THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Head Coach Jay Heaps, defender Antonio Delamea, and goalkeeper Cody Cropper had to say ahead of Saturday's match against the LA Galaxy. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net.

New England Revolution Head Coach Jay Heaps

On leaning on veteran players to propel the team back into the playoff picture:

Coach Heaps: "It's not just one player - it's got to be the collective. Players holding themselves accountable, holding the group accountable, and working together and stop pointing fingers and really use the group to get the result, because one guy is not going to be able to change the entire course of the results. It's got to be everybody."

New England Revolution Defender Antonio Delamea

On looking to re-establish dominance at Gillette Stadium:

Delamea: "It's always nice to play here at home. We always feel good. I think we were a little unlucky in these last games, but we know what we are capable of. We know that our fans always give us this extra energy, which is important. I just hope this time we won't let them down. We know what our duties are. Like I said before, we need to stick together like a team. We need to help each other and I know that we will get a good result."

New England Revolution Goalkeeper Cody Cropper

On the impact of having Kelyn Rowe back with the team:

Cropper: "His involvement on our team is massive - his work rate off the ball, his work rate on the ball, his runs off the ball. His leadership on the field is huge for us and I think that's really going to help give us another boost coming back in to the league this weekend versus LA."

The Revolution and America SCORES Boston have teamed up through the "Revs Score, America SCORES" initiative to assist under-resourced youth in the greater Boston area. For every goal the Revolution score at Gillette Stadium this season, the New England Revolution Charitable Foundation will contribute $100, which equates to the cost of one week of programming for a child. Through nine home games in 2017, the Revs have raised $2,100 for America SCORES Boston, or 21 weeks of programming for students in Boston.

The collaboration, which began in October 2016, expands player involvement with youth in America SCORES Boston's after-school program through Academy-run soccer clinics and participation in SCORES' Service Learning Projects.

AGUDELO, ROWE MAKE IMPACT FOR USMNT AT 2017 GOLD CUP

New England Revolution forward Juan Agudelo remains on the United States Men's National Team's 23-man roster for the Knockout Round of the 2017 CONCACAF Gold Cup. Meanwhile, midfielder Kelyn Rowe, who just recently earned his first three caps with the USMNT, has returned to the Revolution ahead of Saturday's match against the LA Galaxy.

Agudelo will continue on with the USMNT as it prepares for its Semifinal meeting with Costa Rica on Saturday, July 22 (10:00 p.m. ET). The 25-year-old is competing in the second Gold Cup of his career, having also represented the United States in the 2011 tournament. The Barnegat, N.J. native owns 26 career caps and has scored three goals in his international career. In the 2017 Gold Cup, Agudelo made one start against Martinique on July 12, and has made two additional substitute appearance against Panama on July 8 and Nicaragua on July 15.

Rowe earned three Starting XI selections from Head Coach Bruce Arena in his debut spell with the USMNT. The Federal Way, Wash. native made his debut in the stars and stripes during a friendly against Ghana on July 1 before making two starts in the Group Stage of the Gold Cup. Rowe started in the USMNT's first Gold Cup match against Panama on July 8 and delivered an assist for the squad's lone goal. He then scored his first international goal with a clever right-footed finish against Nicaragua on July 15.

REVS, ARBELLA INSURANCE TO HOST THIRD ANNUAL BOWL FOR A GOAL

The New England Revolution Charitable Foundation will host its hallmark annual event – Bowl for a Goal presented by Arbella Insurance (#Bowl-foraGoal) – on Wednesday, July 26 from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. ET at Splitsville Luxury Lanes in Patriot Place. Bowl for a Goal gives fans the opportunity to spend an evening with their favorite Revolution players, coaches, on-air talent, and local celebrities. All profits from the evening of entertainment, food, prizes, and bowling will benefit Special Olympics Massachusetts.

