THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Head Coach Jay Heaps, forward Teal Bunbury, and defender Chris Tierney had to say ahead of Saturday's match vs. the Montreal Impact. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net.

New England Revolution Head Coach Jay Heaps

On the comprehensive performance against Orlando City last Saturday:
Coach Heaps: "It's important that we continue to keep that focus. I think for 90 minutes, we were focused. [It was] a good week leading into it, as I mentioned in the press conference after the game. I thought we had a good week of training, but it wasn't just about the training, it was about how the guys focused and really kept each other in line and really on task. I think that's what we need to do, have another good week like that and prepare for a really good Montreal team."

New England Revolution Forward Teal Bunbury

On building off last weekend's win against Orlando:
Bunbury: "It's a huge confidence boost for us. These games are super important. We're taking it like they're all playoff games. We're playing essentially all Eastern Conference teams, so they are six-point swings and we can take some points away from teams that might be ahead of us right now in the standings. It was a huge win and just a great performance overall for 90 minutes."

New England Revolution Defender Chris Tierney

On closing the gap with Montreal on the Eastern Conference table:
Tierney: "It's pretty simple math. At this point in the year, we need three points. We can't afford to have them take any points. A pretty simple equation here - we need a W and anything less, it's not going to be good enough."

WHAT TO WATCH FOR vs. MONTREAL

- New England reaching at least 10 home wins in a season for the first time since 2014 and the fifth time overall. With four home games remaining, the Revolution need two more wins at Gillette Stadium to match the club record of 11 home victories (2014 and 1997).

Individual:

- F Teal Bunbury scoring his seventh goal since the beginning of July. His six goals since the turn of July are the third most in MLS during that span.

- M Diego Fagundez scoring two goals to become the fifth player in club history to record 40 goals as a Revolution player.
- M Gershon Koffie making the 150th regular season start of his MLS career.
- D Chris Tierney (456) delivering one more corner kick to pass Steve Ralston for the all-time club record.

WHEN THE REVS SCORE, BOSTON SCORES

The Revolution and Boston SCORES have teamed up through the "Revs Score, Boston SCORES" initiative to assist under-resourced youth in the greater Boston area. For every goal the Revolution score at Gillette Stadium this season, the New England Revolution Charitable Foundation will contribute $100, which equates to the cost of one week of programming for a child. Through 13 home games in 2017, the Revs have raised $3,300 for Boston SCORES, or 33 weeks of programming.

The collaboration, which began in October 2016, expands player involvement with youth in Boston SCORES' after-school program through Academy-run soccer clinics and participation in SCORES' Service Learning Projects.

In addition, the 13th annual SCORES Cup at Gillette Stadium on July 15 raised over $320,000 for Boston SCORES. In partnership with the Revolution, the corporate charity soccer tournament brought over 600 players and more than 50 sponsors together for the record-breaking fundraising event.

For every Revolution goal scored at Gillette Stadium this season, the New England Revolution Charitable Foundation will contribute $100 per goal to BOSTON SCORES.

KAMARA BAGS FIRST HAT TRICK, 100TH TOTAL MLS GOAL

Forward Kei Kamara registered the first hat trick of his 11-year MLS career in the Revolution's decisive 4-0 win against Orlando City SC on Sept. 2. For his efforts, Kamara was voted Alcatel MLS Player of the Week for Week 26 and named to MLSsoccer.com's Team of the Week for the third time in 2017.

Kamara's first goal of the evening, a right-footed volley in the 26th minute, was the 100th combined regular season and postseason goal of his MLS career. The Sierra Leone international became the 12th player in league history to eclipse the 100 total goals mark.

With seven games remaining on the Revolution's regular season docket, Kamara has a chance to reach another major milestone: 100 regular season goals. He is three goals shy of becoming the 10th player in league history to reach the triple-digit mark in regular season play. With 100 tallies, he would move into a tie with Edson Buddle for ninth place in the MLS record books.

