WHAT TO WATCH FOR
AT COLUMBUS CREW 2

- Revolution II will appear in the MLS NEXT Pro Playoffs for the third time in club history and for the second consecutive season after New England featured in the first round of postseason play in 2025.
- In MLS NEXT Pro playoff history, New England's longest run came during its inaugural postseason appearance in 2023, when the club advanced to the Eastern Conference Final, falling 1-0 to Columbus Crew 2.
- F/W Myles Morgan became the club's all-time single-season leading scorer at Toronto FC II on Sept. 20, netting his 14th goal of the campaign. Earlier this season, Morgan set a club record by scoring in five consecutive matches and has now surpassed his cousin, former Revolution II F Liam Butts, for the single-season goal record.
- Morgan's 14 goals ranked tied for fourth in the 2026 Golden Boot race, while his 89 total shots and 35 shots on target rank fourth and sixth, respectively.
- M Cristiano Oliveira continued his strong playmaking form in New England's last match, recording his ninth assist of the season and a helper in back-to-back games. The Somerville, Mass. native finished the MLS NEXT Pro regular season with 52 key passes, tied for sixth most in the league.
- D Damario McIntosh has returned to the field in strong form following a lower body injury, registering the first goal-and-assist performance of his professional career on Sept. 20. The Homegrown defender has recorded a career-high six goal contributions this season.
- M Javaun Mussenden scored his second goal of the season, also his second game-winning tally of the campaign, at Toronto FC II. The Academy product recently made his MLS debut on Sept. 26, logging 22 minutes in New England's road match against Real Salt Lake.

MATCH PREVIEW
AT COLUMBUS CREW 2

Crew 2 selected New England, which finished the 2026 regular season with a 12-8-8 record, as its opponent for Saturday's postseason match through MLS NEXT Pro's Pick-Your-Opponent format. Saturday's match in Ohio marks the second postseason encounter between Revolution II and Crew 2. New England has an opportunity to avenge its 2023 playoff exit, when Columbus claimed a narrow 1-0 victory in the Eastern Conference Final.

Saturday's match also marks the fourth meeting between the two sides this season, with Revolution II earning points in two of the previous three matchups. Crew 2 went winless over the last four matches of the regular season. On the attacking end, Columbus is led by forward Kevin Gbamblé's 12 goals and 11 assists, second most in MLS NEXT Pro. Defensively, goalkeeper Luke Pruter backstopped Crew 2 to six shutouts in 21 games played.

Revolution II secured their postseason berth by collecting points in all three of their final matches of the regular season, including a 3-1 triumph at Toronto FC II on Decision Day with goals from forward/winger Myles Morgan, midfielder Javaun Mussenden, and defender Damario McIntosh. McIntosh also recorded an assist, while midfielder Logan Azar, forward/winger Makai Wells, and midfielder Cristiano Oliveira each added a helper.

Morgan enters Saturday's contest in strong form after adding another milestone to his record-setting debut season with Revolution II. The Canadian forward scored his 14th goal of the campaign in the regular season finale, establishing a program single-season record. Earlier this year, Morgan also set a Revolution II record by scoring in five consecutive matches. Morgan finished the 2026 campaign tied for fourth in the league's Golden Boot race.

Academy graduates Mussenden and McIntosh also found the back of the net against Toronto FC II, with each player scoring his second goal of the season. Mussenden, who logged his MLS debut on Sept. 26 at Real Salt Lake, registered his sixth goal contribution of the campaign (2G, 4A) and ranks fifth on the team with 21 key passes. McIntosh recorded the first goal-and-assist performance of his professional career in the winning effort at Toronto.

New England's defense tallied seven clean sheet performances during the regular season, while conceding the fewest shot attempts (105) in MLS NEXT Pro. Goalkeeper Donovan Parisian, New England's first-round selection in the 2025 MLS SuperDraft, collected four shutouts over his 13 games played this season. In the backline, New England's Gabe Dahlin and Jake Shannon ranked first and second on the team, respectively, in minutes played this season.

During the September/October FIFA International Window, Revolution II's Oliveira and Judah Siqueira represented the United States Under-19 and Under-17 Men's National Teams, respectively. Oliveira earned his first Under-19 call-up and played all 90 minutes in midfield against Wales. During the regular season, the Homegrown Player from Somerville, Mass led Revolution II with a career-high nine assists. Siqueira, a fellow Homegrown Player from Easton, Mass., received his first international call-up and scored a goal from the penalty spot against the Netherlands. The 17-year-old netted two goals in 15 games played in the 2026 MLS NEXT Pro campaign.

