MLS NEXT PRO MATCH #22 REVOLUTION II VS. PHILADELPHIA UNION II

SUNDAY, AUG. 16 • 7:00 P.M. ET
BEIRNE STADIUM (SMITHFIELD, R.I.)

MATCH PREVIEW VS. PHILADELPHIA UNION II

Revolution II embark on Sunday's contest riding a five-game unbeaten run, most recently posting a 2-1 road victory at CT United FC last weekend. New England has spent its last three contests away from Beirne Stadium, improving to eight unbeaten road results, while owning one of the league's best away records, with just a single road loss, the second fewest in MLS NEXT Pro. New England returns to Beirne Stadium, having collected points in its last two home contests, including a 2-2 draw against Columbus Crew 2 on July 15 and a 3-0 win over New York City FC II on July 23.

Forward/winger Myles Morgan has been in stellar form this season, having scored the game-winning goal at CT United FC, his team-best 10th goal of the campaign. In his debut season with Revolution II, Morgan has become just the fourth player in club history to reach double-digit goals in a single campaign. The Canada native also ranks among the league's best attackers, with his 10 tallies tied for fifth most in MLS NEXT Pro this season, while his 61 shot attempts rank sixth. New England is 5-1-3 this season when Morgan finds the back of the net, including an unbeaten 2-0-2 mark at home.

Academy forward Matthew Jean Baptiste also continues to be a driving force among Revolution II's attack, with five goal contributions (4g, 1a) in his last five starts. Jean Baptiste, the MLS NEXT Rising Star of July, has scored in back-to-back matches, while his four goals this season rank third most on the team. Fellow attacker Carlos Zambrano has been red hot in the midfield, tallying his team-best sixth assist of the season last weekend. The Venezuelan has recently found his footing, recording five goal contributions (2g, 3a) in as many games, while his 24 successful crosses rank fifth leaguewide.

Revolution II continue to boast a talented roster of Academy graduates, including forward/winger Makai Wells, who signed his first professional contract last Sunday. Wells eyes his fourth straight start this weekend after registering one key pass and one shot attempt against CT United FC, while completing 100 percent of his passes in his 68-minute shift. Homegrown midfielder Cristiano Oliveira aims to add to his team-leading 32 key passes this season, having delivered two assists in his last three starts.

Fellow Academy product Judah Siqueira, an Easton, Mass. native, looks to find the scoresheet for his third straight outing on Sunday. New England could also see the return of midfielder Javaun Mussenden, who is fresh off a run to the Under-20 Concacaf Championship Final with the U.S. Under-19 National Team. The Academy graduate has been a mainstay in Revolution II's midfield this season, suiting up for 15 appearances, including 14 starts, with one goal and two assists.

Two of MLS NEXT Pro's strongest defensive sides will lock horns on Sunday, as Revolution II takes on Philadelphia Union II for the third time this season, with each side earning a win in the previous matchups. New England enters the weekend with the fewest goals conceded in the Eastern Conference (24), while Philadelphia closely trails with 29 goals allowed.

TEAM NOTES

REVOLUTION II SIGN ACADEMY FORWARD/WINGER MAKAI WELLS TO MLS NEXT PRO CONTRACT

New England Revolution II have signed Revolution Academy forward/winger Makai Wells to a one-year MLS NEXT Pro professional contract through June 30, 2027. Wells, 17, becomes the 17th player to sign a professional contract with Revolution II directly from the Revolution Academy.

Wells joined the Revolution Academy ahead of the 2025-26 MLS NEXT season, featuring for the Under-18 team while also appearing for Revolution II via an Amateur Agreement. In his sole season with New England's academy, the attacker recorded one goal and one assist. Prior to his time with the Revolution Academy, Wells was a standout for the Barca Residency Academy during the 2024-25 MLS NEXT season, netting 27 goals and adding seven assists.

A native of Washington, D.C., Wells made his professional debut with Revolution II on August 31, 2025. He has since made 12 MLS NEXT Pro appearances, including 10 starts, with one goal scored. Wells netted his first professional goal earlier this season, opening the scoring for Revolution II against FC Cincinnati 2 on March 15 en route to a 2-1 win.