ALL-TIME MLS REGULAR SEASON LEADERS: GOALS SCORED

Rank	Player	GP	GS	Goals
7.	Dwayne De Rosario	343	274	104
8.	Taylor Twellman	174	163	101
9.	Edson Buddle	304	220	100
10.	Kei Kamara	279	230	97

Kamara's hat trick was the 10th in Revolution history and the first since Zack Schilawski tallied a triple on April 10, 2010 against Toronto FC. In New England's last four home games, Kamara has scored seven goals and pulled into pole position in the team's Golden Boot race.

TEAL'S TORRID RUN CONTINUES

Dating back to the beginning of July, forward Teal Bunbury has emerged as one of MLS' hottest goal scorers. Bunbury boasts six goals in New England's last eight games, his latest coming in second-half stoppage time on Sept. 2 vs. Orlando City SC. His six goals since the turn of July are the third most in MLS over that span.

The forward's production exploded once he opened his 2017 account on July 5 against New York. In the team's next match against LA on July 22, he entered the match as a second-half substitute and recorded the first brace of his Revolution career with two goals in a four-minute span. Bunbury also scored New England's lone goals in back-to-back games against Vancouver on Aug. 12 and New York City on Aug. 20.

By potting his sixth goal of the season on Sept. 2, the U.S. international set a new Revolution-career high. The total is his most since scoring nine times for Sporting Kansas City in 2011.

NGUYEN-ING FORMULA: LEE MAKES HISTORY WITH 4 ASSISTS

Midfielder Lee Nguyen etched his name into the MLS record books with his four-assist effort against Orlando City SC on Sept. 2. Nguyen tied the MLS record and set a new club mark for the most assists in a single game. He is now one of five players in league history to record four assists in a match and the first to do it since Landon Donovan on Aug. 12, 2012 vs. Chivas USA.

Nguyen elevated his 2017 assists total to 14, which brings him level with Toronto FC's Victor Vazquez for the league lead. With eight goals on the year, Nguyen has now been involved in 22 total goals in 2017, the third most in MLS behind NYC's David Villa (28) and Portland's Diego Valeri (27). Nguyen also ranks fourth in MLS in chances created (CC).

2017 MLS LEADERS: ASSISTS

3.	Sacha Kljestan	NY	13	86
3.	Michael Barrios	DAL	13	51
5.	Albert Rusnak	RSL	11	73

Having logged at least 10 assists in each of the last three seasons, Nguyen's distribution places him in elite company in both Revolution history and recent MLS history. Here's a closer look at some facts on Nguyen's assist totals dating back to 2015:

- Nguyen's 34 assists dating back to 2015 are the third most in MLS during that span.
- Only two MLS players - Nguyen and Sacha Kljestan - have recorded at least 10 assists in each of the last three MLS seasons.
- Nguyen is the only Revolution player to record at least 10 assists in three different seasons. Steve Ralston is the only other Revs player with two such campaigns.
- He is also the only player in Revolution history with double-digit assists in consecutive seasons (now three straight from 2015-17).

TEAM NOTES

DIELNA DELIVERS IN FIRST THREE REVS APPEARANCES

On July 28, the New England Revolution signed defender and Designated Player Claude Dielna, a 29-year-old center back with more than 10 seasons of professional experience in France, England, Romania, and Slovakia. Dielna made his Revolution/MLS debut on Aug. 20 at NYCFC and has played all 270 minutes since. In his home debut on Sept. 2 vs. Orlando City SC, he anchored New England's back line to a clean sheet.

Following his debut against New York City, forward Teal Bunbury was effusive in his praise for Dielna's performance: "Coming into a new team, a new environment, a new culture, a new playing style probably for him, and I think he fit in just great. ... He's a special type of player."

In addition to his contributions along back line, teammates are also noting the veteran's vocal presence in the locker room. "He's a very vocal, physical presence," defender Andrew Farrell said. "I think he leads in practice and in the locker room and in games. It's something that I think we need more of and I'm glad to have that."

FINDING NEMO: KRISZTIÁN NÉMETH TALLIES ASSIST IN DEBUT

New England added another piece to its attacking group before the close of the secondary transfer window, acquiring former Sporting Kansas City forward and Hungarian international Krisztián Németh. After missing some time with a calf strain, Németh made his Revolution debut as a stoppage-time substitute on Sept. 2 vs. Orlando City SC and wasted no time making his presence felt, recording an assist on his second touch with the club.

