WHAT TO WATCH FOR
AT CAROLINA CORE FC

- New England closes out the 2026 regular season with three straight road matches. Revolution II has fared well away from home this season, collecting points in eight of their 11 road contests.
- Revolution II's defense remains one of the league's best, as their 90 shots conceded are the fewest allowed in MLS NEXT Pro. The defensive unit has been anchored by center backs Gabe Dahlin and Jake Shannon. Dahlin leads the team in minutes played (1,890), while Shannon paces the squad with 33 clearances.
- F/W Myles Morgan will look to become the club's single-season scoring leader on Friday as he pursues his 14th goal of the campaign. The Canada native has tallied goal contributions in his last six games, and has also set a club record by scoring in five consecutive matches from Aug. 2 through Aug. 22.
- Morgan has also established himself as a strong contender in the MLS NEXT Pro Golden Boot race, with his 13 goals tied for third in the league. The 21-year-old is one shot shy of the league lead with 84 attempts, while his 34 shots on target rank fifth in MLS NEXT Pro. According to American Soccer Analysis, Morgan leads MLS NEXT Pro in expected goals added from shooting (10).
- M Cristiano Oliveira looks to build on his team-leading 47 key passes, a mark that ranks fifth in MLS NEXT Pro. The Homegrown Player also leads the team with seven assists and has started each of the club's last eight matches.
- F Matthew Jean Baptiste seeks his eighth goal contribution of the season. Across 12 appearances, including nine starts, the 16-year-old Academy product has tallied a second-best five goals on the team while adding two assists.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 4 · 6:30 P.M. ET
TRUIST POINT STADIUM (HIGH POINT, N.C.)

MATCH PREVIEW
AT CAROLINA CORE FC

New England Revolution II (11-8-6; 42 pts.) begin a three-match road swing to close the 2026 regular season on Friday, Sept. 4, visiting Carolina Core FC (5-8-12; 26 pts.) at Truist Point Stadium. Kickoff is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. ET and the match will stream live on MLSNEXTPro.com and One Football, with Philip Galati on the call.

Revolution II head to North Carolina on Friday looking to snap a four-match winless skid and return to the win column. Despite its recent run of results, New England has remained effective away from home this season, earning points in eight of its 11 road contests. Friday's match marks the fourth all-time MLS NEXT Pro meeting between Revolution II and Carolina Core FC, with New England trailing the series, 1-2-0, and still in search of its first victory at Truist Point Stadium. Carolina enters the contest on the heels of consecutive defeats after being eliminated from playoff contention last week.

New England closed out its 2026 regular-season home slate on Sunday at Beirne Stadium, with first-team forward Marcos Zambrano opening the scoring inside the opening 10 minutes. Forward/winger Myles Morgan recorded the assist, his sixth straight match with a goal contribution. The Canada native continues to lead New England's attack with 15 goal contributions this season, including 13 goals and two assists.

In his debut campaign with Revolution II, Morgan has placed himself firmly in the MLS NEXT Pro Golden Boot race, as his 13 goals are tied for third in the league, while he also ranks fourth in shots (84) and fifth in shots on target (34). The 21-year-old attacker will seek his 14th goal of the season on Friday, which would make him the club's single-season scoring leader. Morgan has already set a club record this season by scoring in five consecutive matches from Aug. 2 through Aug. 22.

Zambrano made an immediate impact in his 2026 MLS NEXT Pro debut, scoring New England's lone goal while adding two key passes. Sunday's match also featured the league debut of Tylon Smith, who joined the first-team roster last month. Smith, a South Africa youth international, completed all 16 of his passes in a 45-minute shift. Revolution II also welcomed back key contributors Jayden Da and Damario McIntosh from injury, with the latter aiming to build on his MLS NEXT Pro career-high four helpers this season.

Revolution II continue to benefit from a strong pipeline of Academy talent in the 2026 campaign. Academy forward Matthew Jean Baptiste, 16, has continuously provided a spark in the final third, totaling seven goal contributions with five goals and two assists. Midfielders Cristiano Oliveira and Javaun Mussenden have also been a consistent presence in New England's attack. Oliveira, a Somerville, Mass. native, leads Revolution II with 47 key passes, ranking fifth leaguewide, and has distributed a team-high seven assists. Mussenden has started 18 of his 19 appearances this season and owns four goal contributions.

TEAM NOTES

REVOLUTION SIGN MIDFIELDER JUDAH SIQUEIRA AS HOME-GROWN PLAYER

The New England Revolution have signed midfielder Judah Siqueira as the 17th Homegrown Player in club history. Siqueira, a 17-year-old from Easton, Mass., joins New England's roster through the 2027-28 Major League Soccer season with club options through the 2030-31 campaign.

