Under-13s post commanding 13-0 win over FA Euro New York on Sunday

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (October 9, 2026) – The New England Revolution Academy combined for eight games this past weekend, with the Under-18s, Under-16s, and Under-15s hosting CF Montreal on Saturday, Oct. 3, before all five teams welcomed FA Euro New York to the Revolution Training Center on Sunday, Oct. 4.

The U-18s split the weekend's results, first falling 2-1 to CF Montreal on Saturday. Ben Quirino (2009 - Chelsea, Mass.) opened the scoring on an assist from Daniel Dixon (2008 - Yardley, Pa.) just five minutes in, but Montreal responded with two goals to secure the win. On Sunday, the U-18s bounced back with a commanding 3-0 victory over FA Euro New York. Roman Woolfolk (2010 - East Palo Alto, Calif.) led the offensive effort with a goal-and-assist performance, while Frankie Caruso (2010 - West Newton, Mass.) and Lucas Pereira (2010 - East Merrimack, N.H.) also found the back of the net.

In other Academy action, the U-16s battled to a 1-1 draw against CF Montreal on Saturday before claiming the extra point with a 4-2 victory in the ensuing penalty shootout. The visitors opened the scoring in the 62nd minute, but Hans Marten (2011 - Wellesley, Mass.) netted an unassisted equalizer less than 10 minutes later. On Sunday, New England fell 2-1 to FA Euro New York, with Langston Powell (2011 - Catonsville, Md.) scoring the Revolution's lone goal.

The U-15s fell in both of their fixtures this weekend. In Saturday's match against CF Montreal, the visiting side scored two first-half goals to establish an early lead. Boston Kahoalii (2012 - Whitman, Mass.) pulled one back in the 58th minute, but Montreal responded with its third goal to put the game out of reach. On Sunday, FA Euro New York scored four straight goals before New England mounted a late comeback effort, led by Rodrigo Machado (2012 - Pawtucket, R.I.), who first connected with Jayden Lefter (2012 - Milford, Mass.) before adding a second goal off an assist from Marlon Quijada (2012 - Ashland, Mass.). However, the visitors' defense held firm to halt New England's comeback bid.

The U-14s posted its third straight unbeaten result, collecting a 5-1 win over FA Euro New York this Sunday. New England's offense was led by Nichollas Teixeira (2013 - Rockland, Mass.), who bagged a brace, while Kento Chamovitz (2013 - Newton, Mass.) also turned in a standout performance with a goal and an assist. Davian Romero (2013 - Windsor, Conn.) and Malachi Rougier (2013 - Dorchester, Mass.) rounded out the scoring for the Revolution, while Mikey Miller (2013 - Westford, Mass.), Jeffery Chaves (2013 - Worcester, Mass.), and Bryson Vollota (2013 - Glastonbury Center, Conn.) all contributed assists.

Wrapping up the Academy's weekend action, the U-13s posted a dominant 13-0 shutout victory over FA Euro New York. Lucca Alden-Dunn (2014 - Dover, Mass.) and Artur Grybacz (2014 - Cumberland, R.I.) each notched a hat trick, while Amare Laurent (2014 - Windsor, Conn.) added a brace. Grybacz also contributed two assists, tying Keaton Bradford-Rivera (2014 - Glastonbury Center, Conn.) and Sebby Rosado (2014 - Manchester, Conn.) for the team lead in helpers. In goal, Zachary Roy (2013 - Raynham, Mass.) and Kai Fauth (2014 - Milford, Mass.) both got minutes between the pipes to help the team to its first shutout win of the season.

The U-18s, U-16s, and U-15s are back in action this Saturday, October 10, when they host regional rival New York City FC at the Revolution Training Center. CLICK HERE to learn more about the New England Revolution Academy.