The forward was officially acquired on Aug. 9 via a trade with Columbus Crew SC, which used its top position in the MLS Allocation Ranking Order to sign the forward before trading him to the Revolution in exchange for Targeted Allocation Money in 2018, General Allocation Money in 2018, and an international roster spot through the 2018 season.

Németh, 28, came to New England with over 12 seasons of professional experience and has now totaled 206 senior appearances, 62 goals, and 44 assists across all competitions in his club career. He most recently spent two seasons with Al-Gharafa SC of the top-flight Qatar Stars League, scoring 12 goals with five assists in 24 league appearances, including 22 starts.

A proven MLS goal scorer, Németh spent the 2015 season with Sporting Kansas City and totaled 16 goals and seven assists across all competitions, including five goals en route to the 2015 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title. He also has playing experience in Greece, Hungary, Netherlands, and England, where he signed for Liverpool FC at age 18 and starred for the Liverpool Reserves.

DELAMEA THRIVING IN DEBUT MLS CAMPAIGN

The Revolution opened the 2017 MLS season with a fresh look in central defense, led by newcomer Antonio Delamea. The Slovenian has settled in to his new surroundings seamlessly, as he ranks second among Revolution field players with 2,149 minutes played and ranks tied for seventh among MLS players in interceptions (55), fourth in clearances (129), and fourth in headed clearances (64).

The 26-year-old's contributions have been noted by the rest of the League and his home country. Delamea continues to be a regular member of Slovenia's squad in its qualifying cycle, recently earning a third career call up to the national team for its pair of World Cup Qualifying matches. Delamea was an unused substitute for both of Slovenia's World Cup Qualifying matches on Sept. 1 and Sept. 4, but previously made his first international start in a World Cup Qualifier on June 10 against Malta and played all 90 minutes in the 2-0 win. He owns two caps in his senior international career.

Delamea also earned back-to-back selections to MLSsoccer.com's Team of the Week in Weeks 4 and 5 of this season. He later opened his MLS scoring account with a headed finish against Chicago on June 17.

FORTRESS FOXBOROUGH: HOME RESULTS KEY FOR REVS

Maximizing points at home is critical for the Revolution as the 2017 season enters its final stretch. New England has been extremely efficient at Gillette Stadium both this season and in recent history, which bodes well for the team's playoff push.

Through 13 home games this season, the Revs own a 9-2-2 record (29 pts.) with 33 goals scored (2.54 goals per game). New England enjoyed an 11-game unbeaten run (9-0-2) at Gillette Stadium that began on Sept. 3, 2016 vs. the Colorado Rapids and ended with a loss to the Chicago Fire on June 17. The Revs' 11-game home unbeaten run was the third longest in club history.

Throughout nearly all of Head Coach Jay Heaps' tenure, Gillette Stadium has provided one of the League's best home-field advantages. Since 2013, New England has totaled 46 wins at home, the fourth most in MLS.

MOST HOME WINS IN MLS: 2013-PRESENT

Rank	Club	Venue	Wins
1.	New York Red Bulls	Red Bull Arena	54
2.	FC Dallas	Toyota Stadium	52
3.	Seattle Sounders FC	CenturyLink Field	51
4.	New England Revolution	Gillette Stadium	46
5.	LA Galaxy	StubHub Center	45

The Revolution have been particularly dominant at home in the month of September. New England has lost only two games at Gillette Stadium in September over the decade. The club's home record in September dating back to 2008 is 13-2-6.

TEAM NOTES

AGUDELO ON PACE FOR CAREER YEAR

Forward Juan Agudelo enters the final stretch of the regular season on pace for a banner year, having scored eight goals in 21 league appearances to date. Despite missing two matches due to injury and three more for international duty, where he helped the U.S. Men's National Team raise the 2017 CONCACAF Gold Cup trophy, Agudelo ranks tied for second on the team with eight goals.