Siqueira inks a Homegrown Player contract with New England's senior team after collecting two back-to-back MLS appearances. The Brazilian-American midfielder became the 14th Revolution Academy graduate to suit up for an MLS appearance with New England, making his league debut on Aug. 19 at D.C. United in a 3-0 victory. Siqueira followed that outing with a 26-minute performance in the Revolution's 1-1 draw against New York City FC on Aug. 23, marking his Gillette Stadium debut.

"We are thrilled to sign Judah as a Homegrown Player," said General Manager and Chief Soccer Officer, Chris Tierney. "Over the years, we have watched Judah develop into an outstanding young player through our Academy and with Revolution II. Judah has an extremely high ceiling and a bright future ahead of him. We're excited to see his continued development with our club in the years to come."

A product of the Revolution Academy and Revolution II, Siqueira has steadily progressed through the club's ranks over the past two seasons. The 17-year-old has totaled 23 MLS NEXT Pro appearances, including 12 starts, while scoring three goals and one assist for New England's developmental team, Revolution II.

Siqueira has featured in 14 matches for Revolution II this season, making 10 starts while recording two goals and one assist. The Academy product scored the game-winning goal in a 1-0 victory over Orlando City B on May 17. In his most recent MLS NEXT Pro appearance, Siqueira helped create the game-winning tally in a 2-1 win over CT United FC on Aug. 9.

Siqueira joined the Revolution Academy in 2022. During the 2024-25 season, Siqueira led the Academy's Under-16 squad with 25 goals scored. He also added five goals and two assists with the Under-18 team during the 2025-26 MLS NEXT season.

"Signing a professional contract with New England is a dream come true," said Siqueira. "I'm incredibly grateful to all my coaches, teammates, and family members who have supported me and pushed me to become the player I am today. Their belief in me has helped make this moment possible. I'm excited to join the first team, continue developing as a player, and contribute in any way I can to help the club succeed."

17-YEAR-OLD WELLS TAKES MAJOR STEP ON PRO PATHWAY WITH REVS II DEAL

Growing up, Makai Wells played many sports. He dabbled in basketball and baseball, but soccer always stood out. It wasn't just his skill that pulled him toward soccer; it was also where he had the most fun. Now, after pairing that passion with determination, Wells has signed his first professional contract with New England Revolution II at just 17 years old.

Wells is the 17th player to sign a professional contract with Revolution II directly from the Revolution Academy. The attacker joined the Revs Academy ahead of the 2025-26 MLS NEXT season, featuring for the Under-18 team while also making appearances with New England's MLS NEXT Pro side. Now officially part of the Revolution second team, Wells has become yet another success story of the Revolution Pro Pathway.

For Wells, the club sees MLS NEXT Pro as a steppingstone in his long journey ahead, as the teen has spent time training with the first team, working to reach the next level.

"Makai is a completely different player from when he first started working with us. There's a maturation process that comes with being in a professional environment and in a very competitive atmosphere. He had to learn along the way, but he did that rapidly," explained Revolution II head coach Pablo Moreira. "I had to have a conversation with Marko [Mitrović] halfway through the year in terms of Makai and Judah Siqueira. For me, they reached a peak here where I thought they needed to be pushed. Makai deserved everything he got.

"If you look at the level of competition, the environment, the culture that Marko and the first team staff have created, iron sharpens iron. Being at that level is just going to allow them to continue to grow."

Prior to arriving in New England, Wells trained in one of the sport's most competitive atmospheres, Barca Residency Academy, where he was a standout performer. From there, putting pen to paper with Revolution II has been a dream come true for the Washington, D.C. native.

"Ever since I started playing and ever since I started watching pros play, it's been my dream to be there one day. To be able to do it myself, it's just a surreal feeling," he said. "It's a great accomplishment that I've been dreaming of since I was a little kid, so it is just a proud moment for me and my family."

Wells has logged 862 minutes for Revolution II so far this season, appearing in 14 games and earning a goal and assist. The MLS NEXT Pro team currently sits seventh in the Eastern Conference as they work to secure a playoff spot with just three games remaining in 2026.

As Wells works to help Revs II make it to postseason action, he says it's all been possible because of the support he's been given in New England.

"The Revs do such a great job with their Pro Pathway. I came here a year ago when they presented me with my pathway, and every step of the way, from the Academy to the second team, there have always been people in my corner helping me get better," Wells explained.

