year to six. That leaves him just one goal shy of matching his previous Revolution high of seven, a mark he reached in 2013, 2015, and 2016. He is now tied for third in MLS in goals, one behind Houston's Erick 'Cubo' Torres and Philadelphia's C.J. Sapong (seven goals) for the top spot in the League's Golden Boot race.

Dating back to 2016, the 24-year-old has 12 goals in his last 18 appearances across all competitions. He closed last season with four goals and three assists over New England's final seven matches of 2016. Agudelo is particularly dangerous at home with eight goals and one assist in the club's last eight games at Gillette Stadium.

Now in his fourth campaign with the Revolution, Agudelo is beginning to etch himself into the club's record books. In his Revs career, he has scored 0.50 goals per 90 minutes and boasts a scoring percentage of 18.5 percent, both second best in club history. He is currently tied with Kelyn Rowe for eighth place on New England's all-time goal scoring chart with 27 goals.

REVS, SUPPORTERS MAKE GILLETTE STADIUM A FORTRESS

Maximizing points at home is key to success in MLS, and with four of the team's next five games at home, the Revolution know the club's upcoming homestand is critical. New England extended its current unbeaten run at Gillette Stadium to eight games after earning a draw against D.C. United on April 22. The club's last loss in Foxborough came on Aug. 20, 2016 vs. Columbus Crew SC.

Forward Juan Agudelo has been an offensive force during the unbeaten run, scoring in seven of the eight matches and totaling eight goals with one assist. He became only the second Revolution player to score in six straight home games (Sept. 3, 2016 - April 8, 2017), joining Joe-Max Moore. Moore scored in his first six home appearances during the Revs' inaugural season from July 31 - Sept. 12, 1996.

Throughout nearly all of Head Coach Jay Heaps' tenure, Gillette Stadium has provided one of the League's best home-field advantages. Since 2013, New England has totaled 39 wins at home, tied for fifth most in MLS.

The Revs have recorded four goals during the 0-15 minute interval and four goals during the 45-60 minute interval. Meanwhile, Atlanta United FC has scored six goals during the 0-15 minute interval and four goals during the 45-60 minute interval.

CALDWELL JOINS FAGUNDEZ IN ELITE HOMEGROWN COMPANY

Midfielder Diego Fagundez made history in the 15th minute of the April 8 contest against the Houston Dynamo. The seventh-year pro became the first MLS Homegrown field player to reach 10,000 career minutes. Last week at Columbus, midfielder Scott Caldwell – the second Homegrown Player signing in Revs history – also eclipsed the milestone. The only other Homegrown player to do so is goalkeeper Bill Hamid (D.C. United).

After signing his first professional contract at just 15 years old, Fagundez is now a leader on the team at only 22. He is the second-longest tenured member of the Revolution behind Chris Tierney. Caldwell has shone as a beacon of consistency in the Revolution midfield, where he has played at least 2,000 minutes in three of his four complete professional seasons. His performance two seasons ago led to Revolution fans and teammates voting him their MVP and Players' Player of the Year for the 2015 MLS season.

Revolution defender Chris Tierney moved into second place on the list with his 36th assist in New England's home opener on March 25 vs. Minnesota. Midfielder Lee Nguyen tied Tierney for second place by recording his 36th career helper on April 29 at Seattle. Rowe also recorded an assist against Seattle, giving him 33 in his MLS career. Midfielder Diego Fagundez is already the first Homegrown Player to crack the top 10 and will tie Taylor Twellman for eighth place with his next assist.

TEAM NOTES

DELAMEA THRIVING IN DEBUT MLS SEASON

The Revolution opened the 2017 MLS season with a fresh look in central defense, led by newcomer Antonio Delamea. The Slovenian has wasted no time adjusting to his new surroundings, playing all 900 minutes of the season in central defense for New England. Delamea currently ranks fifth in MLS in clearances (55), T-10th in headed clearances (23), and has contributed to two clean sheet performances.

The 25-year-old's contributions have been quickly noted by the rest of the League, as Delamea earned back-to-back selections on MLSsoccer.com's Team of the Week. His first recognition came after stifling the dangerous Portland Timbers' attack in a 1-1 draw on April 2. He followed up that performance by contributing to the Revs' clean sheet win vs. Houston on April 8.