REVS II READY FOR PLAYOFF REDEMPTION IN COLUMBUS

After finishing fifth in the MLS NEXT Pro Eastern Conference standings, New England Revolution II punched their ticket to the playoffs for just the third time in club history. Revolution II's postseason hopes came down to Decision Day, when they delivered a commanding 3-1 victory over Toronto FC II to earn their place in the postseason.

It was a tight race in the East to close out the regular season as New England finished level on 48 points with both Atlanta United 2 and Columbus Crew 2, with wins and goal differential ultimately separating the three sides in the standings. Revs II closed the campaign with a 12-8-8 record, scoring 47 goals while conceding 42.

After getting knocked out in their first game of the MLS NEXT Pro Playoffs last season, New England laid the foundation early this year, collecting 10 points in their first four matches. They later built upon that momentum with a seven-game unbeaten streak from May through June, posting a 5-0-2 mark during the stretch. Much of that success stemmed from strong defensive performances, which helped Revs II finish with the fourth-best defensive record in the Eastern Conference.

For first-year head coach Pablo Moreira, the team's postseason berth is the result of consistency and hard work.

"Our guys have focused on the main thing, and the main thing for us, each and every day, is being the best version of ourselves. It's about putting a good performance out in training, trying to echo the sentiments of how we want the game to be played, and they've been able to execute that, which has now put us in the position to play meaningful games at a meaningful time in the season," he said. "I'm super, super happy for that."

Now, as Revolution II prepare to face Columbus Crew 2 at ScottsMiracle-Gro Field on October 17, Moreira believes the season has provided both him and his squad with loads of confidence. That confidence was not only forged through victories, but also through the group's ability to overcome adversity.

"We have a relentless work ethic. I think we've had something like seven injuries, and it's always been the next man up. Every person has stepped up and done their job," explained defender Gabe Dahlin. "We have a killer mentality. We're sharp in practice and just making sure we do the work outside of practice, too."

New England and Columbus have already met three times this season, with Revs II earning points in two of the three matchups, both draws. Crew 2 finished fourth in the East and claimed the Northeast Division title, but has since had a coaching change.

The matchup also carries significance for Moreira as he spent four years as an assistant coach with Columbus' first team, helping the club win MLS Cup in 2020.

"I'm expecting a lot of what we've already seen against them. It's been three very good football matches. We play a similar style, similar system. I know they've had a coaching change, so I don't know if they will change a bit in regard to that, but we will be prepared for anything," explained Moreira. "It is special. It feels already written in terms of what is supposed to happen in my mind, but it's a beautiful thing to go there. It was early in my coaching career, so to get a flashback of that stadium, those memories of winning championships there, it's definitely a feel-good story and hopefully we close it out with a win."

"It means a lot to be here. We came up short last year, so most of the guys know the feeling of losing in playoffs is not nice, and it would be great to make it far," said Dahlin. "We know what we're up against and we know what we need to do."

MYLES MORGAN SECURES REVS II RECORD AHEAD OF MLS NEXT PRO PLAYOFFS

When Myles Morgan scored his 13th goal of the season for New England Revolution II against New York City FC II in August, he matched the club's single-season scoring record. With three games remaining in the regular season, the question became whether he could make the record his own. On Decision Day, against his former club, Morgan pulled through – setting a new mark while helping Revolution II secure a spot in the 2026 MLS NEXT Pro Playoffs.

Revs II took down Toronto FC II on Sept. 20 to close out the MLS NEXT Pro regular season. With a playoff berth on the line and one last shot to etch his name into the club's history books, Morgan led the way for New England, logging the first goal of the 3-1 win just before halftime. Toronto equalized minutes later, but the Revs refused to let the result slip away, putting the game out of reach with two more goals from midfielder Javaun Mussenden and homegrown defender Damario McIntosh.

While Morgan emphasized that his focus is always on helping the team however he can, he admitted the chance to break the club record provided extra motivation. The opportunity to do it against his former club revved him up even more.