Emceed by the voice of the Revolution, Brad Feldman, the event will feature a live performance by Massachusetts native and country music artist Timmy Brown, who won the 2016 New England Country Music Award for Male Artist of the Year. Bowl for a Goal will also provide music from DJ Vanessa Salvucci, complimentary food and drinks, various activities for adults and children, and a silent auction and raffle.

In each of the last two years, the Revolution raised more than $60,000 for Special Olympics Massachusetts through Bowl for a Goal.

THE CHOSEN JUAN: AGUDELO ON PACE FOR CAREER YEAR

Forward Juan Agudelo enters the second half of the season on pace for a banner year, scoring seven goals in 15 league appearances to date. Despite missing two matches to injury and two more for international duty, he remains tied for the team lead in goals. Agudelo is currently with the U.S. Men's National Team for the 2017 CONCACAF Gold Cup and appeared in all three games of the group stage, including a start against Martinique on July 12.

Agudelo matched his previous Revolution-career high of seven goals – a mark he also reached in 2013, 2015, and 2016 – after finding the back of the net on June 3 vs. Toronto FC. In just 29 minutes as a second-half substitute in that match against TFC, he submitted both a goal and an assist.

Dating back to 2016, the 24-year-old has 13 goals in his last 23 appearances across all competitions. He closed last season with four goals and three assists over New England's final seven matches. Agudelo is particularly dangerous at home with eight goals and one assist in his last nine appearances at Gillette Stadium.

Now in his fourth campaign with the Revolution, Agudelo is beginning to etch himself into the club's record books as well. In his Revs career, he has scored 0.50 goals per 90 minutes and boasts a scoring percentage of 18.5 percent, both second best in club history. He is currently in eighth place on New England's all-time goal scoring chart with 28 goals.

WATSON LEADS JAMAICA INTO GOLD CUP KNOCKOUT STAGE

Revolution defender Je-Vaughn Watson is also participating in the knockout round of this year's Gold Cup. The Jamaican international started and played 90 minutes in central midfield in all three of the Reggae Boyz' group stage matches, which included a 2-0 win against Curacao and a draw against Mexico. In the Reggae Boyz's win against Curacao on July 9, he registered an assist on Romario Williams' 58th minute game-winning goal.

Watson is participating in the third Gold Cup of his career. The 33-year-old also played for the Reggae Boyz in the 2011 and 2015 Gold Cup tournaments.

The seven-year MLS veteran owns 67 career caps, including several of them as captain, to go along with more than 150 MLS appearances.

2016 TEAM MVP ROWE SHOWCASES VERSATILITY

Revolution midfielder Kelyn Rowe has earned his reputation as the most versatile player on the Revs' roster. The club's 2016 Team MVP made his eighth career start on the back line and his sixth start at left back in the Revs' match against New York City FC on May 31. When Rowe starts in defense, the Revolution are 3-1-4 with four clean sheets.

This season, Rowe also started at left back in the team's shutout victory against Houston on April 8, and its draw with D.C. United on April 22. Rowe's first three starts in defense came last season, when he logged minutes at every position except for center back and goalkeeper.

Rowe made two starts at right back on May 14, 2016 vs. Chicago and Aug. 24, 2016 vs. San Jose, and one at left back on Oct. 23, 2016 vs. Montreal.

TEAM NOTES

FLOODGATES OPEN FOR FAGUNDEZ

After being held scoreless through the first 10 contests of 2017, midfielder Diego Fagundez has seen his productivity pick up over the last two months. The Homegrown Player has recorded four goals and one assist in his last seven MLS appearances with New England. He added another tally in New England's U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 win against D.C. United on June 28, curling a free kick past Travis Worra from about 20 yards out. After recording a brace against Columbus on May 21 for the second time of his career, Fagundez spoke about building off his first goal.

"It's one of those crazy things. I don't know why, but the first one is always the hardest for me." Fagundez said, "But once the first one comes, my confidence boosts and that second and third will come. So now I just have to keep playing the same way I've been playing. Nothing changes, I just have to help out the team out as much as possible and when I get those chances, I need to finish them."