Agudelo added his eighth tally in his first appearance back from the 2017 Gold Cup on July 29 vs. Philadelphia. The headed finish propelled him past his previous Revolution-career high of seven goals – a mark he also reached in 2013, 2015, and 2016. One more tally will match his overall career high of nine goals set in 2013 with both New England and Chivas USA.

Dating back to 2016, the 24-year-old has 14 goals in his last 29 appearances across all competitions. Agudelo is particularly dangerous at home with nine goals and one assist in his last 11 appearances at Gillette Stadium.

Now in his fourth campaign with the Revolution, Agudelo is beginning to etch himself into the club's record books. In his Revs career, he has scored 0.47 goals per 90 minutes and boasts a scoring percentage of 18.2 percent, both second best in club history. He is currently in eighth place on New England's all-time goal scoring chart with 29 goals.

CALDWELL & FAGUNDEZ LEADERS IN HOMEGROWN MINUTES

Midfielder Diego Fagundez made history in the 15th minute of the April 8 contest against the Houston Dynamo. The seventh-year pro became the first MLS Homegrown field player to reach 10,000 career minutes. On May 6 at Columbus, midfielder Scott Caldwell – the second Homegrown Player signing in Revs history – became the second Homegrown field player to eclipse the milestone. D.C. United goalkeeper Bill Hamid was the first Homegrown to reach the mark.

After signing his first professional contract at just 15 years old, Fagundez is now a leader on the team at only 22. He is the second-longest tenured member of the Revolution behind Chris Tierney (10 years) and has been a major contributor this season with four goals, seven assists, and 26 shots on goal.

Caldwell has shone as a beacon of consistency in the Revolution midfield. He currently leads the team in passing accuracy at 86.63 percent and ranks fourth on the Revs with 693 completed passes. He also has five assists in 2017, tied for his career high (2015). Caldwell's performance two seasons ago led to Revolution fans and teammates voting him their MVP and Players' Player of the Year for the 2015 MLS season.

ROWE'S VERSATILITY WITH REVS EARNS USMNT DEBUT

Revolution midfielder Kelyn Rowe has earned a reputation as one of Major League Soccer's most versatile players. The club's 2016 Team MVP made his 10th career start on the back line and his eighth career start at left back in New England's match at Chicago on Aug. 5. When Rowe starts in defense, the Revolution are 4-2-4 with five clean sheets.

This season, Rowe started at left back in two shutout victories vs. Houston on April 8 and vs. Philadelphia on July 29. His first three career starts in a defensive position all came last season, when he logged minutes at every position except for center back and goalkeeper. In 2016, Rowe made two starts at right back on May 14 vs. Chicago and Aug. 24 vs. San Jose, and one at left back on Oct. 23 vs. Montreal.

Rowe's ability to contribute from any position on the field helped him earn his first call up to the United States Men's National Team under Head coach Bruce Arena. The 25-year-old earned three starts in his debut spell with the USMNT in July 2017. The Federal Way, Wash. native earned his first international cap with the stars and stripes during a friendly against Ghana on July 1 before making two starts in the Group Stage of the CONCACAF Gold Cup. Rowe earned his first start in the USMNT's opening Gold Cup group stage match against Panama on July 8 and delivered an assist for the squad's lone goal. He then scored his first international goal against Nicaragua on July 15.

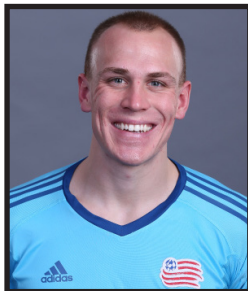

WATSON FEATURES FOR JAMAICA NATIONAL TEAM

Revolution defender Je-Vaughn Watson has been a key figure in Jamaican football in the last few years. He has led the Reggae Boyz to consecutive runner-up finishes in the CONCACAF Gold Cup, featuring as captain in several of those matches.

This year's Gold Cup marked the third of Watson's international career. The 33-year-old also played for the Reggae Boyz in the 2011 and 2015 Gold Cup tournaments. In the 2017 Gold Cup Final, the seventh-year MLS veteran scored Jamaica's lone goal against the United States and added an assist on Romario Williams' game-winning goal in Jamaica's 2-0 win against Curacao on July 9.

