PRESS RELEASE

Revolution Launch ‘Big Match Packages’ on Sale Now

Multi-game plans let fans select from the Nov. 1 home finale vs. Inter Miami, the first home playoff home match, and all 2027 regular-season home matches

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (October 5, 2026) – The New England Revolution today launched 2027 “Big Match Package” multi-game ticket plans, available in four-match and six-match options, offering fans major savings, complimentary gifts, and seat upgrades. Fans can select from two marquee matches in November 2026 – the Revolution’s regular season home finale on Sunday, November 1 vs. Inter Miami CF, and the club’s first home match of the Audi 2026 MLS Cup Playoffs – as well as any calendar-year 2027 regular season home match. Big Match Packages are on sale now at Revolutionsoccer.net/tickets, tix@revolutionsoccer.net, or 1-877-GET-REVS.

The Revolution’s “Big Match Package”, with prices starting at $42 per ticket, gives fans the opportunity to lock in their 2027 tickets with up to 30% savings off box office prices, in addition to a complimentary seat upgrade for every 2027 match. Big Match Package accounts also receive reserved parking, presale opportunities for Gillette Stadium concerts and events, and a gift of one Revolution winter hat per account. These special plans provide unprecedented flexibility as fans can select from home matches across three separate seasons, including both the 2027 MLS Sprint Season (February – May) and the start of the 2027-28 MLS Season, which will begin in late July 2027.

New England enters the homestretch of the 2026 MLS regular season with seven games remaining before the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs. The Revolution have climbed to second place in the Eastern Conference with 14 wins, third most league-wide, as the team looks to clinch a postseason berth in its first season under Head Coach Marko Mitrović. When Inter Miami comes to town on November 1, led by eight-time Ballon d’Or winner and two-time MLS MVP Lionel Messi, it is poised to be a high-stakes battle for playoffs seeding between two of the top teams in the East, currently tied on 46 points. The Revolution resume MLS play on Saturday, October 10 vs. Seattle Sounders FC at Gillette Stadium. New England has been one of the league’s best home sides with a 9-2-2 mark at Gillette Stadium, tied for the second-most home wins and home points in MLS.

Revolution fans can ride in comfort to the November 1 home finale vs. Inter Miami by taking advantage of the MBTA’s round-trip, special event train service from Boston to Foxborough. For only $20 per round-trip ticket, available exclusively in the mTicket app, the special event train service from Boston will depart from South Station at 5:00 p.m., making stops at Back Bay (5:05 p.m.) and Dedham Corporate Center (5:20 p.m.) before arriving at Foxboro Station at 6:00 p.m., one hour before kickoff. The return train northbound to Boston will depart Foxboro Station 30 minutes following the conclusion of the match.

Following the conclusion of the MLS regular season with Decision Day 2026 on Saturday, November 7, and a pause for the November FIFA international window, the Audi 2026 MLS Cup Playoffs will begin on Wednesday, November 18 and unfold across four consecutive weeks leading into 2026 MLS Cup presented by Audi on Friday, December 18. The top seven teams from each conference will automatically qualify for the Round One Best-of-3 Series, followed by the respective winners of the Wild Card matches. All 16 teams participating in Round One will play at least one home playoff game in the series. The Conference Semifinals, Conference Finals, and MLS Cup will all be single-elimination contests hosted by the team with the better regular-season record.

On the pitch, New England is led by captain and offensive catalyst Carles Gil, who has tallied a career-high 12 goals this season and extended his own club record with nine assists to move into the top 10 in league history. Goalkeeper Matt Turner, who represented the United States at the last two FIFA World Cups, is putting together one of the best seasons in his career, anchoring one of the league's top defenses with 104 saves and a 1.33 goals against average. Fellow U.S. internationals Peyton Miller and Brooklyn Raines, who made their senior national team debuts for the Stars & Stripes in September, are two of the league's premier young talents and have each enjoyed breakout campaigns. As the playoffs approach, new England should also benefit from the return of English winger Jack Harrison, who logged six assists in his first five matches with the Revolution since arriving in the summer.

MLS Competition Calendar Change

In 2027, MLS will take a major leap forward as it makes a shift in its competition calendar, aligning with top soccer leagues around the world. Starting in 2027, the MLS Regular Season will kick off in mid-July and conclude with the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs and MLS Cup presented by Audi in May 2028. The 2027-2028 MLS Regular Season will consist of 34 regular season matches, the same number of games as the current MLS schedule. Beginning in 2027-28, the Revolution are guaranteed to host every other MLS team at least once every two seasons.

Prior to the 2027-28 season, MLS will play the 2027 MLS Sprint Season from mid-February through May. The 2027 MLS Sprint Season will consist of 14 regular season matches played against the Revolution's 14 Eastern Conference opponents (7 home and 7 away matches) ahead of the Audi 2027 MLS Cup Playoffs. Not only will the Sprint Season crown an MLS Cup champion and will also qualify MLS clubs for the 2028 Concacaf Champions Cup and 2028 Leagues Cup.