"I definitely had that in my mind for sure. The last two games I wasn't scoring, at Carolina Core I hit the crossbar and I was trying to break that record. It was motivation for sure. I knew, last game of the season, Toronto, especially since I played there too, I've got to score," Morgan explained. "It was a good feeling, especially to do it in front of my family and friends too."

Morgan began his professional journey in Toronto and later spent time with the Vancouver Whitecaps' MLS NEXT Pro side before joining New England this season. After recording just four goals and one assist in league play prior to this year, the Canadian attacker has found his stride in New England, totaling 15 goal contributions. The 21-year-old has also emerged as one of MLS NEXT Pro's top scorers, ranking fourth in the league.

"It's really about knowing where to be. My teammates give me the ball in the right spots. I count on them to get me the ball in the right spots and then they count on me to put it in the net," he said. "I used to play as a center midfielder, so I didn't score as many goals, but now I am striking. I'm closer to the net and I put balls in the net. That's my job at the end of the day, to score goals."

With the win in Toronto, Revs II finished fifth in the Eastern Conference standings. The squad will open their playoff run in the Eastern Conference Quarterfinals against Columbus Crew 2 on Saturday, October 17 at 3 p.m. ET. It marks the club's third postseason appearance. For Morgan, making a run for the title will come down to consistency, both from the team as a whole and from himself as a goalscorer.

"For us it's about doing what we've done to be in the playoffs," he explained. "Coach puts an emphasis on just being us and everything else will take care of itself."

TEAM NOTES

REVOLUTION ACADEMY GRADUATE JAVAUN MUSSENDEN MAKES MLS DEBUT

Revolution II midfielder and Academy graduate Javaun Mussenden made his MLS debut on September 26 against Real Salt Lake. The 19-year-old entered the match as a second-half substitute, playing 22 minutes and completing over 90 percent of his passes.

Mussenden has been a mainstay for Revolution II during the last two seasons. The 2024-2025 Revolution Academy Player of the Year owns 48 games played in MLS NEXT Pro, 37 of them starts. In 2026, Mussenden has logged two goals and four assists over 22 appearances for Revolution II, including the winning tally in the season finale at Toronto FC II.

At the international level, Mussenden has represented the United States at the Under-19 and Under-20 levels, competing at the CONCACAF U-20 Championships this past summer.

REVOLUTION HOMEGROWNS M CRISTIANO OLIVEIRA AND M JUDAH SIQUEIRA CALLED UP TO USYNT

During the recent September/October international window, several players from the Revolution earned call-ups to their respective national teams, including players from Revolution II.

Cristiano Oliveira and Judah Siqueira continued to represent the Revolution's Pro Player Pathway as they each joined the United States on youth levels during the window. Oliveira joined the U-19s for three matches against Wales, England, and Norway, while Siqueira played with the U-17 team for three matches against the Republic of Ireland, Norway, and Netherlands.

With the U-19s, Oliveira started the first match against Wales' Under-19 squad, logging 58 minutes in their 2-0 victory. He also earned minutes against Norway's youth team, playing the entire second half and notching an assist in the 4-3 win.

In his first international call-up, Siqueira started in his debut against Ireland and remained on the pitch for 60 minutes. He then came off the bench against Norway midway through the second half. As the United States took on the Netherland's U-17s, Siqueira was again in the starting group and capped off his first international camp with a goal from the spot.

REVOLUTION SIGN MIDFIELDER JUDAH SIQUEIRA AS HOMEGROWN PLAYER

The New England Revolution signed midfielder Judah Siqueira as the 17th Homegrown Player in club history. Siqueira, a 17-year-old from Easton, Mass., joins New England's roster through the 2027-28 Major League Soccer season with club options through the 2030-31 campaign.

Siqueira inks a Homegrown Player contract with New England's senior team after collecting two back-to-back MLS appearances. The Brazilian-American midfielder became the 14th Revolution Academy graduate to suit up for an MLS appearance with New England, making his league debut on Aug. 19 at D.C. United in a 3-0 victory. Siqueira followed that outing with a 26-minute performance in the Revolution's 1-1 draw against New York City FC on Aug. 23, marking his Gillette Stadium debut.

"We are thrilled to sign Judah as a Homegrown Player," said General Manager and Chief Soccer Officer, Chris Tierney. "Over the years, we have watched Judah develop into an outstanding young player through our Academy and with Revolution II. Judah has an extremely high ceiling and a bright future ahead of him. We're excited to see his continued development with our club in the years to come."

