On if it helps to have a quick turnaround to Saturday's match after the loss in Atlanta:

Coach Heaps: "We've just got to get on to the next game."

On how a midweek match influences his lineup decisions for Saturday:

Coach Heaps: "We're still assessing right now. We're sitting down with players and I think there will be changes for Saturday night."

On Sporting Kansas City:

Coach Heaps: "A very good team, a very good team at home. Also, [they have] guys that have been together for a while [and] they've added some good pieces. We have a big test ahead of us."

New England Revolution Forward Krisztián Németh

On if it helps to have a quick turnaround to Saturday's match after the loss in Atlanta:

Németh: "Yes, but we have to talk about what happened yesterday – talk about it and forget the other things and just concentrate for the next game against Sporting [Kansas City] and start to think about how we can get those three points."

On returning to play a familiar Sporting Kansas City team:

Németh: "It's of course not easy, because I played [for Sporting Kansas City my] first time here in the league, so appreciate everything the club did for me and of course happy to see the people who are my friends or I played with. I'm [looking forward] to the game to play against them, but of course, I play for New England now and it's important to take those three points for us now."

On why Sporting Kansas city is so strong at home:

Németh: "They have one of the best stadiums and fans in the league, I think, so that's always difficult to play in this stadium. I have the experience for that. We have to be concentrated and sharp in the game, and of course, they have their own style to play. They have a good team and we have to play well to beat them."

New England Revolution Midfielder Lee Nguyen

On if it helps to have a quick turnaround to Saturday's match after the loss in Atlanta:

Nguyen: "Absolutely, that was a tough game to swallow there, because the odds were against us from the get-go. Now, we've got Saturday to prepare for, so we know we've got to move on quickly."

On how quickly the team is moving on from Wednesday's match:

Nguyen: "It was a tough game. It was an uphill battle the whole time. It's great that we have a game on Saturday this weekend to move past that and we have to refocus on Kansas City now."

On Sporting Kansas City:

Nguyen: "They have a great style of play. They have a great system. Those guys who have been around, those vets, they know how to get the job done. We know it's going to be a tough battle, but again, we must get three points. We're playing with a little chip on our shoulder, so it's going to be a good game."
