Media Advisory (Sept. 16)

New England Amputee Soccer Team Holds Training in East Boston on Sept. 16 before Saturday Exhibition at Gillette Stadium

Revolution defender Will Sands, ambassador to the two-time national champion New England amputee team, will attend Wednesday's training session at Boston Scores Field

WHAT:

New England Revolution defender Will Sands will be in attendance when the New England Amputee Soccer Team, fresh off their second U.S. Amputee Soccer Cup title, will hold a training session at Boston Scores Field in East Boston (150 Horace St.) on Wednesday, Sept. 16. This will be the team's final training session before playing their third annual full-length amputee soccer match at Gillette Stadium, held in celebration of the team's longstanding partnership with the New England Revolution, to take place immediately following the Revs' Major League Soccer clash against Orlando City SC on Saturday, Sept. 19.

For the first time, the exhibition in Foxborough will see New England lock horns with an American Amputee Soccer Association (AASA) All-Star Team. Bringing together the country's top talent in a showcase of 'the fastest game on one leg', the encounter will also provide valuable preparation for players on both sides ahead of the 2026 Amputee Soccer World Cup in Mexico this November.

Fans can enjoy both matches at Gillette Stadium, with $5 from every ticket purchased through this link donated to the New England Amputee Soccer Association to support playing opportunities for athletes with limb differences.

WHO:

New England captain and NEASA Co-Founder Nico Calabria – USMNT skipper, Golden Ball winner in 2026 U.S. Amputee Cup.

QUOTES:

"This event continues to support the growth of amputee soccer by offering a unique opportunity for visibility," said NEASA Captain and Co-Founder Nico Calabria. "We're extremely grateful to the New England Revolution for being a champion of adaptive soccer in the United States."

"My teammates and I can't wait to cheer on our two-time national champion New England Amputee Soccer Team after next Saturday's match," said Will Sands, Revolution defender and club ambassador to the New England Amputee Soccer Association. "Every time I have the opportunity to watch these players compete, I'm blown away by their talent and come away inspired by their grit, passion, and love for the game. I hope all the Revolution supporters will stick around after the match against Orlando to support them against the U.S. All-Stars."

About the New England Revolution

The New England Revolution, owned and operated by the Kraft family, began play in 1996 as one of the original founding clubs of Major League Soccer (MLS). Through 30 seasons, the Revolution are five-time MLS Eastern Conference champions and claimed the 2021 Supporters' Shield after a record-setting campaign. The Revolution also won the 2008 North American SuperLiga and 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles. The Revolution play their home matches at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. and are currently coached by two-time MLS Cup winner Caleb Porter. The club and its acclaimed pro pathway, including Revolution II (MLS NEXT Pro) and the Revolution Academy, are headquartered at the Revolution Training Center, which opened ahead of the 2020 season.