Fagundez has shown his ability to be not only a goal scorer, but a goal creator this season. With four goals and five assists, he joins Lee Nguyen (seven goals, seven assists) and Kei Kamara (four goals, three assists) on the list of Revolution players with at least three goals and three assists on the year.

FARRELL, NGUYEN AMONG MLS IRON MEN

Two Revolution players – defender Andrew Farrell and midfielder Lee Nguyen – rank in the top five among all MLS field players in minutes played dating back to the beginning of the 2015 season. Both players also rank among the top 10 in games played, as do midfielders Kelyn Rowe and Scott Caldwell.

Farrell, who is only five minutes shy of becoming the ninth player in Revolution history to eclipse 13,000 minutes played, ranks second among all MLS field players in minutes played dating back to the start of the 2014 season (10,142). He trails only Michael Parkhurst (10,435) in that category.

KOUASSI SHOWS CLOUT IN MIDFIELD

After making his MLS and Revolution debut against FC Dallas on March 18, midfielder and Designated Player Xavier Kouassi has become a dynamic force in the club's midfield. Kouassi has made 12 appearances with 10 starts on the season and played all 90 minutes in nine of 10 contests from April 2 to May 27. Perhaps his biggest moment to date came against NYCFC on May 31, when he equalized in the 86th minute and sealed an away point for the Revs despite suffering a quad injury just minutes earlier.

The 27-year-old has shown his ability to be an effective two-way player by cutting down the opposing attack and quickly transitioning to the Revolution going forward with numbers. Kouassi's 33 interceptions are currently tied for the sixth most among MLS midfielders.

Kouassi also currently ranks third on the team in passing accuracy (85.30) among all players with at least 200 pass attempts, trailing only Scott Caldwell (86.92) and Antonio Delamea (86.54). Those passes have been especially dangerous in the final third, as his accuracy rate for passes into that area is second on the team at 76.06 percent.

NGUYEN SECOND IN MLS IN CHANCES CREATED

Midfielder Lee Nguyen has been a key driver of the New England attack this season. The only Revolution player to start every match so far this season, he currently ranks tied for first on the team with seven goals and is tied for seventh among all MLS players with seven assists on the season. In addition, Opta has Nguyen ranking second in the league with 56 chances created, only one behind MLS leader Sacha Kljestan.

With his assist on May 31 at New York City, Nguyen joined former Revolution player and all-time MLS assists leader Steve Ralston (42 goals, 73 assists) as the only players in Revs history with at least 40 goals and 40 assists. Nguyen has 47 goals and 41 assists in 179 career MLS appearances.

DELAMEA THRIVING IN DEBUT MLS SEASON

The Revolution opened the 2017 MLS season with a fresh look in central defense, led by newcomer Antonio Delamea. The Slovenian has wasted no time adjusting to his new surroundings as he leads all Revolution field players with 1,609 minutes played. He also ranks ninth among MLS players in interceptions (44), seventh in clearances (94), and 12th in headed clearances (42).

The 25-year-old's contributions have been quickly noted by the rest of the League and his home country. Delamea earned back-to-back selections to MLSsoccer.com's Team of the Week, first garnering recognition after stifling a dangerous Portland Timbers' attack in a 1-1 draw on April 2. He also opened his MLS scoring account with a headed finish against Chicago on June 17.

Delamea's performance in MLS earned him a second career call-up to the Slovenia national team for its World Cup Qualifier against Malta. Delamea made his first international start and played all 90 minutes of the 2-0 win.

TEAM NOTES

CALDWELL & FAGUNDEZ LEADERS IN HOMEGROWN MINUTES

Midfielder Diego Fagundez made history in the 15th minute of the April 8 contest against the Houston Dynamo. The seventh-year pro became the first MLS Homegrown field player to reach 10,000 career minutes. On May 6 at Columbus, midfielder Scott Caldwell – the second Homegrown Player signing in Revs history – also eclipsed the milestone. The pair remain the only two Homegrown field players to reach the mark, as the only other Homegrown player to do so is goalkeeper Bill Hamid (D.C. United).