Watson, the owner of 71 career caps and four international goals, started for Jamaica in its friendly against Canada at BMO Field in Toronto on Sept. 2.

JAY HEAPS HEAD COACH

Jay Heaps is in his sixth season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after becoming the sixth head coach in club history on Nov. 14, 2011. The Nashua, N.H. native and Longmeadow, Mass. product has led the Revs to three MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including a trip to MLS Cup in 2014, and to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

With his appointment in 2011, Heaps brought his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days to the bench: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, and passion. He is the first former Revs player and the only New England native to coach the club.

In 2016, Heaps led the Revolution to the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final – the 10th major tournament final in club history. In regular season play, Heaps oversaw the implementation of Designated Player Kei Kamara, who was acquired in a midseason trade, and helped players such as Juan Agudelo, Kelyn Rowe, and Brad Knighton flourish. After Heaps instituted a 4-4-2 formation late in the season, the team won five out of seven MLS games to close the season.

Heaps was named head coach after an 11-year MLS playing career that included nine seasons with the Revolution. He anchored the club's defense from 2001-09, making 243 appearances and 238 starts, both the third most in club history. After his retirement, Heaps remained close to the club as an ambassador and color analyst on both its television and radio broadcasts, while also working in the investment banking industry.

After earning MLS Rookie of the Year honors with the Miami Fusion in 1999, Heaps returned to his hometown club in June 2001 through a trade. During the next nine seasons in New England, he cemented his legacy as not only a fan favorite, but also a driving leader on the field and in the locker room during the team's run of four MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005-07). He is one of three Revolution players to start in each of the club's first four MLS Cup appearances and was also a member of the Revolution squads that won the 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and the 2008 North American Super-Liga titles. Heaps has participated in all but one of New England's 10 final appearances as a player or coach, including all three of its Open Cup Finals.

At the time of his retirement in 2009, Heaps held the distinction of being the longest-tenured Revolution player in the team's history. When he left the team, Heaps was the club's all-time leader in games played (243), starts (238), and minutes played (21,619). He also ranked fifth on the Revs' career assist chart (26) and had totaled nine career goals. In MLS record books, Heaps was ranked eighth all-time in MLS in games played (314), fourth in starts (299), and third in minutes played (27,363) at the time of his retirement. He concluded his playing career with 17 goals and 34 assists overall.

Heaps made at least 27 regular season appearances in each of his 11 professional seasons. Despite his physical playing style and fearless nature, Heaps missed just three games due to injury during more than eight seasons with the Revolution, making him one of the most durable and reliable players in MLS history.

Honored as the Revolution's Defender of the Year for in 2009, Heaps was rewarded for his stellar play with a call-up to the U.S. Men's National Team for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup. He went on to earn all four caps on his USMNT résumé during the tournament, including his international debut on July 11, 2009 against Haiti in front of his hometown crowd at Gillette Stadium. Heaps is also a former member of the U.S. Under-17 and Under-20 National Teams.

Heaps played collegiately at Duke, where he won the 1998 Missouri Athletic Club Award as the national player of the year. He was a three-time finalist for the Hermann Trophy, a four-time first-team All-ACC selection, and a four-time all-region choice. He left Duke's program ranked third in career goals (45), fourth in career assists (37), and tied for second in career points (127). In addition to earning Soccer America's National Freshman of the Year honors in 1995, Heaps also played three-and-a-half years of basketball under legendary Duke and USA Basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski before leaving midway through his senior year to pursue a professional soccer career. He was named one of Duke's "Top-10 Devils of the Decade" by the Duke Chronicle.

In addition to earning his USSF "A" Coaching License in March 2014, Heaps accrued three years of collegiate coaching experience during his MLS playing days with the Revolution. In 2004, he was a volunteer assistant coach at Boston College under Ed Kelly as the Eagles went 13-5-2 and advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament. He followed that with a two-year stint (2005-06) at Northeastern under Brian Ainscough in the same capacity.

TOM SOEHN
ASSISTANT COACH

Tom Soehn is in his fourth season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Jay Heaps' staff in January 2014.