With the Revolution Pathway, Wells has had the opportunity to look not just to his coaches for support, but to those around him who have found success on a similar path. As Wells notes, someone who has been a particularly great role model for him is Peyton Miller, a fellow Revolution Academy product who has worked his way to becoming an integral part of New England's starting lineup.

As he continues to grow, Wells can move forward knowing he has the whole club and teammates in his corner, including those players who have already traveled the path he's on and can guide him toward whatever comes next.

"I've learned it's not just about what you can do on the field that's going to get you to the highest level. A lot of pros carry themselves professionally off the field. From the recovery they put in, the way they eat, sleep, those are the things that will separate you," Wells said. "I hope to just keep learning and try to break into the first team. One of my biggest goals is to make my MLS debut this season, but I have to just keep growing every day to become a better player."

TEAM NOTES

MATTHEW JEAN BAPTISTE NAMED MLS NEXT RISING STAR OF JULY

At just 16 years old, Matthew Jean Baptiste hasn't only made his professional debut with New England Revolution II – he's started a red-hot run of form, earning seven goal contributions over his last nine appearances.

Jean Baptiste currently plays for the Revolution Academy's U-16 team, joining the club this year after playing in the Red Bull New York Academy. In a matter of months, the young attacker has worked his way up from the U-16s to competing with the U-18s, and has now made 10 appearances with Revolution II at the professional level. In his 792 minutes of MLS NEXT Pro play, he's logged five goals and two assists.

Jean Baptiste moved to New England to attend St. Paul's School, a boarding school in Concord, New Hampshire. During the school year, he was able to train with the academy two days a week – traveling two hours from New Hampshire to Foxborough. But the commitment wasn't just from Jean Baptiste – it was a family effort. To make it work, his parents would drive to New Hampshire from their home in New Jersey, to then take him to practice in Foxborough. During summer break, Jean Baptiste has moved into one of the Revolution residency homes, giving him the chance to train six days a week with the second team and be just minutes from practice rather than hours.

"Getting the call up to join the second team as school ended for the summer, it's been a really great start for my career and it's helped me grow a lot," he explained. "I had a lot to learn and over the course of the games and the hard trainings, the extensive days, I've really pushed myself to be on that same flow with the rest of the team and to prosper with the team. I think it's shown through the games."

Jean Baptiste's efforts haven't gone unnoticed. In July, he was named MLS NEXT Rising Star of the Month after scoring two goals in four games.

"For me, that really meant that my hard work has paid off. During an off day, I'm working to perfect my touch. I'm working on finishing in the box with coaches after training, doing those extra sprints, pushing myself harder in the gym. It's shown me that I just have to keep that hard work going. Rising Star of the Month is a good title, but as a team we have even bigger goals to shoot for," he said.

For Revolution II head coach Pablo Moreira, the recognition is by no means a finish line. Instead, it's fuel for the player that Jean Baptiste can continue to become.

"To be able to get him in those positions to score and to have assists, it takes a whole team. So, I was first and foremost so happy for the team to get recognized and then obviously so happy for him because it just gives him more incentive to continue working. If I'm honest, he's such a good kid. I've met his mother and father, and he's got a great upbringing. He doesn't need an individual award to keep that fire lit, but it does help," Moreira explained.

As Moreira emphasized, the success of an individual is in part due to the success of the team, and Revs II have found a lot of success this season. After finishing third in the East last season, with a playoff run cut short, the squad has their sights set on more. With just three games left in the MLS NEXT Pro regular season, the team is currently seventh in the Eastern Conference standings as they look to secure a spot in postseason play.

For Moreira, for his team – and for Jean Baptiste – this is just the beginning.

"He's a raw talent, that's for sure. Since he has been able to come in and train with us six times a week, there's been a huge jump from the start of the summer in how he's been playing and sharpening his skills. For me, the sky's the limit for him," Moreira said.

MYLES MORGAN ON VERGE OF HISTORY WITH REVOLUTION II

In his debut season with Revolution II, forward/winger Myles Morgan is on the verge of etching his name into the club's record books. The Canadian attacker enters Friday's match just one goal shy of breaking the club's single-season scoring record.

Morgan has spearheaded Revolution II's attack this season, recording 13 goals and adding two assists. He also paces the team with 84 shots and 34 shots on target, marks that rank fourth and fifth in MLS NEXT Pro, respectively. The Canada native has already broken a record for Revs II, scoring in five straight games from Aug 2- Aug 22.

Morgan's 13 goals have propelled him into the MLS NEXT Pro Golden Boot race, where he currently sits third in the league. Additionally, His finishing quality has not only delivered results but also garnered league-wide recognition. Morgan has earned MLS NEXT Pro Goal of the Matchweek honors three times this season (Weeks 12, 22, and 23), the most of any player in the league this year.