After signing his first professional contract at just 15 years old, Fagundez is now a leader on the team at only 22. He is the second-longest tenured member of the Revolution behind Chris Tierney and is currently in the midst of an impressive run of form, with four goals in his last seven games.

Caldwell has shone as a beacon of consistency in the Revolution midfield, where he has played at least 2,000 minutes in three of his four complete professional seasons. His performance two seasons ago led to Revolution fans and teammates voting him their MVP and Players' Player of the Year for the 2015 MLS season.

KOFFIE IMPACTFUL IN RETURN TO REVS

Midfielder Gershon Koffie joined the Revolution on loan from Hammarby IF (Sweden) for the remainder of the 2017 MLS season on May 8 and picked up right where he left off in 2016. Koffie made his 2017 MLS debut as a halftime substitute against Columbus on May 21 and saw 45 minutes of action in the Revs' 2-1 win. He has started all seven of New England's matches since and has reinstated his physical presence in central midfield.

His performance this season earned the 25-year-old his first career call up to Ghana's national team. Koffie was available on the bench for Ghana's friendlies against Mexico on June 28 and vs. the United States on July 1.

With the New England Revolution last season, Koffie made 22 appearances, 19 starts, and contributed a career-high four assists. The midfielder was named to the MLSsoccer.com Team of the Week twice for his performances. Through the first month of the 2017 season, Koffie made three appearances across all competitions for Hammarby, starting two games as a defensive midfielder.

SUMMER STRETCH AT HOME KEY FOR REVS

Maximizing points at home is key to success in MLS, and with seven of 11 MLS contests at home between May 13 and July 29, the Revolution know the club's stretch of home games is critical. New England enjoyed an 11-game unbeaten run (9-0-2) at Gillette Stadium that began on Sept. 3, 2016 vs. the Colorado Rapids and ended with a loss to the Chicago Fire on June 17. The Revs' 11-game home unbeaten run was the third longest in club history.

Throughout nearly all of Head Coach Jay Heaps' tenure, Gillette Stadium has provided one of the League's best home-field advantages. Since 2013, New England has totaled 42 wins at home, fifth most in MLS.

Most Home Wins in MLS: 2013-Present

Rank	Club	Venue	Wins

KAMARA SCORES NO. 90, CLAIMS 10TH SPOT ALL-TIME

Forward Kei Kamara entered the 2017 season with an eye on the all-time goal scoring list. He broke through into the top 10 in League history in goals scored on May 13 vs. Real Salt Lake, when he tallied his 89th and tied Carlos Ruiz. On May 31 at New York City, Kamara scored the 90th of his career, surpassing Ruiz and claiming sole possession of 10th place on the all-time goals scored list.

He currently ranks second among active MLS players in goals scored, trailing only San Jose's Chris Wondolowski, who has registered 128 career goals in MLS regular season play.

GILLETTE TO HOST UCL FINALIST JUVENTUS, ROMA IN ICC

On Sunday, July 30th, Gillette Stadium will host AS Roma and UEFA Champions League finalist Juventus F.C. for an International Champions Cup contest. The match is set to kick off at 4:00 p.m. ET and will be broadcast nationally on ESPN.

Juventus F.C. fell just short of the treble as it recently secured its sixth consecutive Serie A title and won Coppa Italia, defeating Lazio in the final. Juventus also advanced to UEFA Champions League Final, but fell to Cristiano Ronaldo and Spanish powerhouse Real Madrid.

Gillette Stadium has hosted 36 international soccer matches since 2002 at both the club and national team level. Most recently, it hosted three matches during Copa America Centenario in 2016, which featured South American national teams including Argentina, Brazil, and Chile. Juventus F.C. previously played a friendly against Spanish side FC Barcelona at Gillette Stadium on July 27, 2003. AS Roma has not played a match at Gillette Stadium.

