POSTGAME NOTES: Revolution II Roll Past Red Bull New York II, 4-1

Forward/winger Myles Morgan's brace propels New England to four-match unbeaten run

LITTLE FALLS, N.J. (August 2, 2026) – New England Revolution II (10-4-6; 39 pts.) rolled past Red Bull New York II (9-8-4; 32 pts.), 4-1, on Sunday night at MSU Soccer Park. New England surged to its win with two goals on either side of halftime, featuring a brace from forward/winger Myles Morgan. Academy forward Matthew Jean Baptiste delivered a goal-and-assist outing, while midfielder Judah Siqueira added a finish of his own.

Revolution II grabbed a 1–0 lead in the 19th minute through Jean Baptiste, who supplied the early breakthrough. Midfielder Carlos Zambrano sparked the sequence by threading a pass through the Red Bulls' backline to find Homegrown midfielder Cristiano Oliveira. The Somerville, Mass. native whipped a cross into the box, and Baptiste met it cleanly with a volley for his third goal of the campaign, the third tally in his last four outings. Oliveira and Zambrano each earned their fifth assists of the season to share the team lead, with the latter etching his name on the scoresheet for the fourth consecutive match.

Morgan doubled the advantage in the 28th minute, pushing New England ahead 2–0. Zambrano again initiated the play with a long ball over the top that was first intercepted by a Red Bull II defender. However, Morgan's pressure forced a turnover, and after picking his pocket, the Canadian attacker drove toward goal and calmly slotted home his eighth tally of the season.

Revolution II carried their momentum straight into the second half, doubling their lead with two quick strikes inside the opening five minutes. In the 46th minute, Oliveira curled a cross into the box to connect with Jean Baptiste, whose on-frame effort was denied. The rebound fell to Siqueira, who buried the loose ball to extend the advantage to 3–0. Siqueira, an Easton, Mass. native, netted his second goal of the season.

Three minutes later, Morgan delivered a highlight-reel finish to secure his brace. Goalkeeper Donovan Parisian, who helped New England secure the win with three second-half saves, launched a long ball over the top that met the head of Jean Baptiste. The New Jersey native nodded a pass into Morgan's path, and the 21-year-old used his chest to settle before unleashing a driven strike that tucked into the upper-right corner, securing the second brace of his MLS NEXT Pro career. Parisian earned a secondary assist on the play, the first of his professional career.

After the hosts were reduced to 10 players in the 59th minute with Andy Rojas receiving a red card, Red Bull II pulled one back via free kick in the 79th minute. Omar Valencia sent a lofted ball into the box from outside New England's 18-yard-box to find Jason Bori, who headed the shot into the right side of the net, out of the reach of Parisian. Despite New England seeing a red card of its own in the 82nd minute, Revolution II's defense stood tall to preserve the victory, extending their unbeaten streak to four games and to seven consecutive road results.

Revolution II close their three-match road swing at CT United FC on Sunday, August 9. The match will kickoff at 4:00 p.m. ET at Reese Stadium and will stream live on MLSNEXTPro.com and the OneFootball platform.