A product of the Revolution Academy and Revolution II, Siqueira has steadily progressed through the club's ranks over the past two seasons. The 17-year-old has totaled 24 MLS NEXT Pro appearances, including 13 starts, while scoring three goals and one assist for New England's developmental team, Revolution II.

Siqueira has featured in 15 matches for Revolution II this season, making 11 starts while recording two goals and one assist. The Academy product scored the game-winning goal in a 1-0 victory over Orlando City B on May 17. In his most recent MLS NEXT Pro appearance, Siqueira helped create the game-winning tally in a 2-1 win over CT United FC on Aug. 9.

Siqueira joined the Revolution Academy in 2022. During the 2024-25 season, Siqueira led the Academy's Under-16 squad with 25 goals scored. He also added five goals and two assists with the Under-18 team during the 2025-26 MLS NEXT season.

"Signing a professional contract with New England is a dream come true," said Siqueira. "I'm incredibly grateful to all my coaches, teammates, and family members who have supported me and pushed me to become the player I am today. Their belief in me has helped make this moment possible. I'm excited to join the first team, continue developing as a player, and contribute in any way I can to help the club succeed."

STAFF BIOS

PABLO MOREIRA

HEAD COACH

Pablo Moreira is in his first season as Head Coach of New England Revolution II, joining the developmental side after two seasons on the Revolution's first-team staff, including a four-game spell as interim head coach in 2025, and 11 campaigns as an assistant coach in Major League Soccer. Moreira is a two-time MLS Cup champion with over 400 matches coached in his career. During his tenure in MLS, Moreira has coached an MLS League MVP, MLS Cup MVP, Newcomer of the Year, Goalkeeper of the Year, seven MLS Best XI selections, and nine MLS All-Star Selections en route to 155 career wins as an assistant.

Prior to joining the Revolution, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach for the Columbus Crew from 2019-22. Moreira helped guide the Crew to the 2020 MLS Cup title, becoming the youngest assistant coach in league history to win multiple MLS Cups — the first to do so with clubs in both conferences. The next year, he helped lead Columbus to the 2021 Campeones Cup, the club's first international trophy, beating Liga MX champions Cruz Azul.

Moreira, 41, entered the professional ranks as an Assistant Coach for the Portland Timbers from 2013-17. Moreira's first season with the Timbers included a 23-point improvement and a 43-point goal-differential improvement from the previous season, securing a first-place finish in the Western Conference and the club's first postseason berth. During his tenure, Moreira helped lead Portland to its first MLS Cup championship in 2015, as well as Concacaf Champions League appearances in 2014 and 2016, Western Conference regular season first-place finishes in 2013 and 2017, and a Cascadia Cup in 2017.

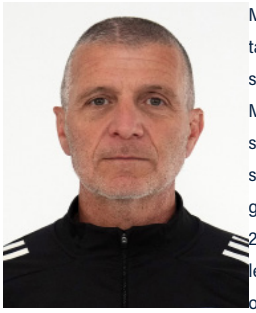

At the collegiate level, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach / Video Analyst at the University of Akron from 2010-2012. The Zips compiled a 55-6-9 record during his three seasons, while Moreira helped assemble the nation's No. 2 recruiting class in each of his first three years, producing 14 professionals into the MLS ranks during that span. In 2011, Akron set an MLS record for most first-round selections from a single school, landing five of the first eight picks in the MLS SuperDraft. Akron won the National Championship in 2010 in addition to three consecutive Mid-American Conference regular-season titles (2010–12), and two MAC Tournament championships (2010, 2012).

Moreira played as a forward for the Akron Zips from 2003-07. He was on the first Mid-American Conference team to be ranked No. 1 in the nation in any sport in 2005. Moreira earned All-Mid-American Conference honors in 2006 and 2007, in addition to winning three MAC regular season (2005, 2006, 2007) and Conference Tournament championships (2004, 2005, 2007).

Born in Montevideo, Uruguay, Moreira comes from a distinguished soccer lineage as he is the son of former Uruguayan International Jose "Chico" Moreira, who in 1980 with club side Nacional, captured the South American Treble winning the Club World Cup, Copa Libertadores, and Uruguayan Primera Division League Titles, in addition to winning the 1980 Mundialito (Copa de Oro de Campeones Mundiales) with the Uruguay National Team.

