Revolution Acquire $300K in General Allocation Money from LA Galaxy

New England sends 2026 international roster spot to LA

General Allocation Money, or GAM, is one of several mechanisms MLS clubs deploy to add talent to the roster. In addition to the Salary Budget and the six prime roster spots that feature unlimited spending on up to three Designated Players and up to four U22 Initiative Spots, General Allocation Money can be used to sign or retain top talent. Along with the annual allotment of $3.28 million GAM provided to each team in 2026, clubs can acquire GAM in the following ways:

- Up to $3 million from eligible transfer revenue converted to GAM.
- Via trade with another MLS club.
- Qualifying for the CONCACAF Champions Cup.
- Failing to qualify for the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs.
- The 2025 third Designated Player charge distribution.
- Clubs can also receive up to an additional $2 million in 2026 GAM along with a fourth U22 Initiative Roster Spot if they select the U22 Initiative Roster Construction Path.