The defender made his first appearance on the scoresheet with his first career MLS assist on April 22 vs. D.C. United. Delamea, whose size makes him a constant threat on set pieces, headed a corner back across the face of goal to set up Juan Agudelo's equalizer.

KOUASSI A MAINSTAY IN REVS' STARTING XI

After making his MLS and Revolution debut against FC Dallas on March 18, midfielder and Designated Player Xavier Kouassi has become a mainstay in the club's midfield. Kouassi has made eight appearances with seven starts on the season and played all 90 minutes in six of seven contests from April 2 - May 6.

The 27-year-old midfielder has shown his ability to be an effective two-way player by cutting down the opposing attack and quickly transitioning to the Revolution going forward with numbers. Kouassi's 22 interceptions are currently tied for 10th-most among all MLS players.

Kouassi also currently ranks second on the team in passing accuracy (84.87) among all players that have attempted at least 100 passes, trailing only Scott Caldwell (86.72). Those passes have been especially dangerous in the final third, as he registered his first MLS assist in a 90-minute outing on April 29 at Seattle.

When Kouassi made his debut on March 18, he became the third player from Côte d'Ivoire to appear for the Revolution, joining Arsene Oka and current teammate Benjamin Angoua. Since then, a few of his highlights include his first 90-minute shift in MLS in the 1-1 draw at Portland on April 2, completing 90 percent of his passes in the contest. Kouassi also saw 90 minutes of action in a clean sheet performance against Houston on April 8, a 2-0 win.

FARRELL, NGUYEN, & CALDWELL AMONG MLS IRON MEN

Three Revolution players – defender Andrew Farrell and midfielders Lee Nguyen and Scott Caldwell – rank in the top 10 among all MLS field players in minutes played dating back to the beginning of the 2015 season. All three players also rank inside of the top 10 in games played and games started.

Farrell, who became the 10th player in Revolution history to eclipse 12,000 minutes played on April 22 vs. D.C. United, ranks second among all MLS field players in minutes played dating back to the start of the 2014 season (9,438).

LIGHTS, KAMARA, ACTION!

Forward Kei Kamara entered the 2017 season with an eye on the MLS record books. Kamara currently sits tied for 11th place on the League's all-time goal-scoring chart after bringing his total to 88 with his tally on April 8 vs. Houston. He is now just one goal shy of entering the top 10.

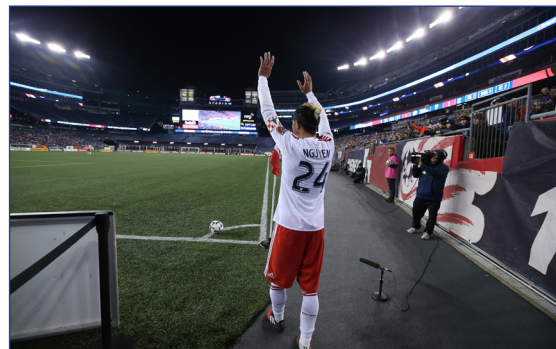

Kamara currently ranks second among active MLS players in goals scored, trailing only San Jose's Chris Wondolowski, who has registered 125 career goals in MLS regular season play.

HOME SWEET HOME: REVS PRODUCING GOALS AT GILLETTE

The Revolution attack has been able to find the back of the net consistently in home matches this season. Through four matches, the Revs have recorded nine goals at home, which equates to 2.25 goals per home game. That mark ranks first among all Eastern Conference teams and trails only the Houston Dynamo (2.83) and the Portland Timbers (2.40) in goals per home game.

TEAM NOTES

ROWE'S NEGU CREW HOSTING LUDLOW NATIVE ON 5/13

Since joining the Revolution, midfielder Kelyn Rowe has shown his commitment to serving the community by supporting childhood cancer patients and their families, an endeavor that has earned him three consecutive club Humanitarian of the Year awards. Through his work with Kelyn's NEGU (Never, Ever Give Up) Crew, he was also recently named the Jessie Rees Foundation's All-Star of the Year.

Kelyn's 2017 slate of NEGU Crew guests began on the road, as he kicked it off by hosting Courageous Kid Brandon on April 2 in Portland. Rowe then hosted Garen, 6, in Kelyn's hometown of Seattle on April 29 at CenturyLink Field. Garen is currently fighting Leukemia and traveled from his home in Tacoma, Wash. to meet Kelyn prior to kickoff before doing a lap with the Revs midfielder following the final whistle. Rowe's next NEGU Crew guest will be this Saturday on May 13 against Real Salt Lake, when he will host 5-year-old Xavier Pereira, who is currently fighting leukemia, from Ludlow, Mass.

