PRESS RELEASE

New England Revolution Retain U.S. International Goalkeeper Matt Turner

Veteran American goalkeeper with five career FIFA World Cup starts renews loan with New England as TAM-eligible player

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (July 13, 2026) – The New England Revolution extended the loan of American goalkeeper Matt Turner from French club Olympique Lyonnais (Lyon) through Dec. 31, 2026, with an option to extend the loan through Dec. 31, 2027, at which point the Revolution have a purchase option. Turner is a TAM-eligible player for New England.

Turner returns to New England from his second consecutive FIFA World Cup with the United States, where he made his fifth career start on the World Cup stage. The Park Ridge, N.J. native has recorded 27 clean sheets and 29 wins in his 55 senior caps for the U.S. Men's National team. In his MLS career, Turner has amassed 54 wins in 126 starts across eight seasons with New England, ranking second in club history in goalkeeper starts, goals against average, wins, saves, and save percentage. The 2021 MLS Goalkeeper of the Year, who was also named an MLS All-Star and Best XI selection in the Revolution's Supporters' Shield campaign, sits atop the New England goalkeeping charts with a .581 win percentage.

"We are thrilled to reach an agreement with Lyon that will allow us to keep Matt Turner in New England Revolution colors for years to come," said Chris Tierney, Revolution General Manager and Chief Soccer Officer. "Matt's performances on the pitch here in MLS or on the world stage with the U.S. Men's National Team speak for themselves. We firmly believe that Matt will continue to be the gold standard for MLS goalkeepers as he builds on his already impressive legacy with the Revolution."

Turner and the fourth-place Revolution will resume the 2026 MLS regular season with a two-game homestand at Gillette Stadium, beginning on Wednesday, July 22 vs. Toronto FC. About the New England Revolution

The New England Revolution, owned and operated by the Kraft family, began play in 1996 as one of the original founding clubs of Major League Soccer (MLS). Through 30 MLS seasons, the Revolution are five-time MLS Eastern Conference champions and claimed the 2021 Supporters' Shield after a record-setting campaign. The Revolution also won the 2008 North American SuperLiga and 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles. The Revolution play their home matches at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. The club and its acclaimed pro pathway, including Revolution II (MLS NEXT Pro) and the Revolution Academy, are headquartered at the Revolution Training Center, which opened ahead of the 2020 season.
