PRESS RELEASE

Revolution Sign Easton, Mass. Native Judah Siqueira as Homegrown Player

Local Academy product joins MLS roster as 17th Homegrown Player in team history

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (August 27, 2026) – The New England Revolution have signed midfielder Judah Siqueira as a Homegrown Player through the 2027-2028 MLS season, with club options through the 2030-2031 campaign. Siqueira, a 17-year-old native of Easton, Mass., becomes the 17th player to ascend to New England's MLS roster from the Revolution Academy.

Siqueira inks a Homegrown Player contract with the first team after collecting his first two MLS appearances in the club's last two matches. The Brazilian-American midfielder became the 14th Revolution Academy graduate to record an MLS appearance with New England, making his league debut on Aug. 19 at D.C. United in a 3-0 win. Siqueira then followed with a 26-minute performance in a 1-1 draw against New York City FC on Aug. 23, marking his Gillette Stadium debut.

"We are thrilled to sign Judah as a Homegrown Player," said General Manager and Chief Soccer Officer, Chris Tierney. "Over the years, we have watched Judah develop into an outstanding young player through our Academy and with Revolution II. Judah is a high-potential player with a bright future ahead of him. We're excited to see his continued development with our club in years to come."

A product of the Revolution Academy and Revolution II, Siqueira has rapidly progressed through the club's pathway. The teenager has totaled 23 MLS NEXT Pro appearances, including 12 starts, while scoring three goals and one assist for New England's developmental team. Siqueira has featured in 14 matches for Revolution II this season, making 10 starts while recording two goals and one assist. He scored the winning goal against Orlando City B on May 17, and assisted on the winning tally against CT United on August 9.

Siqueira joined the Revolution Academy in 2022. During the 2024-25 season, he led the Academy's Under-16 squad with 25 goals scored. He also added five goals and two assists with the Under-18 team during the 2025-26 MLS NEXT season.

"Signing a professional contract with New England is a dream come true," said Siqueira. "I'm incredibly grateful to God, and to all my coaches, teammates, and family members who have supported me and pushed me. Their belief in me has helped make this moment possible. I'm excited to join the first team, continue developing as a player, and contribute in any way I can to help the club succeed."

Siqueira is eligible for selection with New England for Sunday's road match at the Columbus Crew, the first of four consecutive road games for the Revolution. The 4:30 p.m. kickoff at ScottsMiracle-Gro Field airs live on Apple TV in English and Spanish. Tune in to the club's local radio calls on 98.5 The Sports Hub or 1260 AM Nossa Radio USA for Portuguese commentary.