Here is what Rowe, a Federal Way, Wash. native, had to say about hosting another year of Courageous Kids in 2017:

"My goal for 'Kelyn's NEGU Crew' is to bring a kid away from the hardships they have faced and make them smile. I want to share with them the same excitement the game brings to me. That is why I love taking the kids around the field after the game to thank the fans. It gives them a chance to fully experience the joy and support the fans can give you."

KOFFIE SET TO RETURN ON LOAN

Midfielder Gershon Koffie will be joining the Revolution on loan from Hammarby IF for the remainder of the 2017 MLS season pending receipt of his P-1 Visa.

With the New England Revolution last season, Koffie made 22 appearances, 19 starts, and contributed a career-high four assists. The midfielder was named to the MLSsoccer.com Team of the Week twice for his performances. Through the first month of the 2017 season, Koffie made three appearances across all competitions for Hammarby, starting two games as a defensive midfielder.

2016 TEAM MVP ROWE SHOWCASES VERSATILITY

Revolution midfielder Kelyn Rowe made his sixth career start on the back line and his fourth career start at left back in the Revs' 3-3 draw with Seattle Sounders FC on April 29. Rowe also started at left back in the team's shutout victory against Houston on April 8, and its draw with D.C. United on April 22.

When Rowe starts in defense, the Revolution are unbeaten at 3-0-3 with four clean sheets.

Rowe's first three starts in defense came last season, when he logged minutes at every position except for center back and goalkeeper. Rowe made two starts at right back on May 14, 2016 vs. Chicago and Aug. 24, 2016 vs. San Jose, and one at left back on Oct. 23, 2016 vs. Montreal.

GILLETTE TO HOST UCL FINALIST JUVENTUS, ROMA IN ICC

On Sunday, July 30th, Gillette Stadium will host AS Roma and UEFA Champions League finalist Juventus F.C. for an International Champions Cup contest. The match is set to kick off at 4 p.m. ET and will be broadcast nationally on ESPN.

The two clubs have developed a strong rivalry budding from past success. Juventus F.C. is in position to secure its sixth consecutive Serie A title while AS Roma is looking for its first since 2001. Juventus F.C. previously played a friendly against Spanish side FC Barcelona at Gillette Stadium on July 27, 2003. AS Roma has not played a match at Gillette Stadium.

AS Roma and Juventus F.C. currently sit atop the Italian Serie A league. Juventus is also competing in the UEFA Champions League and recently downed French club Monaco, 4-1 on aggregate, in the semifinals. Juventus will face Cristiano Ronaldo and Spanish powerhouse Real Madrid in the Champions League final on Saturday, June 3 at 2:45 p.m. ET.

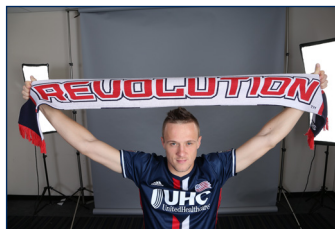

Gillette Stadium has hosted 36 international soccer matches since 2002 at both the club and national team level. Most recently, it hosted three matches during Copa America Centenario in 2016, which featured South American national teams including Argentina, Brazil, and Chile.

WATSON, DELAMEA TAKE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

In addition to Juan Agudelo (USA), defenders Je-Vaughn Watson and Antonio Delamea have each played international matches since the conclusion of the 2016 MLS regular season.

Watson received the call up to the Jamaica National Team prior to a pair of February friendlies against the United States (Feb. 3) and Honduras (Feb. 17). Watson started both matches, played a full 90 minutes, and captained the Reggae Boyz in both contests.

Prior to joining the Revs, Antonio Delamea made his international debut with the Slovenia National Team. The defender earned his first cap as a halftime sub in a friendly at Poland (Nov. 11).

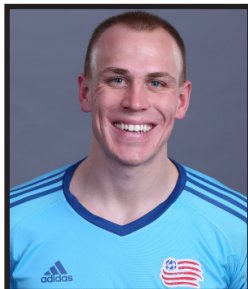

GILLETTE STADIUM RECEIVES SAFETY ACT CERTIFICATION

On March 30, 2017, Gillette Stadium became the first venue in New England to achieve Safety Act designation and certification, the highest level of protection awarded by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. The Safety Act, enacted in 2002, encourages the creation and use of anti-terrorism technologies and practices.