JAY HEAPS HEAD COACH

Jay Heaps is in his sixth season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after becoming the sixth head coach in club history on Nov. 14, 2011. The Nashua, N.H. native and Longmeadow, Mass. product has led the Revs to three MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including a trip to MLS Cup in 2014, and to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

With his appointment in 2011, Heaps brought his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days to the bench: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, and passion. He is the first former Revs player and the only New England native to coach the club.

In 2016, Heaps led the Revolution to the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final – the 10th major tournament final in club history. In regular season play, Heaps oversaw the implementation of Designated Player Kei Kamara, who was acquired in a midseason trade, and helped players such as Juan Agudelo, Kelyn Rowe, and Brad Knighton flourish. After Heaps instituted a 4-4-2 formation late in the season, the team won five out of seven MLS games to close the season.

Heaps was named head coach after an 11-year MLS playing career that included nine seasons with the Revolution. He anchored the club's defense from 2001-09, making 243 appearances and 238 starts, both the third most in club history. After his retirement, Heaps remained close to the club as an ambassador and color analyst on both its television and radio broadcasts, while also working in the investment banking industry.

After earning MLS Rookie of the Year honors with the Miami Fusion in 1999, Heaps returned to his hometown club in June 2001 through a trade. During the next nine seasons in New England, he cemented his legacy as not only a fan favorite, but also a driving leader on the field and in the locker room during the team's run of four MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005-07). He is one of three Revolution players to start in each of the club's first four MLS Cup appearances and was also a member of the Revolution squads that won the 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and the 2008 North American Super-Liga titles. Heaps has participated in all but one of New England's 10 final appearances as a player or coach, including all three of its Open Cup Finals.

At the time of his retirement in 2009, Heaps held the distinction of being the longest-tenured Revolution player in the team's history. When he left the team, Heaps was the club's all-time leader in games played (243), starts (238), and minutes played (21,619). He also ranked fifth on the Revs' career assist chart (26) and had totaled nine career goals. In MLS record books, Heaps was ranked eighth all-time in MLS in games played (314), fourth in starts (299), and third in minutes played (27,363) at the time of his retirement. He concluded his playing career with 17 goals and 34 assists overall.

Heaps made at least 27 regular season appearances in each of his 11 professional seasons. Despite his physical playing style and fearless nature, Heaps missed just three games due to injury during more than eight seasons with the Revolution, making him one of the most durable and reliable players in MLS history.

Honored as the Revolution's Defender of the Year for in 2009, Heaps was rewarded for his stellar play with a call-up to the U.S. Men's National Team for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup. He went on to earn all four caps on his USMNT résumé during the tournament, including his international debut on July 11, 2009 against Haiti in front of his hometown crowd at Gillette Stadium. Heaps is also a former member of the U.S. Under-17 and Under-20 National Teams.

Heaps played collegiately at Duke, where he won the 1998 Missouri Athletic Club Award as the national player of the year. He was a three-time finalist for the Hermann Trophy, a four-time first-team All-ACC selection, and a four-time all-region choice. He left Duke's program ranked third in career goals (45), fourth in career assists (37), and tied for second in career points (127). In addition to earning Soccer America's National Freshman of the Year honors in 1995, Heaps also played three-and-a-half years of basketball under legendary Duke and USA Basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski before leaving midway through his senior year to pursue a professional soccer career. He was named one of Duke's "Top-10 Devils of the Decade" by the Duke Chronicle.

In addition to earning his USSF "A" Coaching License in March 2014, Heaps accrued three years of collegiate coaching experience during his MLS playing days with the Revolution. In 2004, he was a volunteer assistant coach at Boston College under Ed Kelly as the Eagles went 13-5-2 and advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament. He followed that with a two-year stint (2005-06) at Northeastern under Brian Ainscough in the same capacity.

TOM SOEHN
ASSISTANT COACH

Tom Soehn is in his fourth season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Jay Heaps' staff in January 2014.