REVOLUTION ACADEMY GRADUATE JAVAUN MUSSENDEN REPRESENTS U.S. U-19S AT 2026 U-20 CONCACAF CHAMPIONSHIP

Revolution II midfielder Javaun Mussenden represented the United States Under-19s at the 2026 Concacaf Under-20 Championship in Mexico City from July 2 through Aug. 10. Mussenden made six appearances, including three starts, and logged 295 total minutes.

The Stars and Stripes opened play in Group A, sweeping all three of their matches. The Georgia native logged 19 minutes against Haiti's Under-20 squad on July 25, then added 21 minutes on July 28 against El Salvador's Under-20 team. To close out group play, the 18-year-old earned his first international start on July 31 against Cuba, playing a 43-minute shift at right back in a 5–0 win.

The United States advanced to the finals with wins in the quarter and semifinal matches, playing a 28-minute shift to help capture a 3–1 victory over Guatemala, before helping the team secure a 2–0 win over Costa Rica, starting at right back and playing all but five minutes. The Stars and Stripes ultimately fell 2–0 to Mexico in the final, with Mussenden once again earning the start along the backline and playing 79 minutes.

"For me the opportunity meant everything," said Mussenden. "It was always my dream to play in a tournament like that, in Concacaf. It's a great experience and a big tournament for the United States. Just to know that they trust me representing them and the badge definitely meant everything to me."

Despite the loss in the final, the USA earned berths to the 2027 FIFA U-20 World Cup and 2027 Pan American Games, with the tournament's top four teams securing qualification.

STAFF BIOS

PABLO MOREIRA

HEAD COACH

Pablo Moreira is in his first season as Head Coach of New England Revolution II, joining the developmental side after two seasons on the Revolution's first-team staff, including a four-game spell as interim head coach in 2025, and 11 campaigns as an assistant coach in Major League Soccer. Moreira is a two-time MLS Cup champion with over 400 matches coached in his career. During his tenure in MLS, Moreira has coached an MLS League MVP, MLS Cup MVP, Newcomer of the Year, Goalkeeper of the Year, seven MLS Best XI selections, and nine MLS All-Star Selections en route to 155 career wins as an assistant.

Prior to joining the Revolution, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach for the Columbus Crew from 2019-22. Moreira helped guide the Crew to the 2020 MLS Cup title, becoming the youngest assistant coach in league history to win multiple MLS Cups — the first to do so with clubs in both conferences. The next year, he helped lead Columbus to the 2021 Campeones Cup, the club's first international trophy, beating Liga MX champions Cruz Azul.

Moreira, 41, entered the professional ranks as an Assistant Coach for the Portland Timbers from 2013-17. Moreira's first season with the Timbers included a 23-point improvement and a 43-point goal-differential improvement from the previous season, securing a first-place finish in the Western Conference and the club's first postseason berth. During his tenure, Moreira helped lead Portland to its first MLS Cup championship in 2015, as well as Concacaf Champions League appearances in 2014 and 2016, Western Conference regular season first-place finishes in 2013 and 2017, and a Cascadia Cup in 2017.

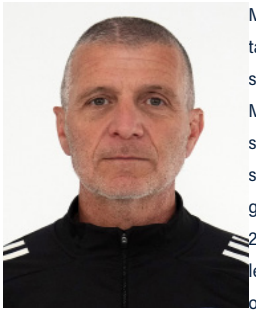

At the collegiate level, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach / Video Analyst at the University of Akron from 2010-2012. The Zips compiled a 55-6-9 record during his three seasons, while Moreira helped assemble the nation's No. 2 recruiting class in each of his first three years, producing 14 professionals into the MLS ranks during that span. In 2011, Akron set an MLS record for most first-round selections from a single school, landing five of the first eight picks in the MLS SuperDraft. Akron won the National Championship in 2010 in addition to three consecutive Mid-American Conference regular-season titles (2010–12), and two MAC Tournament championships (2010, 2012).

Moreira played as a forward for the Akron Zips from 2003-07. He was on the first Mid-American Conference team to be ranked No. 1 in the nation in any sport in 2005. Moreira earned All-Mid-American Conference honors in 2006 and 2007, in addition to winning three MAC regular season (2005, 2006, 2007) and Conference Tournament championships (2004, 2005, 2007).