On the international stage, Wells has suited up for the United States Under-17 squad. Wells has made four appearances for the Stars and Stripes in international friendlies, highlighted by a full 90-minute performance against Northern Ireland on October 11, 2025.

"Makai's rapid rise through our Pro Player Pathway is a direct reflection of his work ethic, professionalism, and the strength of the development environment we've built to prepare young, high-potential players for the professional level," said Senior Vice President of Soccer Operations Curt Onalfo. "He's embraced every challenge with maturity and a genuine desire to improve. We're proud of how far he's come and excited to see him take this next step in his career."

"Makai has consistently demonstrated the talent, discipline, and professionalism required to advance through our Pro Player Pathway," said Rob Becerra, Director of Youth Development. "His growth during his time in the Academy reflects his commitment to improving every day and is a testament to the competitive environment our Academy players create by constantly pushing one another to reach the next level. We're excited to support Makai as he begins this next chapter with Revolution II and look forward to watching his continued progression throughout his professional career."

Wells becomes the latest Revolution Academy product to enter the professional ranks through Revolution II, joining an accomplished group of Academy graduates that includes Peyton Miller, Malcolm Fry, Damarion McIntosh, Eric Klein, Cristiano Oliveira, and Javaun Mussenden. Since Revolution II's inaugural season in 2020, 55 Academy players have made their professional soccer debuts with New England's developmental team.

REVOLUTION ACADEMY GRADUATE JAVAUN MUSSENDEN REPRESENTS U.S. U-19S AT 2026 U-20 CONCACAF CHAMPIONSHIP

Revolution II midfielder Javaun Mussenden represented the United States Under-19s at the 2026 Concacaf Under-20 Championship in Mexico City from July 2 through Aug. 10. Mussenden made six appearances, including three starts, and logged 295 total minutes.

The Stars and Stripes opened play in Group A, sweeping all three of their matches. The Georgia native logged 19 minutes against Haiti's Under-20 squad on July 25, then added 21 minutes on July 28 against El Salvador's Under-20 team. To close out group play, the 18-year-old earned his first international start on July 31 against Cuba, playing a 43-minute shift at right back in a 5-0 win.

The United States advanced to the finals with wins in the quarter and semifinal matches, playing a 28-minute shift to help capture a 3-1 victory over Guatemala, before helping the team secure a 2-0 win over Costa Rica, starting at right back and playing all but five minutes. The Stars and Stripes ultimately fell 2-0 to Mexico in the final, with Mussenden once again earning the start along the backline and playing 79 minutes.

"For me the opportunity meant everything," said Mussenden. "It was always my dream to play in a tournament like that, in Concacaf. It's a great experience and a big tournament for the United States. Just to know that they trust me representing them and the badge definitely meant everything to me."

Despite the loss in the final, the USA earned berths to the 2027 FIFA U-20 World Cup and 2027 Pan American Games, with the tournament's top four teams securing qualification.

Across parts of three seasons with Revolution II, Mussenden has recorded two goals and four assists in 41 MLS NEXT Pro appearances, including 30 starts. A former member of the Revolution Academy's residency program, Mussenden has featured at both the U-17 and U-18 levels for New England. The Dallas, Ga. native tallied one goal and one assist with New England's U-18 squad during the 2025-26 MLS NEXT fall campaign.

MYLES MORGAN EARNS MLS NEXT PRO GOAL OF MATCHWEEK 22

Forward/winger Myles Morgan earned MLS NEXT Pro Goal of Matchweek 22, his second honor of the 2026 campaign.

Morgan had one of the most impressive offensive performances of his season against Red Bull New York II on August 2. The attacker scored a brace for just the second time in his professional career to help Revolution II roll to a dominant 4-1 win over their Eastern Conference rival.

For his first tally, Morgan used his pace to pressure the home side's backline and force a turnover. He then carried the ball toward goal and buried the finish. For his second goal of the match, Morgan unleashed a highlight-reel strike from outside the 18-yard box for New England's fourth goal.

