Through the first 45 minutes of action, Toronto FC II entered intermission holding a 1-0 edge after breaking through in the 27th minute. Capitalizing on a transition opportunity, the hosts slipped a curling ball behind New England's backline, where Jahmarie Nolan ran onto the pass and one-touched the effort past a diving Max Weinstein.

Revolution II closed the first half with three total shots, with their best chance arriving in the 38th minute. Forward/winger Shuma Saaski slipped a pass to Cristiano Oliveira inside the box, and the Homegrown midfielder squared up for the attempt. However, Toronto goalkeeper Adisa De Rosario sprang off his line to smother the effort and preserve the lead.

New England entered the second half on the front foot and pulled level through Smith in the 53rd minute. Defender Gabe Dahlin worked the ball to the right flank, connecting with Homegrown defender Damario McIntosh. The 18-year-old juked a Toronto defender and drove to the endline before delivering a clipped cross into the box. Smith met the cross with a well-timed header, guiding the effort into the back of the net for his first professional goal. Dahlin and McIntosh each earned a helper on the tally, recording their fourth assists of the season, tying for the team lead.

With three minutes remaining in regulation, New England found the go-ahead goal through Morgan. Smith lofted a cross to the back post, finding forward Jayden Da. The Boston-born striker nodded a pass to Morgan, and the Canadian native met it with a scissor-kick finish to give Revolution II a 2-1 advantage. The goal marked the 21-year-old's sixth tally of the season, the 10th of his MLS NEXT Pro career.

In additional time, Oyirwoth added the insurance goal for New England, rounding out the 3-1 victory. Toronto misplaced a pass along the back line, and the midfielder read it perfectly to force the turnover. The Uganda international, scoring his first goal of the 2026 season, calmly rolled the ball onto his left foot and buried the finish.

New England returns to Beirne Stadium to open a three-match homestand, welcoming Philadelphia Union II on Sunday, July 5. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. ET and will stream live on MLSNEXTPro.com and the OneFootball platform.