Soehn has 13 years of MLS coaching experience as both a head coach and assistant, including three seasons with the Chicago Fire and six seasons with D.C. United. The Chicago, Ill. native began his coaching career as an assistant coach with his hometown club, the Chicago Fire, where he was Bob Bradley's first assistant in 2001 and 2002. Soehn moved to D.C. United in 2004, where he served as Peter Nowak's top assistant, helping the Black and Red win MLS Cup in 2004 and the 2006 Supporters Shield. He was promoted to head coach ahead of the 2007 season and led D.C. to a second straight Supporters Shield. In 2008, he guided D.C. to a U.S. Open Cup championship and into the group stage of the 2008-09 and 2009-10 CONCACAF Champions League tournaments.

In January 2010, Soehn was appointed as Vancouver Whitecaps FC's first Director of Soccer Operations, where he developed and managed the club's inaugural roster, player scouting, and identification and recruitment system as the club prepared to enter MLS in 2011. Soehn returned to the bench in late May 2011 and coached the team for the remainder of its debut season after head coach Teitur Thordarson was released. In 2012, he returned to the front office to direct soccer operations, helping craft the Whitecaps FC team that qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs – the first ever Canadian team to do so.

Before pursuing coaching, Soehn enjoyed a 13-year professional playing career as a defender and midfielder from 1998-2000. He played in both indoor and outdoor professional leagues during his career, including four seasons in MLS with the Dallas Burn (now FC Dallas) and the Chicago Fire. After being selected in the second round (13th overall) of the MLS Inaugural Player Draft in February 1996, Soehn saw his first action with Dallas in 1997 and helped the club win the U.S. Open Cup title.

CARLOS LLAMOSA
ASSISTANT COACH

Carlos Llamosa is in his first season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining the club's staff in December 2016. Llamosa, 47, has been a mainstay in North American soccer over the past two decades, having enjoyed a 15-year career in MLS as a player and a coach, as well as an additional four years coaching in the North American Soccer League.

He arrives in New England following four seasons as an assistant coach for the New York Cosmos (2013-16), a span in which he helped guide the club to three NASL Soccer Bowl Championships. Before joining New York, Llamosa spent four seasons as an assistant coach with Chivas USA in MLS from 2009-12.

Llamosa's appointment marks a homecoming for the former MLS player, who enjoyed an 11-year career as one of the league's premier defenders. He spent nearly four years with New England from 2002 to 2005, appearing in 38 games, starting 36, for the club from 2002-03 before missing the 2004 season with a knee injury. In the postseason, he made eight additional appearances for the Revolution. Llamosa was a major contributor in the club's run to the 2002 MLS Cup, as he started five matches during the postseason including the final.

He totaled 154 career MLS appearances, 142 starts, three goals, and four assists in stints with D.C. United (1997-2000), Miami Fusion (2001), New England, and Chivas USA (2006-07). With D.C., he helped the club to three straight MLS Cup appearances from 1997-99, including championships in 1997 and 1999. Prior to MLS, Llamosa played professionally in Colombia with Colmena (1986-88) and Atlético Huila (1989-90) before immigrating to the United States in 1991. He began his U.S. career with the New York Centaurs of the A-League in 1995 before being selected by D.C. United in the 1997 MLS Supplemental Draft.

A native of Palmira, Colombia, Llamosa became a United States citizen in 1991 and was capped 29 times with the U.S. Men's National team. He played in the 1999 Confederations Cup and 2002 World Cup, appearing in wins against Portugal and Mexico in the latter.

REMI ROY
ASSISTANT COACH

Remi Roy is in his eighth season with the New England Revolution as an assistant coach, having joined the coaching staff in 2010. In addition to working primarily with the first-team keepers, Roy also manages the club's collegiate scouting efforts and provides additional training for the Revolution Academy's goalkeepers.

During his time with the Revolution, Roy has mentored several different goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in MLS. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins. He also tutored rookie Matt Turner through seven starts in USL action in 2016, a stretch in which he conceded only three goals. He also worked with MLS newcomer Cody Cropper after he was acquired during the 2016 campaign, leading to a shutout victory in his MLS debut in the season finale.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07). Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).