The Canada native, who has found the scoresheet in five of New England's last eight matches, has wasted no time fitting into Revolution II Head Coach Pablo Moreira's style of play in his first year with the club. Morgan now has 11 goal contributions this season, powered by his team-leading 10 goals and one assist.

TEAM NOTES

MATTHEW JEAN BAPTISTE NAMED MLS NEXT RISING STAR OF JULY

At just 16 years old, Matthew Jean Baptiste hasn't only made his professional debut with New England Revolution II – he's started a red-hot run of form, scoring four goals in his last five games with the MLS NEXT Pro side.

Jean Baptiste currently plays for the Revolution Academy's U-16 team, joining the club this year after playing in the Red Bull New York Academy. In a matter of months, the young attacker has worked his way up from the U-16s to competing with the U-18s, and has now made eight appearances with Revolution II at the professional level. In his 512 minutes of MLS NEXT Pro play, he's logged four goals and one assist.

Jean Baptiste moved to New England to attend St. Paul's School, a boarding school in Concord, New Hampshire. During the school year, he was able to train with the academy two days a week – traveling two hours from New Hampshire to Foxborough. But the commitment wasn't just from Jean Baptiste – it was a family effort. To make it work, his parents would drive to New Hampshire from their home in New Jersey, to then take him to practice in Foxborough. Now on summer break, Jean Baptiste has moved into one of the Revolution residency homes, giving him the chance to train six days a week with the second team and be just minutes from practice rather than hours.

"Getting the call up to join the second team as school ended for the summer, it's been a really great start for my career and it's helped me grow a lot," he explained. "I had a lot to learn and over the course of the games and the hard trainings, the extensive days, I've really pushed myself to be on that same flow with the rest of the team and to prosper with the team. I think it's shown through the games."

Jean Baptiste's efforts haven't gone unnoticed. In July, he was named MLS NEXT Rising Star of the Month after scoring two goals in four games.

"For me, that really meant that my hard work has paid off. During an off day, I'm working to perfect my touch. I'm working on finishing in the box with coaches after training, doing those extra sprints, pushing myself harder in the gym. It's shown me that I just have to keep that hard work going. Rising Star of the Month is a good title, but as a team we have even bigger goals to shoot for," he said.

For Revolution II head coach Pablo Moreira, the recognition is by no means a finish line. Instead, it's fuel for the player that Jean Baptiste can continue to become.

"To be able to get him in those positions to score and to have assists, it takes a whole team. So, I was first and foremost so happy for the team to get recognized and then obviously so happy for him because it just gives him more incentive to continue working. If I'm honest, he's such a good kid. I've met his mother and father, and he's got a great upbringing. He doesn't need an individual award to keep that fire lit, but it does help," Moreira explained.

As Moreira emphasized, the success of an individual is in part due to the success of the team, and Revs II have found a lot of success this season. After finishing third in the East last season, with a playoff run cut short, the squad has their sights set on more. With just seven games left in the MLS NEXT Pro regular season, the team is currently third in the Eastern Conference standings as they look to secure a spot in postseason play.

For Moreira, for his team – and for Jean Baptiste – this is just the beginning.

"He's a raw talent, that's for sure. Since he has been able to come in and train with us six times a week, there's been a huge jump from the start of the summer in how he's been playing and sharpening his skills. For me, the sky's the limit for him," Moreira said.

REVOLUTION ACADEMY MIDFIELDER LOGAN AZAR COMPETED AT 2026 MLS NEXT ALL-STAR GAME

New England Revolution Academy midfielder Logan Azar competed in the 2026 MLS NEXT All-Star Game on Monday, July 27, earning a start for the Eastern Conference and logging 45 minutes in defensive midfield.

Fresh off a full 90-minute shift with Revolution II the night before – where he completed 100 percent of his passes to help New England secure a road point at FC Cincinnati 2 – the 16-year-old made the trip to Charlotte, N.C. ready for another high-level test.