Gillette Stadium is not only the first sports and entertainment venue in New England to achieve the designation, but it is also the first MLS venue and only the fourth NFL venue to be certified under the Safety Act.

The Revolution's home in Foxborough has previously been recognized for a variety of security achievements. Last season, Gillette Stadium ranked No. 1 among NFL venues in safety and security according to an annual survey of fans.

JAY HEAPS HEAD COACH

Jay Heaps is in his sixth season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after becoming the sixth head coach in club history on Nov. 14, 2011. The Nashua, N.H. native and Longmeadow, Mass. product has led the Revs to three MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including a trip to MLS Cup in 2014, and to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

With his appointment in 2011, Heaps brought his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days to the bench: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, and passion. He is the first former Revs player and the only New England native to coach the club.

In 2016, Heaps led the Revolution to the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final – the 10th major tournament final in club history. In regular season play, Heaps oversaw the implementation of Designated Player Kei Kamara, who was acquired in a midseason trade, and helped players such as Juan Agudelo, Kelyn Rowe, and Brad Knighton flourish. After Heaps instituted a 4-4-2 formation late in the season, the team won five out of seven MLS games to close the season.

Heaps was named head coach after an 11-year MLS playing career that included nine seasons with the Revolution. He anchored the club's defense from 2001-09, making 243 appearances and 238 starts, both the third most in club history. After his retirement, Heaps remained close to the club as an ambassador and color analyst on both its television and radio broadcasts, while also working in the investment banking industry.

After earning MLS Rookie of the Year honors with the Miami Fusion in 1999, Heaps returned to his hometown club in June 2001 through a trade. During the next nine seasons in New England, he cemented his legacy as not only a fan favorite, but also a driving leader on the field and in the locker room during the team's run of four MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005-07). He is one of three Revolution players to start in each of the club's first four MLS Cup appearances and was also a member of the Revolution squads that won the 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and the 2008 North American Super-Liga titles. Heaps has participated in all but one of New England's 10 final appearances as a player or coach, including all three of its Open Cup Finals.

At the time of his retirement in 2009, Heaps held the distinction of being the longest-tenured Revolution player in the team's history. When he left the team, Heaps was the club's all-time leader in games played (243), starts (238), and minutes played (21,619). He also ranked fifth on the Revs' career assist chart (26) and had totaled nine career goals. In MLS record books, Heaps was ranked eighth all-time in MLS in games played (314), fourth in starts (299), and third in minutes played (27,363) at the time of his retirement. He concluded his playing career with 17 goals and 34 assists overall.

Heaps made at least 27 regular season appearances in each of his 11 professional seasons. Despite his physical playing style and fearless nature, Heaps missed just three games due to injury during more than eight seasons with the Revolution, making him one of the most durable and reliable players in MLS history.

Honored as the Revolution's Defender of the Year for in 2009, Heaps was rewarded for his stellar play with a call-up to the U.S. Men's National Team for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup. He went on to earn all four caps on his USMNT résumé during the tournament, including his international debut on July 11, 2009 against Haiti in front of his hometown crowd at Gillette Stadium. Heaps is also a former member of the U.S. Under-17 and Under-20 National Teams.

Heaps played collegiately at Duke, where he won the 1998 Missouri Athletic Club Award as the national player of the year. He was a three-time finalist for the Hermann Trophy, a four-time first-team All-ACC selection, and a four-time all-region choice. He left Duke's program ranked third in career goals (45), fourth in career assists (37), and tied for second in career points (127). In addition to earning Soccer America's National Freshman of the Year honors in 1995, Heaps also played three-and-a-half years of basketball under legendary Duke and USA Basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski before leaving midway through his senior year to pursue a professional soccer career. He was named one of Duke's "Top-10 Devils of the Decade" by the Duke Chronicle.

In addition to earning his USSF "A" Coaching License in March 2014, Heaps accrued three years of collegiate coaching experience during his MLS playing days with the Revolution. In 2004, he was a volunteer assistant coach at Boston College under Ed Kelly as the Eagles went 13-5-2 and advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament. He followed that with a two-year stint (2005-06) at Northeastern under Brian Ainscough in the same capacity.

