Oliveira earns his first call-up to the United States Under-19 Men's National Team. He previously represented the United States at the Under-18, Under-17, Under-16, and Under-15 levels. The Homegrown Player from Somerville, Mass. started in two international friendlies against Portugal and Morocco for the Under-18s in March. Oliveira also competed in the 2025 CONCACAF U-17 Championship, making three appearances, including one start, and tallying a goal in a 7-0 win over St. Kitts & Nevis.

The 18-year-old has enjoyed a standout campaign for Revolution II this season, helping the team secure a fifth-place finish in MLS NEXT Pro's Eastern Conference and a postseason appearance. During the 2026 MLS NEXT Pro campaign, Oliveira has tallied one goal, along with a career-high and team-best nine assists, and 52 key passes - seventh most in the league.

Oliveira also suited up for his MLS debut this season, entering as a second-half substitute at Charlotte FC on May 23. Oliveira also owns an additional three career appearances for the Revolution's senior team in U.S. Open Cup play.

New England, second in the Eastern Conference, is on the road this weekend, visiting Western Conference opponent Real Salt Lake on Saturday, September 26. The 9:30 p.m. ET kickoff at America First Field is available to watch on Apple TV in English and Spanish. Listen to the club's local radio broadcasts on 98.5 The Sports Hub and 1260 AM Nossa Radio (Portuguese).

About the New England Revolution

The New England Revolution, owned and operated by the Kraft family, began play in 1996 as one of the original founding clubs of Major League Soccer (MLS). Through 30 MLS seasons, the Revolution are five-time MLS Eastern Conference champions and claimed the 2021 Supporters' Shield after a record-setting campaign. New England also won the 2008 North American SuperLiga and 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles. The Revolution play their home matches at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. The club and its acclaimed pro pathway, including Revolution II (MLS NEXT Pro) and the Revolution Academy, are headquartered at the Revolution Training Center, which opened ahead of the 2020 season.