Born in Montevideo, Uruguay, Moreira comes from a distinguished soccer lineage as he is the son of former Uruguayan International Jose "Chico" Moreira, who in 1980 with club side Nacional, captured the South American Treble winning the Club World Cup, Copa Libertadores, and Uruguayan Primera Division League Titles, in addition to winning the 1980 Mundialito (Copa de Oro de Campeones Mundiales) with the Uruguay National Team.

MICHAEL MILAZZO

ASSISTANT COACH

Michael Milazzo is entering his second season as an Assistant Coach with New England Revolution II and his fourth season with the club. In the 2025 MLS NEXT Pro campaign, Milazzo helped lead Revolution II to their second postseason run in club history, finishing the MLS NEXT Pro regular season with a 14-7-7 record that matched the team's single-season win record. Milazzo previously spent the 2022-24 seasons as a Head Coach in the Revolution Academy, leading the Under-18s in 2024 after two seasons at the helm of the Under-15s in MLS NEXT.

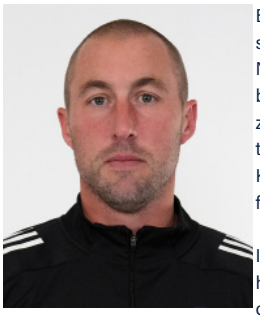

Milazzo brings a decorated resume to his role, having previously served as an Assistant Coach for USL side North Carolina FC. During his tenure with North Carolina, he led the Under-23s for two seasons in USL League Two and was a Head Coach for the Academy's Under-19s for three seasons. From 2016-2022, Milazzo coached multiple academy teams from Under-12s to Under-23s.

His coaching career also includes a tenure with Columbus Crew SC, where he served as both Academy Director and Head Coach of the Under-18 team from 2015-16. Prior to Columbus, Milazzo was Assistant Coach of the Richmond Kickers of the USL. In Richmond, Milazzo held a dual role of serving as the Academy Manager of Richmond United Academy in 2014, while overseeing the Under-18, Under-16, and Under-14 teams competing in the nationally recognized U.S. Soccer Development Academy, for the Richmond Strikers Academy program in 2013.

A native of Cary, N.C., Milazzo began his coaching career in 1997 as an Assistant Coach at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, his alma mater. From 1999 to 2012, Milazzo took on various roles with the Capital Area Soccer League's Chelsea FC Academy, including Academy Director, General Manager, and Head Coach of several youth teams. Milazzo is certified with his USSF "A" Senior coaching license and his UEFA "B" coaching license with the Scottish Football Federation.

BRAD KNIGHTON

ASSISTANT COACH/GOALKEEPER COACH

Brad Knighton is entering his second season as the Assistant Coach/Goalkeeper Coach for Revolution II, the New England Revolution's developmental side which began play in 2020. Coaching alongside Michael Milazzo in 2025, Knighton also helped guide Revolution II to their second postseason appearance in team history. Knighton spent the 2023-24 seasons as a Head Coach for the Revolution Academy, competing in MLS NEXT.

In Knighton's first season with the Revolution Academy, he led the Under-19s to the MLS NEXT Cup Championship, securing New England's second consecutive national title. The Under-19s finished 18-3-5 overall in 2022-23, including 3-0-2 in the postseason. After switching to the Under-15s level in 2024, Knighton stayed on staff to help guide the Academy to a 8-1-4 record in MLS NEXT Flex action.

Prior to his coaching days, the Hickory, N.C. native began his playing career with New England in 2007 as an undrafted free agent. He went on to set a club record for the most MLS seasons in a Revolution uniform (12), and registered a 33-29-20 mark in his career, including 21 wins for the Revolution. During his tenure, Knighton helped New England win the 2021 Supporters' Shield, and started four games en route to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

Knighton, 41, retired after the 2022 MLS season and ranks fourth in Revolution history in goals against average (1.70), save percentage (66.9), and winning percentage (.509) among qualifying goalkeepers. In U.S. Open Cup play, he holds the club's all-time record in games played in goal (13), games started in goal (13), and minutes played in goal (1,260). Outside of New England, Knighton played for the Philadelphia Union during their inaugural season in 2010, and helped lead Vancouver Whitecaps FC to its first appearance in the MLS Cup Playoffs in 2012.

Beyond his on-field achievements, the 2022 Revolution Humanitarian of the Year continues to dedicate his time to serving the New England community alongside his family. On November 3, 2025, the Knighton family marked the two-year anniversary of the Olivia Knighton Foundation. Brad, his wife, Britney, and their sons Owen and Brooks launched the foundation in 2023 on the birthday of their late daughter, Olivia, and has since donated over $100,000 through scholarships, soccer programs, animal research, and more.