The Hudson, Mass. native found his rhythm early, registering an assist just 10 minutes into the match. After winning a defensive challenge and stripping a Western Conference opponent, Azar drove forward and slipped a perfectly weighted ball behind the backline, connecting with Jamil Danjaji (Columbus Crew) for the East's second goal of the day.

Azar became the seventh Revolution Academy player to feature in the MLS NEXT All-Star Game, joining a group that includes Cristiano Oliveira (2025), Josh Macedo (2025), Damario McIntosh (2024), and Esmir Bajraktarević (2022), who recently competed in the 2026 FIFA World Cup with the Bosnia and Herzegovina Men's National Team.

NEW ENGLAND DOMINATES IN ITS ONLY GAME AT GILLETTE

In Revolution II's lone appearance at Gillette Stadium this season, New England delivered a commanding 3-0 victory over New York City FC II on July 23.

While Revolution II have enjoyed a strong home campaign at Bryant University's Beirne Stadium, owning a 6-3-3 record, the opportunity to play at Gillette Stadium provided an extra spark.

"Playing in the stadium and on the new turf was a special moment," said Revolution II head coach Pablo Moreira.

New England wasted little time taking advantage of the occasion, scoring all three goals before halftime. After NYCFC II scored an own goal, midfielder Carlos Zambrano doubled the lead with a stunning free-kick strike. Academy product Matthew Jean Baptiste capped the first-half outburst by picking a defender's pocket and calmly finishing his chance.

"It's a feeling that's hard to describe because we work so much that people don't see," said Zambrano about being able to play inside Gillette Stadium. "To come out here and show what we're actually about after [the] past two games. It's what we want to show the crowd for the next games. And playing here was a blessing, and we're also thankful for being able to be here."

Beyond the result, the afternoon gave the squad an opportunity to connect with the fans who created an energetic atmosphere at Gillette Stadium, making the experience even more memorable for the young group.

STAFF BIOS

PABLO MOREIRA

HEAD COACH

Pablo Moreira is in his first season as Head Coach of New England Revolution II, joining the developmental side after two seasons on the Revolution's first-team staff, including a four-game spell as interim head coach in 2025, and 11 campaigns as an assistant coach in Major League Soccer. Moreira is a two-time MLS Cup champion with over 400 matches coached in his career. During his tenure in MLS, Moreira has coached an MLS League MVP, MLS Cup MVP, Newcomer of the Year, Goalkeeper of the Year, seven MLS Best XI selections, and nine MLS All-Star Selections en route to 155 career wins as an assistant.

Prior to joining the Revolution, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach for the Columbus Crew from 2019-22. Moreira helped guide the Crew to the 2020 MLS Cup title, becoming the youngest assistant coach in league history to win multiple MLS Cups — the first to do so with clubs in both conferences. The next year, he helped lead Columbus to the 2021 Campeones Cup, the club's first international trophy, beating Liga MX champions Cruz Azul.

Moreira, 41, entered the professional ranks as an Assistant Coach for the Portland Timbers from 2013-17. Moreira's first season with the Timbers included a 23-point improvement and a 43-point goal-differential improvement from the previous season, securing a first-place finish in the Western Conference and the club's first postseason berth. During his tenure, Moreira helped lead Portland to its first MLS Cup championship in 2015, as well as Concacaf Champions League appearances in 2014 and 2016, Western Conference regular season first-place finishes in 2013 and 2017, and a Cascadia Cup in 2017.

At the collegiate level, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach / Video Analyst at the University of Akron from 2010-2012. The Zips compiled a 55-6-9 record during his three seasons, while Moreira helped assemble the nation's No. 2 recruiting class in each of his first three years, producing 14 professionals into the MLS ranks during that span. In 2011, Akron set an MLS record for most first-round selections from a single school, landing five of the first eight picks in the MLS SuperDraft. Akron won the National Championship in 2010 in addition to three consecutive Mid-American Conference regular-season titles (2010-12), and two MAC Tournament championships (2010, 2012).

Moreira played as a forward for the Akron Zips from 2003-07. He was on the first Mid-American Conference team to be ranked No. 1 in the nation in any sport in 2005. Moreira earned All-Mid-American Conference honors in 2006 and 2007, in addition to winning three MAC regular season (2005, 2006, 2007) and Conference Tournament championships (2004, 2005, 2007).