MICHAEL MILAZZO

ASSISTANT COACH

Michael Milazzo is entering his second season as an Assistant Coach with New England Revolution II and his fourth season with the club. In the 2025 MLS NEXT Pro campaign, Milazzo helped lead Revolution II to their second postseason run in club history, finishing the MLS NEXT Pro regular season with a 14-7-7 record that matched the team's single-season win record. Milazzo previously spent the 2022-24 seasons as a Head Coach in the Revolution Academy, leading the Under-18s in 2024 after two seasons at the helm of the Under-15s in MLS NEXT.

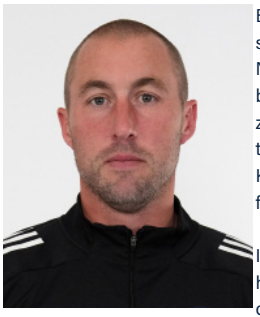

Milazzo brings a decorated resume to his role, having previously served as an Assistant Coach for USL side North Carolina FC. During his tenure with North Carolina, he led the Under-23s for two seasons in USL League Two and was a Head Coach for the Academy's Under-19s for three seasons. From 2016-2022, Milazzo coached multiple academy teams from Under-12s to Under-23s.

His coaching career also includes a tenure with Columbus Crew SC, where he served as both Academy Director and Head Coach of the Under-18 team from 2015-16. Prior to Columbus, Milazzo was Assistant Coach of the Richmond Kickers of the USL. In Richmond, Milazzo held a dual role of serving as the Academy Manager of Richmond United Academy in 2014, while overseeing the Under-18, Under-16, and Under-14 teams competing in the nationally recognized U.S. Soccer Development Academy, for the Richmond Strikers Academy program in 2013.

A native of Cary, N.C., Milazzo began his coaching career in 1997 as an Assistant Coach at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, his alma mater. From 1999 to 2012, Milazzo took on various roles with the Capital Area Soccer League's Chelsea FC Academy, including Academy Director, General Manager, and Head Coach of several youth teams. Milazzo is certified with his USSF "A" Senior coaching license and his UEFA "B" coaching license with the Scottish Football Federation.

BRAD KNIGHTON

ASSISTANT COACH/GOALKEEPER COACH

Brad Knighton is entering his second season as the Assistant Coach/Goalkeeper Coach for Revolution II, the New England Revolution's developmental side which began play in 2020. Coaching alongside Michael Milazzo in 2025, Knighton also helped guide Revolution II to their second postseason appearance in team history. Knighton spent the 2023-24 seasons as a Head Coach for the Revolution Academy, competing in MLS NEXT.

In Knighton's first season with the Revolution Academy, he led the Under-19s to the MLS NEXT Cup Championship, securing New England's second consecutive national title. The Under-19s finished 18-3-5 overall in 2022-23, including 3-0-2 in the postseason. After switching to the Under-15s level in 2024, Knighton stayed on staff to help guide the Academy to a 8-1-4 record in MLS NEXT Flex action.

Prior to his coaching days, the Hickory, N.C. native began his playing career with New England in 2007 as an undrafted free agent. He went on to set a club record for the most MLS seasons in a Revolution uniform (12), and registered a 33-29-20 mark in his career, including 21 wins for the Revolution. During his tenure, Knighton helped New England win the 2021 Supporters' Shield, and started four games en route to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

Knighton, 41, retired after the 2022 MLS season and ranks fourth in Revolution history in goals against average (1.70), save percentage (66.9), and winning percentage (.509) among qualifying goalkeepers. In U.S. Open Cup play, he holds the club's all-time record in games played in goal (13), games started in goal (13), and minutes played in goal (1,260). Outside of New England, Knighton played for the Philadelphia Union during their inaugural season in 2010, and helped lead Vancouver Whitecaps FC to its first appearance in the MLS Cup Playoffs in 2012.

Beyond his on-field achievements, the 2022 Revolution Humanitarian of the Year continues to dedicate his time to serving the New England community alongside his family. On November 3, 2025, the Knighton family marked the two-year anniversary of the Olivia Knighton Foundation. Brad, his wife, Britney, and their sons Owen and Brooks launched the foundation in 2023 on the birthday of their late daughter, Olivia, and has since donated over $100,000 through scholarships, soccer programs, animal research, and more.