TOM SOEHN
ASSISTANT COACH

Tom Soehn is in his fourth season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Jay Heaps' staff in January 2014.

Soehn has 13 years of MLS coaching experience as both a head coach and assistant, including three seasons with the Chicago Fire and six seasons with D.C. United. The Chicago, Ill. native began his coaching career as an assistant coach with his hometown club, the Chicago Fire, where he was Bob Bradley's first assistant in 2001 and 2002. Soehn moved to D.C. United in 2004, where he served as Peter Nowak's top assistant, helping the Black and Red win MLS Cup in 2004 and the 2006 Supporters Shield. He was promoted to head coach ahead of the 2007 season and led D.C. to a second straight Supporters Shield. In 2008, he guided D.C. to a U.S. Open Cup championship and into the group stage of the 2008-09 and 2009-10 CONCACAF Champions League tournaments.

In January 2010, Soehn was appointed as Vancouver Whitecaps FC's first Director of Soccer Operations, where he developed and managed the club's inaugural roster, player scouting, and identification and recruitment system as the club prepared to enter MLS in 2011. Soehn returned to the bench in late May 2011 and coached the team for the remainder of its debut season after head coach Teitur Thordarson was released. In 2012, he returned to the front office to direct soccer operations, helping craft the Whitecaps FC team that qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs – the first ever Canadian team to do so.

Before pursuing coaching, Soehn enjoyed a 13-year professional playing career as a defender and midfielder from 1998-2000. He played in both indoor and outdoor professional leagues during his career, including four seasons in MLS with the Dallas Burn (now FC Dallas) and the Chicago Fire. After being selected in the second round (13th overall) of the MLS Inaugural Player Draft in February 1996, Soehn saw his first action with Dallas in 1997 and helped the club win the U.S. Open Cup title.

CARLOS LLAMOSA
ASSISTANT COACH

Carlos Llamosa is in his first season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining the club's staff in December 2016. Llamosa, 47, has been a mainstay in North American soccer over the past two decades, having enjoyed a 15-year career in MLS as a player and a coach, as well as an additional four years coaching in the North American Soccer League.

He arrives in New England following four seasons as an assistant coach for the New York Cosmos (2013-16), a span in which he helped guide the club to three NASL Soccer Bowl Championships. Before joining New York, Llamosa spent four seasons as an assistant coach with Chivas USA in MLS from 2009-12.

Llamosa's appointment marks a homecoming for the former MLS player, who enjoyed an 11-year career as one of the league's premier defenders. He spent nearly four years with New England from 2002 to 2005, appearing in 38 games, starting 36, for the club from 2002-03 before missing the 2004 season with a knee injury. In the postseason, he made eight additional appearances for the Revolution. Llamosa was a major contributor in the club's run to the 2002 MLS Cup, as he started five matches during the postseason including the final.

He totaled 154 career MLS appearances, 142 starts, three goals, and four assists in stints with D.C. United (1997-2000), Miami Fusion (2001), New England, and Chivas USA (2006-07). With D.C., he helped the club to three straight MLS Cup appearances from 1997-99, including championships in 1997 and 1999. Prior to MLS, Llamosa played professionally in Colombia with Colmena (1986-88) and Atlético Huila (1989-90) before immigrating to the United States in 1991. He began his U.S. career with the New York Centaurs of the A-League in 1995 before being selected by D.C. United in the 1997 MLS Supplemental Draft.

A native of Palmira, Colombia, Llamosa became a United States citizen in 1991 and was capped 29 times with the U.S. Men's National team. He played in the 1999 Confederations Cup and 2002 World Cup, appearing in wins against Portugal and Mexico in the latter.

REMI ROY
ASSISTANT COACH

Remi Roy is in his eighth season with the New England Revolution as an assistant coach, having joined the coaching staff in 2010. In addition to working primarily with the first-team keepers, Roy also manages the club's collegiate scouting efforts and provides additional training for the Revolution Academy's goalkeepers.

During his time with the Revolution, Roy has mentored several different goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in MLS. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins. He also tutored rookie Matt Turner through seven starts in USL action in 2016, a stretch in which he conceded only three goals. He also worked with MLS newcomer Cody Cropper after he was acquired during the 2016 campaign, leading to a shutout victory in his MLS debut in the season finale.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07). Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).