Born in Montevideo, Uruguay, Moreira comes from a distinguished soccer lineage as he is the son of former Uruguayan International Jose "Chico" Moreira, who in 1980 with club side Nacional, captured the South American Treble winning the Club World Cup, Copa Libertadores, and Uruguayan Primera Division League Titles, in addition to winning the 1980 Mundialito (Copa de Oro de Campeones Mundiales) with the Uruguay National Team.

In the 2025 MLS NEXT Pro campaign, Milazzo helped lead Revolution II to their second postseason run in club history, finishing the MLS NEXT Pro regular season with a 14-7-7 record that matched the team's single-season win record. Milazzo previously spent the 2022-24 seasons as a Head Coach in the Revolution Academy, leading the Under-18s in 2024 after two seasons at the helm of the Under-15s in MLS NEXT.

Milazzo brings a decorated resume to his role, having previously served as an Assistant Coach for USL side North Carolina FC. During his tenure with North Carolina, he led the Under-23s for two seasons in USL League Two and was a Head Coach for the Academy's Under-19s for three seasons. From 2016-2022, Milazzo coached multiple academy teams from Under-12s to Under-23s.

His coaching career also includes a tenure with Columbus Crew SC, where he served as both Academy Director and Head Coach of the Under-18 team from 2015-16. Prior to Columbus, Milazzo was Assistant Coach of the Richmond Kickers of the USL. In Richmond, Milazzo held a dual role of serving as the Academy Manager of Richmond United Academy in 2014, while overseeing the Under-18, Under-16, and Under-14 teams competing in the nationally recognized U.S. Soccer Development Academy, for the Richmond Strikers Academy program in 2013.

A native of Cary, N.C., Milazzo began his coaching career in 1997 as an Assistant Coach at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, his alma mater. From 1999 to 2012, Milazzo took on various roles with the Capital Area Soccer League's Chelsea FC Academy, including Academy Director, General Manager, and Head Coach of several youth teams. Milazzo is certified with his USSF "A" Senior coaching license and his UEFA "B" coaching license with the Scottish Football Federation.

BRAD KNIGHTON

ASSISTANT COACH/GOALKEEPER COACH

Brad Knighton is entering his second season as the Assistant Coach/Goalkeeper Coach for Revolution II, the New England Revolution's developmental side which began play in 2020. Coaching alongside Michael Milazzo in 2025, Knighton also helped guide Revolution II to their second postseason appearance in team history. Knighton spent the 2023-24 seasons as a Head Coach for the Revolution Academy, competing in MLS NEXT.

In Knighton's first season with the Revolution Academy, he led the Under-19s to the MLS NEXT Cup Championship, securing New England's second consecutive national title. The Under-19s finished 18-3-5 overall in 2022-23, including 3-0-2 in the postseason. After switching to the Under-15s level in 2024, Knighton stayed on staff to help guide the Academy to a 8-1-4 record in MLS NEXT Flex action.

Prior to his coaching days, the Hickory, N.C. native began his playing career with New England in 2007 as an undrafted free agent. He went on to set a club record for the most MLS seasons in a Revolution uniform (12), and registered a 33-29-20 mark in his career, including 21 wins for the Revolution. During his tenure, Knighton helped New England win the 2021 Supporters' Shield, and started four games en route to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

Knighton, 41, retired after the 2022 MLS season and ranks fourth in Revolution history in goals against average (1.70), save percentage (66.9), and winning percentage (.509) among qualifying goalkeepers. In U.S. Open Cup play, he holds the club's all-time record in games played in goal (13), games started in goal (13), and minutes played in goal (1,260). On November 3, 2025, the Knighton family marked the two-year anniversary of the Olivia Knighton Foundation. Brad, his wife, Britney, and their sons Owen and Brooks launched the foundation in 2023 on the birthday of their late daughter, Olivia, and has since donated over $100,000 through scholarships, soccer programs, animal research, and more.