Soehn has 13 years of MLS coaching experience as both a head coach and assistant, including three seasons with the Chicago Fire and six seasons with D.C. United. The Chicago, Ill. native began his coaching career as an assistant coach with his hometown club, the Chicago Fire, where he was Bob Bradley's first assistant in 2001 and 2002. Soehn moved to D.C. United in 2004, where he served as Peter Nowak's top assistant, helping the Black and Red win MLS Cup in 2004 and the 2006 Supporters Shield. He was promoted to head coach ahead of the 2007 season and led D.C. to a second straight Supporters Shield. In 2008, he guided D.C. to a U.S. Open Cup championship and into the group stage of the 2008-09 and 2009-10 CONCACAF Champions League tournaments.

In January 2010, Soehn was appointed as Vancouver Whitecaps FC's first Director of Soccer Operations, where he developed and managed the club's inaugural roster, player scouting, and identification and recruitment system as the club prepared to enter MLS in 2011. Soehn returned to the bench in late May 2011 and coached the team for the remainder of its debut season after head coach Teitur Thordarson was released. In 2012, he returned to the front office to direct soccer operations, helping craft the Whitecaps FC team that qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs – the first ever Canadian team to do so.

Before pursuing coaching, Soehn enjoyed a 13-year professional playing career as a defender and midfielder from 1998-2000. He played in both indoor and outdoor professional leagues during his career, including four seasons in MLS with the Dallas Burn (now FC Dallas) and the Chicago Fire. After being selected in the second round (13th overall) of the MLS Inaugural Player Draft in February 1996, Soehn saw his first action with Dallas in 1997 and helped the club win the U.S. Open Cup title.

CARLOS LLAMOSA
ASSISTANT COACH

Carlos Llamosa is in his first season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining the club's staff in December 2016. Llamosa, 47, has been a mainstay in North American soccer over the past two decades, having enjoyed a 15-year career in MLS as a player and a coach, as well as an additional four years coaching in the North American Soccer League.

He arrives in New England following four seasons as an assistant coach for the New York Cosmos (2013-16), a span in which he helped guide the club to three NASL Soccer Bowl Championships. Before joining New York, Llamosa spent four seasons as an assistant coach with Chivas USA in MLS from 2009-12.

Llamosa's appointment marks a homecoming for the former MLS player, who enjoyed an 11-year career as one of the league's premier defenders. He spent nearly four years with New England from 2002 to 2005, appearing in 38 games, starting 36, for the club from 2002-03 before missing the 2004 season with a knee injury. In the postseason, he made eight additional appearances for the Revolution. Llamosa was a major contributor in the club's run to the 2002 MLS Cup, as he started five matches during the postseason including the final.

He totaled 154 career MLS appearances, 142 starts, three goals, and four assists in stints with D.C. United (1997-2000), Miami Fusion (2001), New England, and Chivas USA (2006-07). With D.C., he helped the club to three straight MLS Cup appearances from 1997-99, including championships in 1997 and 1999. Prior to MLS, Llamosa played professionally in Colombia with Colmena (1986-88) and Atlético Huila (1989-90) before immigrating to the United States in 1991. He began his U.S. career with the New York Centaurs of the A-League in 1995 before being selected by D.C. United in the 1997 MLS Supplemental Draft.

A native of Palmira, Colombia, Llamosa became a United States citizen in 1991 and was capped 29 times with the U.S. Men's National team. He played in the 1999 Confederations Cup and 2002 World Cup, appearing in wins against Portugal and Mexico in the latter.

REMI ROY
ASSISTANT COACH

Remi Roy is in his eighth season with the New England Revolution as an assistant coach, having joined the coaching staff in 2010. In addition to working primarily with the first-team keepers, Roy also manages the club's collegiate scouting efforts and provides additional training for the Revolution Academy's goalkeepers.

During his time with the Revolution, Roy has mentored several different goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in MLS. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins. He also tutored rookie Matt Turner through seven starts in USL action in 2016, a stretch in which he conceded only three goals. He also worked with MLS newcomer Cody Cropper after he was acquired during the 2016 campaign, leading to a shutout victory in his MLS debut in the season finale.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07). Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).
